PREFACE TO

WILSONS FROM NEW ENGLAND

Probably the first, and certainly the most prominent individual with the Wilson name, to establish permanent residence in New England, was the Rev. John Wilson who came in the spring of 1630, with Gov. Winthrop in the ARBELLA, to serve as the founding pastor of the First Church in Boston and as the spiritual leader of the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

Among the thousands who followed, between 1630 and 1650, in the Puritan Great Migration, we can identify at least thirty persons named Wilson. James Savage in his Genealogical Dictionary [1860] lists over two hundred and fifty individuals with this name who resided here prior to 1700, his compilation is far from complete. Some of these individuals did not marry, the families of others petered out within a few generations, most left a posterity which flourished and multiplied.

These early settlers were augmented by the influx of immigrants of Scotch ancestry who came from northern Ireland starting in 1715, the forerunners of a massive migration. By the time of the Revolutionary war it has been estimated that more than one-sixth of the population was of Scotch-Irish origin. Wilson was one of the most frequently encountered names in this group.

The 1790 census of the six New England states lists four hundred and forty families, containing over twenty-five hundred individuals, with the Wilson name. The largest concentration was in New Hampshire where they accounted for one of every two hundred seventeen residents. Wilson is usually listed among the ten surnames most frequently encountered in New England.

Using primary sources such as town vital records, land records, gravestone inscriptions, probate records, military records and census listings we have, during the past thirty-five years, assembled a data base of over fifty thousand individuals with this name. Information from secondary sources such as published family genealogies, town histories, Bible records and the research of descendants, has been included in this compilation only when such material was found to be consistent with known facts. In many instances such data from secondary sources is the only information available on later generations.

Wilsons From New England is conceived as a means to provide access to this data in the form of a series of books each of which, insofar as is possible, traces the male line from an immigrant ancestor who settled in New England during colonial times. Some of these volumes cover the descendants of several unrelated progenitors who initially settled in the same geographical area, while others, such as this, cover descendants of a single immigrant ancestor.

Although we have striven for accuracy, our priority has been to establish family structure rather than provide absolute proof of all family relationships. Thus, in the absence of indications to the contrary, we have assumed that an individual whose marriage is listed in the town records is the same one whose birth was recorded there some twenty-odd years earlier. Likewise, we have assumed that minors listed in the census were the children of the adults with whom they were living. In rare instances these assumptions are not valid.

Especially in earlier times there were several variations in the way the family name was spelled. Although some of these variations persist to the present we have concluded that their use serves to cloud rather than to clarify the overall picture and therefore we have spelled the name as Wilson throughout.

A distinctive letter identification has been assigned to each volume in this series. These alphabetical designations are deeply embedded in our data base and have no relationship to the sequence in which the volumes are published.

Each individual born with the Wilson name has been assigned an index code designation. Each such designation is unique, thus providing a quick and simple means to cross-reference individuals even though they may be listed in different volumes. Those who are not familiar with the numbering system used throughout Wilsons From New England should consult "How To Locate An Individual," on page 298 of this volume.

Almost all of those consulting this book will be searching for the origins or posterity either of an individual named Wilson or of someone who married a Wilson. To facilitate such searches we have included two expanded indexes. The index to Wilson names shows the year of birth, the principal place of residence and, when known, the year of death for each individual, including females who acquired the name by marriage. The index to spouses, in addition to the name, shows the date and place of the marriage whenever these facts are known.

Our format has been designed to permit computer printouts of individual lines from those families whose records have been partially compiled but whose genealogy has not yet been published.

Compilations of this type are never completed, there are always elusive lines of descent which have been overlooked. Correspondence regarding corrections or additions or with material on other Wilson families for inclusion in future volumes is always welcome.

Finally, a note regarding the depth of the coverage in this series. In the Pioneer Valley Region of Massachusetts, comprised of the counties of Franklin, Hampden and Hampshire, more than two-thirds of the native New Englanders having the Wilson name, as listed in the 1850 census, have been included in the six volumes of Wilsons From New England which have been published to date. Over thirteen thousand individuals named Wilson are listed in these six volumes.

PREFACE TO VOLUME "P"

The name Henry Wilson appears initially in Dedham, Massachusetts during the year 1640. We find no mention of him or elsewhere in New England or on the available ship's passenger lists.

At the time of it's founding Dedham extended from the bounds of Boston all the way to the present border of the State of Rhode Island. This huge area comprised the western half of what is now Norfolk County. As a proprietor of the town Henry participated in the periodic distribution of lands originally held in common ownership by all of the proprietors. Thus it is not surprising that his descendants settled where these common lands were located, primarily in areas that soon became the towns of Dover, Franklin, Medfield, Medway, Needham, Norfolk and Wrentham.

At the start of the Revolutionary War Henry's descendants had become firmly established in Franklin, Norfolk, and Worcester counties, Massachusetts, York County, Maine, Cheshire County, New Hampshire and Rutland County, Vermont.

Twenty-five years later, at the close of the eighteenth century, they were also residing in Castine, Maine, Canton, Pennsylvania, and Middlebury, New York. Tracing their migrations during the nineteenth century we find them concentrated in Santa Clara County, California, and in several locations in Iowa.

We have been helped in preparing this volume by compilations made by the late Howard O. Wilson, of Ainsworth, Nebraska, regarding the lines through Wyoming County, New York; by the late Cecil H. Grider, of Widner, Georgia, relating to the residents of California; and by Anna Lee (Gray) Woffington, of Big Piney, Wyoming, regarding those families which resided in Bradford County, Pennsylvania.

Since the inception of this series we have been bothered by the question of just how much space to devote to the female lines. Several correspondents have commented that the Wilson daughters have largely been ignored. On the other hand it does not make sense to use valuable space by copying page after page from generally well researched volumes devoted to cogent lines. After much experimentation we have settled on the format introduced in this volume, in which we list the births, marriages, and deaths of the known children of everyone born with the name Wilson, together with selected data regarding the spouses of these children. We believe that this provides equitable treatment, regardless of sex.

Another innovation in this volume is the addition of the plus mark (+) following the index code for mothers of Wilson children. This eliminates the need to look for them at the listing of their husband's birth, then find them in the following generation where he has been carried forward as a parent.

Composition for this volume was done with a 386SX-33 personal computer using MS-DOS 5.0, the old reliable Volkswriter VW4 word processing program and an Epson Stylus 800 ink-jet printer.

Finally, we wish to thank those individuals who have shared with us their research and family records, thereby enabling us to greatly extend the coverage of this volume: Theodore J. F. Banvard, Shepherdstown, West Virginia; Dorothy Louise (Fancher) Duggar, Anchorage, Alaska; Joseph A. Haskin, Gainesville, Florida; Mrs. Henry J. McCusker, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida; Mrs. George W. Morris, Santa Cruz, California; Ronald G. Munro, Round Pond, Maine; Jeannette Nickerson, Livonia Center, New York; Mrs. Dale R. Peterson, Lake Forest Park, Washington; Robert M. Riggs, Cumberland, Maryland; Dorothy A. Seaman, Ogunquit, Maine; Virginia S. Spiller, York, Maine; and Linda Margaret (Farr) Welch, Lebanon, New Hampshire.

THE IMMIGRANT

The earliest record we have found of HENRY (P01-001) WILSON is his admission to the church in Dedham, on 6th day of the 1st month of 1640.

Having attended to his spiritual needs Henry then turned to temporal matters. From "The Proprietors' Records of the Town of Dedham," as given by Don Gleason Hill in The Early Records of the Town of Dedham, Massachusetts, [1892] 3:68 we find; "The 23th of ye 4th month, called June, 1640. Granted unto Henry Wilson & Samuell Bullen to have that pcell of Land wch lyeth in ye corner beneeth & next unto Mr. DeEnganes Lott to be Divided betwix them. Memorandum yt Henry Wilson is content to lay downe this grant so he may be pvided for els where."

The record continues; "The 28th day of ye 7th month, called September, 1640. Wherea Edward Alleyn hath given unto Henry Wilson a smale pcell of land to sett an house upon beyond ye Lott of Willm Bullard towards the North, We doe graunt unto the sayd Henry Wilson Sixe more acres for planting grownd to lye beyone the other portion of ye sayd Edward that lyeth beyond Vine brooke to be set out by ye sayd Edward, mr. Wheelocke, John Luson & John Kingsbury, or any three of them." (Hill, op. cit., 3:71)

The land on which Henry finally settled, and which was to remain in the Wilson family for 275 years, was located in the eastern part of the present town of Dover, near the Westwood town line, on the path which led to the common pasture grounds in the vicinity of Powisset. He was the first settler within the limits of Dover.

With these matters taken care of Henry next turned to his family life. The Dedham records note that Henry married there, on the 24th day of the 9th month, 1642, MARY METCALF, daughter of Michael and Sarah (Elwyn) Metcalf. Mary's origins have been fully traced; she was born 14 February 1618, probably at St. Benedicts, Norwich, England, and sailed for the Massachusetts Bay Colony with her parents and seven siblings, on 15 April 1637, aboard the JOHN AND DOROTHY, William Andrews, master. (Isaac Stevens, Metcalf Genealogy, [1898] pp. 11/17) Mary died at Dedham (VR), 5 (3) 1676.

Henry's origins are more obscure. The Wilson family records, as included in Vital Records of Dover, Massachusetts to the Year 1850, say that Henry came in 1639 from Kent in England. We can find nothing to either verify or disprove this statement, it is significant that Banks, Pope and Savage, three acknowledged experts on early migration to New England, do not mention Henry's origins nor do they give the name of the ship on which he arrived.

The Dedham Town Records, edited by Don Gleason Hill, Town Clerk, and published in 1886, hereinafter referenced as "Dedham VR", notes that Henry died 8 February 1689, there is no mention of his age. The 1989 Vital Records of Dedham, Massachusetts, 1635-1844, which corrects errors, adds new material, and modernizes the dates in the prior publication, is hereinafter referenced as "Dedham 1989 VR."

Until 31 March 1836, when the Town of Dover was established, events relating to the family of Henry Wilson were recorded in Dedham. Events recorded by the town of Dover during the ensuing thirteen years, births and deaths taken from gravestones in Highland Cemetery, church records of births, marriages and deaths, and events found in several private family records are listed in the aforementioned Vital Records of Dover, Massachusetts to the Year 1850, hereinafter "Dover VR," which was published in 1908.

Most of the items therein which relate to the Wilson family came from two private sources, the Wilson diary and the Wilson family records, both then in the possession of Mrs. Lillian (Wilson P07-264) Bond of Dover. There is nothing to show when and by whom they were compiled, the originals cannot be located. Even though these documents coordinate well with the Dedham Vital Records they list events which occurred more than two and one-half centuries prior to their publication, they cannot be considered to be a primary source. To avoid confusion with the official records all items from this source, when not otherwise verified, are cited as "Wilson Family Records."

The original town of Dedham covered an immense area extending southwesterly, from the present limits of the city of Boston all the way to the Rhode Island line, embracing the entire western half of what is now Norfolk County. Henry, as a proprietor of Dedham, was entitled to share in each successive division of common lands in the town; several of the lots thus acquired were settled by his descendants. Thus we find them residing at an early time in the areas which later became the towns of Dover, Franklin, Medfield, Medway, Millis, Needham, Norfolk and Wrentham. His daughter Mary settled in Pocumtuck, the 8,000 acres on the west side of the Connecticut River received in 1664 by the Dedham proprietors in exchange for their land which had been granted by the General Court to the Natick Indians.

Henry and Mary attended the First Parish Church in Dedham. It was not until 1749 with the organization of the Fourth Parish Church, later known as Dover First Parish Church, that the family was relieved of the long trek, estimated at twelve to fifteen miles round trip, to attend services, to participate in town affairs, and to join in the social life of the community. It is not surprising that Henry's name is infrequently found in the Dedham records.

One item in the Dedham Town Records, is of special interest: "On the first day of January, the eleventh month of the year 1644, assembled those whose names are under written, with other Inhabitants of This Town. Voted for free public school in our said town." Among the 42 signers were Henry Wilson and his father-in-law, Michael Metcalf. It has been said that this was the first instance of inhabitants of a town being taxed to support free public schools. Apparently this liberal attitude did not long prevail; we read that in 1691 the Town was indicted for not supporting a school. (Herman Mann, Historical Annals of Dedham [1947])

Children of Henry and Mary (Metcalf) Wilson; all births recorded at Dedham:

2-1+ i. MICHAEL, born 7 (6) 1644, died at Wrentham, MA 31 May 1731.

2-2 ii. SARAH, born 24 (4) 1650, bapt. 22 (11) 1653, died at Wrentham (VR), 17 Nov. 1700. She married at Dorchester, MA (VR), 17 Apr. 1678, "by the Worshipfull Joseph Dudley, Esq.," as his first wife, ANTHONY HANCOCK, who came from England about 1638, settled in Dorchester, later removed to Wrentham where he died in January of 1726. (Dr. Harold H. Shepard, Anthony Hancock and Some of His Descendants, [1986] pp. 1-6) Anthony and Sarah had three children:

a) William Hancock, born at Dedham (VR), 2 Feb. 1680/1, died there (VR), 9 (12) 1681.

b) Henery Hancock, born at Dedham (VR), 6 May 1682, or 3 June 1682, died before 23 May 1738 when administration on his estate was given to his widow Elizabeth. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, docket 6328) He married at Cambridge (VR), 17 Jan. 1705, Mary Delaney who died in 1710. They had two children. Henry married second, at Attleborough, 8 Nov. 1711, Elizabeth Robinson, and had seven more children.

c) Anthony Hancock, Jr., born at Wrentham (VR) 26 Feb. 1684, died there (VR) 5 Dec. 1748, in his 64th year. He married at Sherborn (VR), 25 Feb. 1707/8, Elizabeth, daughter of William and Leah (Fisher) Goddard (1687-1735), had nine children born at Wrentham. He married second, at Wrentham (VR), 28 Feb. 1738, Susannah Hills (d. 1744).

2-3 iii. MARY, born 7 (9) 1652, bapt. 21 (9) 1652. She married, as his second wife, DAVID HOYT, probably at Deerfield, MA, where she died about 1689. This marriage is noted by Henry R. Stiles on page 411 of volume 2 of The History of Ancient Windsor, [1892], also by Clarence Almon Torrey, on page 395 of New England Marriages Prior to 1700, and most significantly, in Wilson Family Records, which notes that Mary married D. HOIT. David was born 22 April 1651, son of Nicholas and Susanna (Joyce) Hoyt of Hadley and Deerfield, MA. He was killed by the Indians in 1704 following the capture of his entire family.

A complete account of this incident is found in A History of Deerfield, Massachusetts, [1896] 1:355, 2:214, 251, by George Sheldon who mistakenly names Sarah, rather then Mary Wilson, as Hoyt's second wife. They had three children:

a) Mary Hoyt, born about 1684. She married, 4 Apr. 1707, Judah (b. 1677), son of Judah and Mercy (Burt) Wright. (James Savage, A Genealogical Dictionary, [1860] 4:658)

b) Sarah Hoyt, born 6 May 1686, died 11 Jan. 1761. She was captured by Indians in 1704 and taken to Canada where she married a fellow captive, Ebenezer (1682-1760), son of Godfrey and Mary (Williams) Nims of Deerfield. They were eventually ransomed and returned to Deerfield. They had five children, the oldest was born in captivity and the fourth, when in his 25th year, was killed by Indians.

c) Jonathan Hoyt, born 6 Apr. 1688, died at Deerfield 23 May 1779. He was a brave and skillful Indian fighter, a scout and officer in the military. He married, 26 June 1712, Mary (1690-1780), daughter of Samuel Field of Deerfield. They had six children.

2-4 iv. ELIZABETH, born 4 (11) 1653, died at Dedham (VR), 8 Oct. 1710. She married there (VR), 4 (10) 1684, JOHN RICE who was born there (VR) 18 (6) 1656, son of John and Ann (Hackly) Rice. (Dedham Historical Register, 9[1898]:6) This John Rice is not listed by Savage nor have we found him in any of the published Rice Family genealogies. They had births of five children recorded at Dedham:

a) John Rice, born 12 Feb. 1685/6, died 9 (5) 1686.

b) John Rice, born 2 Mar. 1688/9. He married Judith -----, had a son recorded in Dedham.

c) Anna Rice, born 27 Dec. 1694.

d) Mary Rice, born 27 Dec. 1695.

e) Sarah Rice, born 29 May 1698.

2-5+ v. EPHRAIM, born 2 (4) 1656, died at Dedham, 20 Feb. 1732/33.

End of first generation.

SECOND GENERATION

P02-001 MICHAEL WILSON (Henry) born at Dedham, Massachusetts (VR), 7 (6) 1644, eldest child of Henry and Mary (Metcalf) Wilson. He was an early settler in that part of Dedham which in 1673 became the new town of Wrentham, possibly having resided in Medfield for a short time after his marriage. He died at Wrentham (VR), 31 May 1731.

He married at Medfield, Massachusetts (VR), on 4 November 1674, MARY HAMANT, daughter of Francis and Sarah Hamamt of Medfield. Mary survived the death of her husband, on "16 May 1738 Mary Wilson, Sr., widow of Michael Wilson," died at Wrentham (VR).

Michael's position in this family is established by a deed dated 28 September 1694 whereby Michael Wilson of Wrentham, for £8.10.0, silver money, conveyed to John Parker of Muddy River, nineteen acres of land in Dedham situated on the northerly side of the town near the falls, "being a lot granted to my father, Henry Wilson, in that division of land in Dedham commonly called Natick Dividend." (signed) Michael Wilson, Mary "X" Wilson, (witnessed) Thomas Battelle, Ephraim Wilson, Jonathan "X" Battelle. (Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, 38:16) The reference to "Natick Dividend" leads us to think that this land was a portion of that set-off to Henry Wilson as a proprietor of Dedham in the area west of the Connecticut River known as Pocumtuck.

Michael Wilson, Sr. signed his will at Wrentham on 2 July 1730; it was proven exactly one year later, on 2 July 1731. He named therein his wife Mary, his youngest son Henry, his daughters Sarah Skinner and Mary Wilson, and his eldest son Michael. Also mentioned were his grandchildren; Mehitable, Michael and Noah Wilson, children of his deceased son Noah. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, file 6123)

Children of Michael and Mary (Hamant Wilson:

3-1 i. SARAH, (Sary) born 23 Feb. 1675/6, at Medfield (VR). The date in the Wrentham records, 18 Feb. 1675, is only sixteen weeks after the parents married.

Sarah's marriage is not recorded, she apparently was the wife of JOHN SKINNER, whose death on 22 Feb. 1747/8 is recorded at Norton, Massachusetts. John was born at Malden, MA, on 5 Apr. 1673 and died at Wrentham on 8 Apr. 1754, son of Thomas and Mary (Pratt) Skinner. Children, as given by Natalie R. Fernald, on page 21 of The Descendants of Thomas Skinner of Malden, Massachusetts, [1925]:

a) Sarah Skinner, born at Norton (VR), 31 Jan. 1697, bapt. at Wrentham, 11 Sept. 1701, died there (VR), 29 Oct. 1732. She married at Wrentham (VR), 7 Dec. 1727, as his first wife, Isaac (1697–1783), son of Andrew and Sarah Blake. They had births of three sons recorded at Wrentham.

b) John Skinner, born at Norton (VR), 17 Dec. 1700, bapt. at Wrentham, 11 Sept. 1701, died there (VR) 8 Apr. 1754. He married at Wrentham (VR), 20 Nov. 1727, Mary (b. 1702), daughter of Andrew and Sarah Blake. They had births of six children recorded at Norton.

c) Ezra Skinner, born at Norton (VR), 26 Apr. 1703, bapt. at Wrentham, 31 May 1702.(sic!) He married at Medford, MA (VR), 8 Jan. 1724, Elizabeth Swan (1700–1780) "both of Norton." They had births of five children recorded at Norton.

d) Ebenezer Skinner, born at Norton (VR), 19 Jan. 1707, bapt. at Wrentham, 16 Mar. 1707, died at Needham, MA (VR), 22 Mar. 1779. He married at Needham (VR), 13 Apr. 1732, Joanna (1710–1790), daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Ackers) Bacon of Dedham. They had five children born at Needham.

e) Hepzibah Skinner, born at Norton (VR), 27 June 1711, bapt. at Wrentham, 26 Aug. 1711. She married at Attleborough, MA (VR), 5 Feb. 1735, Samuel Titus. They had six children, the first born at Attleborough, the others at Norton.

f) Abigail Skinner, born at Norton (VR), 26 Aug. 1713, bapt. at Wrentham, 18 Oct. 1713. She married at Wrentham (VR), on 21 July 1741, as his second wife, Ezra Smith (d. 1770) of Stoughton. They had five children, births recorded at Stoughton, all baptized at Wrentham.

g) Jemima Skinner, born at Norton (VR), 2 Jan. 1717, bapt. at Wrentham, 7 Apr. 1717, died there (VR) 29 Oct. 1802, in her 86th year. She married at Norton (VR), 7 Oct. 1735, Elijah (1710–1750), son of William and Bethiah (MacAllister) Man of Wrentham. They had births of eight children recorded at Wrentham. Jemima (Skinner) Man married second, at Wrentham (VR), Stephen (1707-1784), son of Andrew and Sarah Blake and widower of Sarah (Wilson P04-001) Blake.

3-2 ii. MARY, born 3 Feb. 1678/9, at Medfield (VR), the Wrentham records give the date as 16 Feb. 1677. She died at Wrentham (VR) 17 Aug. 1758, in her 82nd year. She never married, her will, signed ten days before her death, left her entire estate to her cousin (sic!) Lemuel (P04-005) of Wrentham. Mary was apparently unaware that Lemuel had died the previous year while serving in the army. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, file 11837)

3-3+ iii. MICHAEL, born 6 Feb. 1681, at Wrentham, died there, 16 Sept. 1738.

3-4 iv. SILENCE, born 16 Feb. 1683, at Wrentham (VR), died there (VR), 26 Feb. 1683, "in the tenth day of her age."

3-5+ v. NOAH, born 4 Sept. 1686, at Wrentham, died at Wells, Maine, between 1724 and 1728.

3-6+ vi. HENRY, born 9 Apr. 1690, at Wrentham.

P02-005 EPHRAIM WILSON (Henry) born at Dedham, Massachusetts (VR), 2 (4) 1656, baptized there in the same month, youngest of the five children of Henry and Mary (Metcalf) Wilson. He died at Dedham (VR), 20 February 1732/3. The epitaph on his gravestone, in the Ancient Burying Place, Dedham, as copied in 1888 by Rev. Carlos Slafter, reads; "Mr. Ephraim Wilson, Feb. 20, 1733, in the 77th year of his age."

He married first, at Dedham (VR), on 10 (3) 1681, REBECCA SUMNER, who was born at Dorchester, Massachusetts (VR), 3 (11) 1661, daughter of Samuel and Rebecca (Staples) Sumner. (William S. Appleton, Descendants of William Sumner, [1879] page 3) "Rebecca, wife of Ephraim Wilson," died at Dedham (VR) on 16 October 1714, "age 53 yrs., lacking 2 m 10 d." (Wilson Family Records)

Ephraim married second, on 9 March 1714/5, at Milton, Massachusetts (VR), REBECCA TUCKER, who was born at Dorchester, on 1 November 1673, daughter of James and Rebecca (Tolman) Tucker. (Ephraim Tucker, Genealogy of the Tucker Family, [1895] page 27) Rebecca made her will at Dedham, on 17 June 1735, it was probated 30 May 1749. In addition to her Tucker relatives Rebecca mentioned her deceased husband, Ephraim Wilson, her sons-in-law, John Wilson, Ephraim Wilson and Nathaniel Wilson, and her daughters-in-law, Annie, wife of John Paine and Anna, wife of John Wilson. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, file 9293)

Despite the location of his residence, far from the center of town, Ephraim appears to have taken an active part in town affairs. At various times he served as surveyor of highways, field driver, fence viewer and similar minor town offices. In March of 1699/1700 the selectmen of the town granted Ephraim Wilson three acres of land to be taken from the common lands of the town to offset damage done by the cartway through his land to the site of a new bridge over the Charles River. On 7 May 1705 he complained that debris carried by the spring run-off had piled up at the bridge causing the river to back up and flood his meadow. By July 2nd he had convinced the selectmen that the bridge was no longer safe, they forbid passage over it and appointed Ephraim to set up a fence at each end and remove the flooring to prevent the passing of horses and carts. Finally, we find that the selectmen washed their hands of the matter and left it with Ephraim Wilson to see that work for a new "trussell" at the bridge be accomplished. (Don Gleason Hill, Early Records of the Town of Dedham, 5:259, 285, 312, 335, 345, 354, 363 and 6:163) Early in the settlement of the town Ephraim erected a sawmill on Mill Brook, which was used for many years in the squaring of two sides of the ship timber which was cut in the vicinity for the Boston market. (Frank Smith, Dover Farms, [1914] page 134)

Children of Ephraim and Rebecca (Sumner) Wilson; all births recorded at Dedham:

3-7 i. ANNE, born 12 (1) 1681/2, died at Needham, MA (GS), 17 June 1753, in the 71st year of her age, buried there with her husband in Old Burying Ground. She married at Dedham (VR), on 30 Apr. 1712, as his second wife, JOHN PAINE, who was born at Dedham, 28 Feb. 1684/5, died at Needham, 29 Nov. 1753, son of John and Mary (Day) Paine. Children born at Needham as given by Nathaniel E. Paine on pp. 51/60 of Thomas Payne of Salem and His Descendants, [1928]:

P03-003 MICHAEL WILSON (Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), 6 February 1681, third of the six children of Michael and Mary (Hamant) Wilson. He died there (VR), 16 September 1738.

He married first, at Wrentham (VR), on 17 June 1707, SARAH BUMPAS, who was born at Barnstable, Massachusetts (VR), in January of 1688, daughter of Thomas and Phebe (Lovell) Bumpas. Sarah died at Wrentham (VR), on 19 July 1717. (The American Genealogist, 43[July 1967]:153)

Michael married second, at Barnstable, Massachusetts (VR), on 3 April 1719, JANE ISHAM, who was born there, on 7 October 1689, daughter of John and Jane (Parker) Isham. (Homer W. Brainard, The Ishams in England and America, [1938] page 115) Jane survived her husband by many years, on 14 June 1765 she was judged to be non-compos mentis, and given a court appointed guardian. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, file 13646) Jane (Isham) Wilson died at Franklin (VR), on 27 November 1784.

Michael resided in the northwest part of Wrentham, the area which in 1778 became part of the new town of Franklin. In 1737 we find Michael Wilson signing a petition to have the western precinct of Wrentham set-off as a new town. From early in 1738 to 1750 first Michael, then his son Uriah, were sextons in the old First Church in that town. (Mortimer L. Blake, History of Franklin, Massachusetts, [1879] pps. 125 and 285)

Michael died intestate, administration on his estate was given to the widow, Jane Wilson, on 3 November 1738. His assets were distributed, on 16 June 1740, to: Uriah Wilson, eldest son; Lemuel Wilson, son; Heman Wilson, son; Sarah, wife of Stephen Blake, daughter; Mary, wife of Joshua Daniels, daughter; and Beulah, wife of John Peck, daughter. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, file 7225)

Children of Michael Wilson by his first wife, Sarah (Bumpas); all births are recorded at Wrentham:

4-4 iv. BEULAH, born 15 May 1715. She married at Wrentham (VR), 21 Mar. 1738/9, JOHN PECK. She is probably the Mrs. Beulah Peck who married at Dedham (VR), on 17 Oct. 1745, as his third wife, JOSEPH GUILD, born at Dedham 13 Sept. 1694, died there 24 Oct. 1751, son of Samuel and Mary (Woodcock) Guild. P03-005 NOAH WILSON (Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 4 September 1686, fifth of the six children of Michael and Mary (Hamant) Wilson. He died, probably at Wells, Maine, between October of 1724, when he witnessed a deed of Caleb and Susannah Kimball, and September 1728, when his wife remarried.

He married at Wells (VR), 27 June 1715, ABIGAIL BRAWN, spelled BROWN in the printed record. Abigail survived her husband and married second, at Wells (VR), 12 September 1728, JEREMIAH STORER, spelled STOVER in the printed record. A widower with four children, he was born at Wells in July of 1681, eldest child of Jeremiah and Ruth (Masters) Storer. His estate was entered for probate 18 October 1757. The widow Abigail died between 10 July 1758, when her dower was set-off to her, and 15 June 1767, when this land was divided among her heirs. (Ann C. Kingsbury, Storer Notes, [1945] typescript at NEHG Society, page 45)

On 12 June 1772 Samuel Littlefield, of Wells, conveyed to Michael Wilson, planter, of Wells, a parcel of 25 acres of land near the Kennebunk River. Eleven years later, on 14 May 1783, apparently to clear the title, Samuel Littlefield, of Arundel, conveyed the same parcel of land to Michael Wilson and Noah Wilson, sons of Noah Wilson, late of Wells, deceased. (York County Registry of Deeds, 11:180 and 15:240)

Children of Noah and Abigail (Brawn) Wilson; all births are recorded at Wells:

4-7 i. MEHITABLE, born 8 Jan. 1717, given as April 1717 in Wrentham (VR). On 1 Dec. 1746, Michael Wilson of Wells, County of York, Province of Massachusetts Bay in New England, weaver, and Mehitable Wilson, of Wrentham, spinster, for £475. old tenor, sold to Elisha Pond of Wrentham, 50 acres of land in Wrentham adjacent to land of Michael Wilson, also a second 50 acre parcel. These were the parcels which in 1731 came to the children of Noah Wilson from the will of their grandfather. (Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, 174:214)

Mehitable married, at Medway, MA (VR), on 6 Dec. 1753, as his second wife, JEREMIAH DANIEL(S). He was born at Medfield, MA (VR), 3 Nov. 1684, son of Joseph Daniel by his second wife, Rachel (Sheffield). Jeremiah died at Medway (VR), 16 Nov. 1771, age 87 years. Mehitable, his widow, died (VR) 8 Oct. 1780, age 63 years; they are buried in the East Medway, now Millis, Cemetery. Unlikely as it may appear this 36 year old bride and her 69 year old husband had births of two children recorded at Medway:

a) Jeremiah Daniels, born 30 Sept. 1754, died at Medway (VR) 5 May 1830. He married there (VR), 13 Oct. 1785, Pearlee (1758-1829), daughter of Moses and Abigail (Allen) Richardson. They had three children whose births were recorded at Medway.

b) Hannah Daniels, born 4 June 1756. She married at Medway (VR), 5 July 1780, Amos Lawrence who was born at Wrentham (VR), 15 Jan. 1755, son of David and Elizabeth Lawrence. They removed to Union, Maine. (E. O. Jameson, Genealogical Record of Medway, Massachusetts Families, [1886] page 137)

4-8+ ii. MICHAEL, born 4 May 1721. Michael and his brother Noah were baptized at Wells, 26 June 1726. (NEH&G Register, 75[1921]:105) Michael died 26 Apr. 1785, at York, Maine.

4-9 iii. NOAH, born 12 Nov. 1723. He was living in 1730 when he was mentioned in his grandfather's will.

Children of Abigail (Brawn) (Wilson) by her second husband, Jeremiah Storer; from Kingsbury, op. cit. pp. 45 and 56:

iv. Amos Storer, bapt. at Wells, 13 Sept. 1728/9. (NEH&G Register, 75[1921]:105) He married first, 7 Mar. 1753, Joanna, daughter of Thomas and Abigail (Gray) Penney, had three children. His second marriage, on 9 Oct. 1760, was to Susanna Bennett, they had eight children.

v. Abigail Storer, bapt. at Wells, 28 Aug. 1732. She is not mentioned in here father's will, probably died young.

vi. Priscilla Storer, bapt. at Wells, 21 Apr. 1733. Her intention to marry Jonathan Hatch was recorded at Wells, 26 Oct. 1751. They had nine children baptized at Wells.

P03-006 HENRY WILSON (Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 9 April 1690, youngest of the six children of Michael and Mary (Hamant) Wilson. He died prior to October 1769 when his heirs sold land formerly of Henry Wilson, late of Wrentham, deceased. (Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, 126:211)

His wife, ABIGAIL -----, survived him.

Michael Wilson, Sr. of Wrentham, husbandman, on 1 May 1718, "for that love and trust I have in Henery Wilson, my son," conveyed the whole of his messuage homestead together with a six cow right in the common lands of Wrentham. Apparently this transfer was to be in exchange for Henry's lifetime support for the father, reference is made to "conditions hereafter to be named," but no specifics appear in the deed. (Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, 34:128)

A good indication of the dispersion of Henry's family is obtained from a conveyance dated 20 October 1769 which reads in part; "Abigail Wilson, widow, of Wrentham, and Henry Wilson of Wrentham, aforesaid, yeoman, and Michael Wilson of Myrifield, county of Hampshire, carpenter, and Thomas Goodenow of Shrewsbury, county of Worcester, yeoman, and Abigail his wife, and John Wilson of Upton, county of Worcester, husbandman, and Daniel McAllester of Westborough, county of Worcester, cordwainer, and Mary his wife, and Malachi Wilson of Wrentham, yeoman, and Jedediah Wilson of Wrentham, weaver, for the consideration of 444. pounds, lawful money," conveyed to Nathan Aldis of Wrentham, trader, 120 acres of land in Wrentham, with dwelling house and barn thereon. (Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, 116:75) Although Henry and Abigail are mentioned in this document neither signature appears on the courthouse copy. There were two similar deeds, involving different parcels of land, signed two days earlier by the same individuals, the names of Henry and Abigail are not on either.

Children of Henry and Abigail (-----) Wilson, all births are recorded at Wrentham:

4-10+ i. HENRY, born 17 Mar. 1729/30.

4-11+ ii. MICHAEL, born 21 Feb. 1731/2, died at Middlebury, NY, 23 May 1829.

4-12 iii. ABIGAIL, born 6 Mar. 1734, probably died at Rowe, MA. She married, intention at Westborough, MA (VR), on 19 Mar. 1763, THOMAS GOODENOW, who was born there (VR), on 26 Feb. 1738, died 21 Mar. 1821, son of Thomas and Persis (Rice) Goodenow. (Theodore J. F. Banvard, Goodenows Who Originated At Sudbury, Massachusetts A.D. 1683, [1994] pages 57, 108-110) Thomas and Abigail had six children:

a) Abner Goodenow, born at Northborough (VR), 13 Oct. 1763, died at Deerfield on 25 Oct. 1852. He married, intention at Shrewsbury on 13 Dec. 1783, Bathsheba Henderson born 1762, they had four children. Abner married second, Esther DeWolf (1768-1855) and had six more children.

b) Eber Goodenow, born at Northborough (VR) 15 March 1765, died at Canton, NY 8 Aug. 1843. He married Susannah Atwood (1771-1844) and had nine children.

c) Stephen Goodenow, born at Northborough (VR), 6 Aug. 1767, married M. McAllister, had six children. Could his wife be his first cousin Mary (P04-014.b) McAllister?

d) Thomas Goodenow, born at Shrewsbury (VR), 21 Oct. 1770, died at Rowe (VR), 17 Oct. 1842, age 72 years. He married Charity Hinckley, who died 9 Dec. 1861. They had births of ten children recorded at Rowe. (see P06-063)

e) Perley Goodenow, bapt. at Shrewsbury 28 Apr. 1776.

f) Perley Goodenow, bapt. at Shrewsbury 12 Apr. 1778.

4-13+ iv. JOHN, born 24 Nov. 1735.

4-14 v. MARY, born 27 May 1738, died between 1776 when she was listed as a church member in Rowe and 1781 when her husband remarried. She married at Wrentham (VR), on 23 Oct. 1765, as his first wife, DANIEL McALLISTER, spelled "Macklester" in the Wrentham records. He was born at Westborough, MA (VR), 30 Sept. 1739, son of John and Margaret (Johnson) McAllister. (John B. Threlfall, The Descendants of Angus McAllister, [1970] typescript at NEHG Society) They recorded the births of two children at Westborough:

a) Baby McAllister, born 21 June 1767, died the next day.

b) Mary McAllister, born 21 June 1769. (See P04-012.c)

4-15 vi. NOAH, born 29 Apr. 1740, died at Wrentham (VR), 4 Nov. 1760 "son of Henry and Abigail."

4-16 vii. JEDIDAH, a daughter, born 21 July 1743.

4-17 viii. EBENEZER, born 29 Apr. 1745, died at Wrentham (VR), 5 July 1749, "son of Henry and Abigail."

4-18+ ix. MALACHI, born 10 Aug. 1749.

4-19 x. JEDEDIAH, born circa 1750. There was definitely a son by this name in the family. The last signature on the 1769 deeds is that of Jedediah Wilson, weaver. In those times an unmarried female would have been called "singlewoman" or "spinster."

We have placed him here to conform with the sequence of names as they appear in the deeds, which probably listed the signers in the order of their birth. However, a child born after Malachi would not have been of legal age in 1769. It is conceivable that the designation "daughter" for the seventh child was incorrectly entered in the record and Jedidiah, the son was born in 1743. Speculation is probably needless, we have found no mention of either Jedidah or Jedediah subsequent to the sale of the homestead.

P03-009 SAMUEL WILSON (Ephraim, Henry) born at Dedham, Massachusetts (VR), 5 April 1687, third of the six children of Ephraim and Rebecca (Sumner) Wilson. He died at Needham, Massachusetts (VR), 2 February 1729/30, "in the 43rd year of his age." He is buried with his wife in Old Burying Ground, Needham.

He married at Dedham (VR), on 15 November 1714, ELIZABETH HAWES, who was born there (VR), 29 January 1688/9, oldest child of Nathaniel and Sarah (Newell) Hawes. Mrs. Elizabeth, widow of Samuel Wilson, died at Needham (GS), 19 December 1739, "in the 50th year of her age."

Samuel Wilson, his wife, and his brother-in-law, John Paine, Jr., were among those who were dismissed from the church in Dedham to the church in Needham. In 1726 Samuel taught school in Needham. (Dedham Historical Register, volume 14)

Samuel Wilson of Needham, husbandman, signed his will on 23 December 1729, it was presented to the court on 16 February 1729/30. He mentioned therein his wife Elizabeth, his son Seth, a minor, and his daughters Rebecca, Elizabeth and Johannah, also his brothers Ephraim, Nathaniel and John. On 23 August 1733 Josiah Newell, Sr. was appointed guardian for Elizabeth Wilson, a minor aged about 13 years, daughter of Samuel Wilson, late of Needham, deceased. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, files 5911 and 6477)

Abner Morse, Richards Genealogy, [1861] page 123) Her gravestone, in Ancient Burial Place, Dedham, carries the date 17 October 1740. Nathaniel married second, also at Dedham (VR), on 11 July 1745, HANNAH HESLOP, who was born there (VR), 6 August

P03-014 JOHN WILSON (Ephraim, Henry) born at Dedham, Massachusetts (VR), 30 May 1702, youngest of the six children of Ephraim and Rebecca (Sumner) Wilson. He died at Dedham (VR), 1 May 1788, age 86 years, buried there in Ancient Burial Place.

John married four times and buried all four of his wives. His first marriage was at Medfield, Massachusetts (VR), on 25 December 1729, to JOANNA MORSE, who was born at Dedham on 5 September 1707, daughter of Dea. David and Experience (Sabin) Morse. (Morse and Leavitt, Morse Genealogy, [1903] 1:30) The Dedham records show Joanna died 21 February 1731.

His second marriage, at Dedham (VR), on 10 January 1733/4, was to ANNA FISHER, who was born at Dedham (VR), 27 April 1713, daughter of John and Mary (Onion) Fisher. (Philip H. Fisher, Fisher Genealogy, [1898] page 46) Anna, wife of John Wilson, died at Dedham (VR), 21 April 1737, ten days after the birth of her second child. She is buried with her husband.

We find no record of his third marriage which was to ESTHER SABIN, who was born at Pomfret, Connecticut (VR), 24 August 1719, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Davis) Sabin. Esther Wilson was admitted to the church at Dedham from the church in Pomfret, Connecticut on 28 February 1742. John's fourth marriage took place at Medway, Massachusetts (VR), on 7 May 1767, to his sister-in-law, ESTHER (HAWES) ROCKWOOD, born 22 March 1700, died 19 September 1779, daughter of Nathaniel and Sarah (Newell) Hawes, widow of Hezekiah Rockwood, and sister of Elizabeth Hawes who married Samuel (P03-009). These relationships are established by a will which Esther signed a few days before her second marriage, which was admitted to probate on 4 April 1780, almost seven months after her death. She mentioned therein her late husband, Hezekiah Rockwood, her brother Nathaniel Hawes, several married sisters, and the children, not named, of her deceased sister, Elizabeth Wilson. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 17182)

John Wilson signed his will at Dedham on 13 March 1788, it was probated 2 June 1788. He mentioned therein his son John and his daughters Mary Clark, Anna Wilson and Sarah Davenport. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, file 19082)

FOURTH GENERATION

P04-003 URIAH WILSON (Michael, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), 14 November 1712, third of the children of Michael Wilson by his first wife, Sarah (Bumpas). He died at Keene, New Hampshire (VR), 6 November 1794, "age 80 years and 9 months."

Uriah married first at Wrentham (VR), 23 March 1737/8, MARY GUILD, who was born there, on 10 April 1716, daughter of Josiah and Deborah (-----) Guild. (Charles Burleigh, Genealogy of Guild, Guile and Gile Families, [1887] page 36) Mary (Guild) Wilson died of smallpox, at Keene (VR), 2 January 1777, age 61 years.

He married second, at Keene (VR), on 11 November 1779, RHOBIE THURBER, of Swanzey, New Hampshire. Rhobie survived her husband and married second, at Keene (VR), 6 October 1796, Capt. JOHN SHAW.

The proprietors of Upper Ashuelot, now Keene, granted to Uriah Wilson house lot number eleven, together with farming lands and a share, or right, to future divisions of the common lands of Keene. Subsequently we find him selling, on 1 March 1773, one 56 acre lot, part of the ninth division of common lands, drawn by virtue of house lot number 11, and on 23 May 1773 selling a 30 acre lot of upland, drawn by virtue of house lot number 11. (Cheshire County Registry of Deeds, 3:247, 262; 4:135)

Throughout his residency in Keene we find Uriah Wilson to be active in the purchase and sale of land. He acquired a considerable quantity, not only in Keene but also in some of the surrounding towns. On 28 September 1767 Uriah Wilson, of Keene, yeoman, deeded to his son Joseph "one half of my home lot and one half of my dwelling house and ye barn and my out lands and ye whole of my rights, that is yet to be laid out, and the whole of my husbandry lots lying therein and one half of cattle and sheep and horses that I now possess, that is to be understood the one half of my estate, both real and personal, except the household furniture." On 11 February 1777 Uriah deeded to Joseph "All and every part of my land that I now am possessed of in the township of Keene, together with all buildings and appurtenances thereon," noting that he had previously conveyed to Joseph the other half of the above mentioned premises. (Cheshire County Registry of Deeds, 1:446, 5:519)

Uriah signed the Association Test, attesting his support of the patriot cause, at Keene, in 1775. He is listed there in the 1790 census heading a household comprised of himself and one female.

Lemuel resided in that part of Wrentham which in 1778 was set-off as the new town of Franklin. Wilson was elected Deacon in the Wells church on 23 April 1772 and served in this office for nearly three years. (History of York County, Maine, Evarts & Peck, publishers, [1880] page 399) In 1776 we find him serving as Deacon in the York Church thereby suggesting that it was in the year 1775 that he removed from Wells to York. However, in 1757 he was listed as serving with the militia train band in York; was this just a matter of convenience, or did he in fact move several times across the line between the two towns? (Charles E. Banks, History of York, Maine, [1935] 1:337 and 2:156, 214)

P04-010 Dea. HENRY WILSON (Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), 17 March 1729/30, eldest of the nine children of Henry and Abigail (-----) Wilson.

Henry married at Wrentham (VR), 30 January 1758, ELIZABETH ADAMS, who was born there (VR) 8 Apr. 1734, daughter of John and Sarah (Fairbanks) Adams. (Lorenzo S. Fairbanks, Genealogy of the Fairbanks Family, [1897] page 42)

The Wrentham town records show that several times between 1765 and 1776 Henry Wilson, Jr., was paid for teaching school. He appears to be the Henry Wilson from Wrentham who served in Col. Thomas Craft's regiment of artillery in 1776 and 1777. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:564) The only other candidate for this service was Henry's eldest son, who is known to have served in the war, but was only fifteen years of age in 1776.

Shortly after completing this military service Henry removed from Wrentham and joined his brother Michael in the town of Myrifield, now known as Rowe, situated in the hills of the northwestern part of Franklin County, Massachusetts. Percy W. Brown, on page 85 of his History of Rowe, Massachusetts, [1935] says: "Little is known of Henry Wilson outside the fact that he was a deacon in the early days. In January 1786 the town allowed him £2.0.8 for service which was done for the Town in the course of seven years past. He held various town offices including chairman of the selectmen from 1792 to 1794, and served on the school committee." Brown, on page 45 lists the twenty-one individuals who in 1776 were members of the Church of Christ in Myrifield. Included on this list were Henry Wilson, his wife Abigail, his sister Mary McAllister, and Mary Wilson who apparently was the second wife of Henry's brother Michael.

The 1790 census of Rowe lists Henry Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years, and two females.

Henry Wilson, yeoman, on 3 June 1799, deeded to his son Martin, a 110 acre farm which he had purchased in 1788, located in Rowe on the Charlemont line. The consideration for this transaction was Henry's lifetime support, for which Martin provided a $500.00 bond. The name of Henry's wife does not appear on this document, thus suggesting that Elizabeth was deceased. (Hampden County Registry of Deeds, 16:541 and 26:431)

5-27 i. ELIZABETH, born 19 Nov. 1758, died at Wilmington, Essex Co., NY, on 7 Feb. 1853. She married first, on 30 Jan. 1783, in that portion of Charlemont which later became Heath, MA, a Revolutionary War veteran, Capt. PAUL

P04-011 Sgt. MICHAEL WILSON (Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 21 February 1731/32, second of the nine children of Henry and Abigail (-----) Wilson. He died at Middlebury, Wyoming County, New York on 23 May 1829, in his 98th year, buried in West Middlebury Cemetery.

He married first, MARTHA FISHER, who was born at Wrentham (VR), 25 February 1727/8, daughter of Benjamin and Anna (Cowell) Fisher. This relationship is established by a deed dated 18 July 1796 whereby Ebenezer Wilson and Michael Wilson, Jr., both of Orwell, Rutland County, Vermont, quitclaimed to Joseph Fisher of Rehoboth, Massachusetts, gentleman, all their interest in the dower thirds of their late grandmother, Anna Fisher, late of Wrentham, deceased, and also in the real estate of their late uncle, Benjamin Fisher. (Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, 7:15) "Martha, wife of Michael Wilson, died (Wrentham VR), 30 June 1757, in her 30th year."

Michael soon married a second wife, MARY -----.

He had frequent enlistments in the army during the French and Indian wars. On 29 March 1756 Michael Wilson of Wrentham enlisted as centinel in Maj. Stephen Miller's company for the expedition against Crown Point; he was discharged 1 Dec. 1756, credited with service for 35 weeks and 3 days. When he enlisted again, on 30 July 1761, in Capt. John Nixon's company, his age was given as 26 years and his residence as Wrentham. His name appears on a payroll of this company for service as sergeant from 18 Nov. 1761 to 22 July 1762, 35 weeks and 2 days. (Massachusetts Archives, 95:60, 303; 98:421, 99:182)

In 1765 Michael removed from Wrentham to the town of Myrifield, now Rowe, in the hills of western Massachusetts. During the Revolutionary war he served as sergeant in Capt. Gideon Chapin's company of militia which marched from Rowe in response to the Lexington Alarm. He marched again, on 22 September 1777, in Capt. Seth Howard's company in Col. David Wells regiment of Hampshire County militia which served in the campaign against Gen. Burgoyne for one month and two days. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:545, 575.

Shortly after this service Michael moved again, this time to Danby, Vermont where he was living in 1778. His name appears in Vermont Revolutionary War Rolls, for service in 1781, 17 days at Castleton in the company commanded by his son, Capt. Ebenezer Wilson, in Col. Ira Allen's regiment.

The 1791 census shows him in Orwell, Vermont, heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, one male under 16 and two females. He was still in Orwell for the 1800 census which shows him and his wife, both over 45 years of age, no dependents.

In 1808 Michael and his son Ebenezer removed to New York state where they purchased a large tract of land in Wyoming County. (Bible Records by New York D. A. R., 9:162, at State Library, Albany)

Children of Michael and Martha (Fisher) Wilson, both births are recorded at Wrentham:

5-36+ i. EBENEZER, born 16 Nov. 1754, died at Middlebury, NY, on 1 Sept. 1828.
5-37+ ii. MICHAEL, born 20 Oct. 1756, died early in 1804, at Orwell.

Children of Michael and his second wife, Mary (-----), births are recorded at Wrentham:

5-38 iii. PATTY, born 9 July 1758.
5-39+ iv. NOAH, born 20 Apr. 1761. He died at Alba, PA on 7 Apr. 1844.
5-40 v. HEMAN, born 19 Apr. 1763, died at Shoreham, VT (VR), 21 Feb. 1796, buried there in Jenison Cemetery. The 1791 census shows him there heading a household consisting of himself and one female.
5-41 vi. BEBE, born 23 Aug. 1765. (See P-032 in the appendix.)

P04-013 JOHN WILSON (Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 24 November 1735, fourth of the nine children of Henry and Abigail (-----) Wilson.

He married at Mendon, Massachusetts (VR), on 11 November 1760, SARAH DANIELS, who was born there 17 May 1738, daughter of Samuel Daniels and Sarah (----) Davis. Mrs. Sarah, wife of John Wilson, died at Whiting, Vermont (VR), 13 March 1788.

The name of John Wilson, of Wrentham, is found on a muster roll dated 9 Feb. 1760, of men in Capt Timothy Howmant's company, which served from 1 May 1759 to 16 Dec. 1759, 8 months and 6 days. (Muster Rolls in Massachusetts Archives, 97:376)

John and Sarah came from Mendon to Upton on 30 May 1764. On 21 August 1764 they, along with their children Sarah and John, were warned out of Upton. (NEH&G Register, 55:319) His move from Wrentham to Upton is established by a conveyance dated 12 January 1763 whereby John Wilson, husbandman, of Wrentham, purchased a parcel of land in Monadnock No. 3, now Dublin, New Hampshire. On 3 September 1768, when he sold this land, John and his wife Sarah were living in Upton. (Cheshire County Registry of Deeds, 3:218 and 226) He is easily confused with John (K01-101) who, with his wife Jane, had the births of children recorded in Upton between 1737 and 1742 and possibly remained there until he died in 1774.

Sometime after 1770, when the birth of their youngest known child was recorded at Upton, John and Sarah removed to the comparative wilderness of western Vermont, possibly residing for a time in Clarendon before finally settling in Whiting.

"No formal survey of Whiting was made until the month of September 1774 when bounds of the town were formally laid out under the direction of a committee consisting of John Wilson, John Smith, and Joseph Prindle as surveyor. Wilson who came from Upton, Massachusetts, was first selectman of Whiting in 1783. His land was on the east bank of Otter Creek, one and one half miles on a direct line from the Whiting meeting house." (Hamilton Child, Gazetteer and Business Directory, Addison County, Vermont, [1882] page 248)

John is listed in the 1791 census of Whiting, heading a household consisting of five males over 16 years of age and two females. The 1800 census lists his household as one male over 45 years of age and one female in the 26-45 year age bracket. We find no clue as to whether this female was his daughter, a second wife, or merely a hired housekeeper.

Children of John and Sarah (Daniels) Wilson:

5-42 i. SARAH, born at Mendon about 1762. She is possibly the Sarah Wilson, born in Massachusetts, who died at Bridgewater, VT in 1849, age 87 years.

5-43+ ii. JOHN, born at Mendon on 25 Mar. 1763, died at Bethany, NY in 1836.

5-44 iii. ABIJAH, born at Upton (VR) on 23 Feb. 1765. He was assessed at Sangerfield, Oneida Co., NY in 1796.

5-45+ iv. NATHAN, born at Upton (VR) 11 Sept. 1767, died in 1811 at Crown Point, NY.

5-46 v. DANIELS, later DANIEL, born at Upton (VR) on 30 Sept. 1770. He is listed in the 1800 census of Whiting, heading a household comprised of one male 26-45 years of age and one female in the 16-26 year age bracket.

P04-018 MALACHI WILSON (Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 10 August 1749, youngest of the nine children of Henry and Abigail (-----) Wilson. While residing at Myrifield, now Rowe, Massachusetts, he was recruited for service in the Continental Army; he never returned.

He married at Sutton, Massachusetts (VR), on 22 August 1769, HANNAH BURDON. Hannah survived her husband and married, at Oxford, Massachusetts (VR), on 6 June 1782, ELIJAH McINTIRE, who was born about 1752 at Charlton, Massachusetts, died there 14 March 1836, son of Eleazer and Martha (Pudney) McIntire. Hannah died before June 1800 when her second husband remarried. (Robert H. McIntire, Descendants of Philip McIntire, [1982 edition] page 33)

The name of Malachi Wilson appears on a roll of men raised from the 5th Hampshire County regiment of militia to serve in the Continental Army, engaged for the town of Myrifield. He joined Capt. Brewer's company in Col. Brewer's regiment which was stationed at Camp Valley Forge. On 23 January 1778 he was reported to have deserted. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:574)

Whether he died or whether he deserted is problematical. It appears that his family never saw him again, by 1782 when his wife remarried she had left Myrifield and was residing in Charlton, Massachusetts. Administration on Malachi's estate was given to Elijah McIntire on 3 January 1788, the widow, by then Elijah's wife, told the court that she was left with a minor child, not over 5 years of age. (Hampshire County Probate Court Records, file 162-34)

Child of Malachi and Hannah (Burdon) Wilson:

5-47 i. Child, born circa 1774.

iii. Joel McIntire, born at Charlton, 17 Nov. 1787, died there 24 May 1862. He married there, on 21 Oct. 1810, a widow, Nancy (Detray) Barrett, sister of his brother's wife. No children.

P04-024 Lieut. SETH WILSON (Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Needham, Massachusetts, 16 April 1724, baptized there 19 April 1723/4, fifth of the eight children of Samuel and Elizabeth (Hawes) Wilson. His birth is recorded in the version of the Needham Vital Records published in NEH&G Register, vol. 55, page 258 and vol. 57, page 378, hereinafter cited as "Needham VR. He died at Needham (Wilson Family Records), on 13 May 1780, age 56 years and 19 days.

He married at Needham (VR), on 20 March 1744/5, MILLISON KINGSBURY, who was born there (VR), 8 October 1726, daughter of James and Alice (-----) Kingsbury. (Arthur M. Kingsbury, Descendants of Joseph Kingsbury of Dedham, [1962] page 22)

His name appears on a list, dated at Dedham, 16 September 1771, of officers nominated for commissions by Col. Eliphalet Pond in Capt. Ebenezer Fisher's (Needham) company of Massachusetts militia. His name also appears on a list of officers of the First Regiment, Suffolk County militia. (Muster Rolls in Massachusetts Archives, 99:385, 450)

When the Lexington alarm came, on 19 April 1775, Seth, despite his being over fifty years of age and having earlier resigned his commission, marched with the Needham company of militia. He was credited with six days service as private. On 25 April 1775 he enlisted as private for service in Capt. Samuel Kilton's company of Col. John Paterson's regiment of Massachusetts militia. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:548, 580)

Her will, dated 24 Sept. 1844 and probated 3 Sept. 1850, bequeathed her entire estate to "my beloved, but unfortunately blind nephew, Enoch Wilson of Wrentham." Heirs-at-law were listed as Jared Wilson of Wrentham; Salthermira, wife of John Gibson; Susan, wife of Nespacience Jones of Tompkins, NY; Abigail, wife of John Chickering of Dover; Thankful Bishop, widow, of Roxbury; Hannah Pike, widow, of Boston; Joseph Wilson, of Canton(?); and Asa Wilson, of Dover. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20592)

P04-030 EPHRAIM WILSON (Nathaniel, Ephraim, Henry) born in the fourth parish of Dedham, now Dover, Massachusetts (VR), on 18 January 1737/8, baptized 22 January 1738, third of the four children of Nathaniel and Lydia (Richards) Wilson. He died on 26 April 1822, age 84 years, buried with his two wives in Highland Cemetery, Dover.

He married first, at Dedham (VR), on 13 July 1774 SIBEL ALLEN, who was born there (VR), 4 December 1749, daughter of Eleazer and Phebe (Wright) Allen. Sibel died (GS), 7 October 1783, in the 34th year of her age, less than two weeks after the birth of her third child.

Ephraim's second wife was SARAH BULLARD who died at Dedham (Dover VR), 1 November 1821, age 69 years. (Biographical Review, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, [1898] page 400)

Ephraim Wilson was one of the thousands of minute men who marched to Cambridge in response to the alarm of 19 April 1775, he was credited with six days service in Capt. Ebenezer Battle's company from the fourth parish of Dedham. He was also listed as a private serving with the same company for five days in March of 1776 when they participated in the taking and fortifying of Dorchester Heights, the event which forced the British to evacuate Boston. He is also listed as serving for one month and nine days in the summer of 1778 with Capt. Ebenezer Everett's company of Col. McIntosh's regiment on an expedition to Rhode Island. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:435, 562)

Ephraim's residence was on Strawberry Hill in the fourth parish of Dedham, now Dover, on the Charles River at Day's bridge, near the point where the present towns of Dedham, Dover and Needham meet. E. Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Dover, heading a household which included one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years, and three females. In 1799 he improved Wilsondale Street over Strawberry Hill, the town having given him permission to "turn the road between his house and Mr. Jabez Baker's and to make it passable, free of cost to the town." (Frank Smith, A History of Dover, Massachusetts, [1897] page 259)

The will of Ephraim Wilson of Dover, yeoman, was proven on 7 May 1822. He mentioned therein his wife Sarah, his sons Ephraim and Nathaniel and his daughter Sally. Administration was given to Ephraim Wilson of Dover, yeoman who posted surety by Estes Worthington, Esq. and Morse Smith, gentleman, both of Dedham. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20575)

(Ira Osgood, Descendants of John Osgood, [1894] page 76) Molly died at Dedham (GS), 14 October 1859, age 93 years, 8 months and 17 days.

He appears to be the John Wilson who, on 19 April 1775, marched from the first parish of Dedham with Capt. Aaron Fuller's company of militia. He was credited with five days service. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution. 17:568)

The 1790 census of Needham lists John Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and four females.

John Wilson of Dedham, yeoman, died intestate. On 6 October 1812 the widow Molly Wilson declined to act as administrator and suggested her son-in-law, John Fisher Wilson, of Dedham, yeoman, to serve in her place. He posted surety by Reuben Richards and John Bullard, both of Dedham. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20584)

On 3 January 1860 Polly I. Wilson, of Dedham, her only daughter and only next-of-kin, was given administration on the estate of Molly Wilson, widow, late of Dedham, deceased, intestate. FIFTH GENERATION

P05-004 Maj. JOSEPH WILSON (Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) was born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 21 April 1745, fourth of the nine children of Uriah and Mary (Guild) Wilson. He died at Keene, New Hampshire (VR), 30 January 1816, age 73 years.

MARY -----, wife of Joseph Wilson, died at Keene (VR), on 19 January 1776, age 38 years.

There is no record of his marriage and there are conflicting accounts as to Mary's identity. "Joseph Wilson married Mary Woods, who was born at Groton, Massachusetts, on 16 March 1738, daughter of Samuel and Patience (Bigelow) Woods." This statement, which appears on page 69 of The Farwell Family, [1929] by John D. Farwell, was probably taken from The Genealogy of the Woods Family of Groton, Massachusetts, [1910] by Henry E. Woods.

"Joel Wilson was a son of Joseph and Mary (Wheeler) Wilson, of Keene." This statement appears on page 420 of History of Gilsum, New Hampshire, [1881] by Silvanus Hayward. It originates in Joel's death record in Gilsum, "born in Keene, son of Joseph Wilson and Mary Wheeler." If this is correct, Mary was probably a sister of Jonathan Wheeler who married Joseph's sister Chloe.

It is conceivable that both are correct and Joseph married first MARY WHEELER, mother of Joel, and married second MARY WOODS, whose death in 1776, at the age of 38 years, fits nicely with her birth in 1738.

Joseph had a later marriage, recorded at Lancaster, Massachusetts, on 2 June 1777, to SARAH WILDER, who died at Keene (VR), 12 May 1813.

Joseph, his brother David, and Uriah, their father, in 1775, at Keene, signed the Association Test, avowing their adherence to the patriot cause. His title "Major" is used in his probate record, on his gravestone and on the gravestone of his wife Sarah. He probably received this title for post-war service in the militia; neither the New Hampshire nor the Massachusetts records contain any reference to Revolutionary War service by Joseph Wilson of Keene.

Joseph served Keene as selectman 1781-2. (S. G. Griffin, History of the Town of Keene, New Hampshire, [1904] page 672) He is listed there in the 1790 census heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and two females. The 1800 census shows his household as one male in the 10-16 year age bracket, one male over 45 years of age, one female 16-26 years old and one female over 45. Joseph is not listed as heading a household in the 1810 census of Keene.

Maj. Joseph Wilson signed his will at Keene, on 20 May 1813; it was probated 20 March 1816. He named his son Joseph Wilson of Marlborough, New Hampshire to be executor, surety was provided by his sons Joel of Gilsum and Abijah of Keene, all of whom, along with sons Ephraim and Abel, received bequests. (Cheshire County Probate Court Records, file W-302)

Children of Maj. Joseph and Mary (-----) Wilson; all births are recorded at Keene:

P05-005 Capt. DAVID WILSON (Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) was born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 12 April 1748, fifth of the nine children of Uriah and Mary (Guild) Wilson. He died at Keene, New Hampshire (VR), 5 December 1818, age 71 years.

He married at Keene (VR), on 24 June 1771, ELIZABETH ROCKWOOD, daughter of Nathaniel and Margaret (-----) Rockwood. This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 1 January 1772, whereby Nathaniel Rockwood of Winchester, for love and affection, conveyed to his children, Elizabeth Wilson and Mary Rockwood, both of Keene, 148 acres of land in Winchester, New Hampshire. A few years later David Wilson, yeoman, and Elizabeth, his wife, and Mary Rockwood, spinster, all of Keene, sold this parcel for £60.00.00. (Cheshire County Registry of Deeds, 2:167 and 6:310) Elizabeth, wife of David Wilson, died at Keene (VR), 13 March 1775, age 33 years. This was just two weeks after the birth of her third child.

David married second, at Keene (VR), 19 November 1778, SUSANNAH ALEXANDER, of Winchester. Susannah died at Keene (VR), 3 December 1786, "wife of David Wilson."

Lt. David Wilson married third, also at Keene (VR), on 18 October 1787 ELEANOR (-----) CHAPMAN. Eleanor was the widow of Samuel Chapman who died at Keene 12 March 1786, leaving her with several children. Eleanor survived her second husband and died at Keene (VR), on 26 August 1828, age 84 years.

David, his brother Joseph and his father all signed the Association Test, acknowledging their adherence to the patriot cause, at Keene, in 1775. He served as corporal in Capt. Davis Howlett's company, later in Capt. Joseph Whitcomb's company of Col. Samuel Ashley's regiment of militia which in 1777 marched to reinforce the army at Ticonderoga. (New Hampshire State Papers, 15:3, 17:97) The rank of Lieutenant was used in 1787 for the record of his third marriage, the title Captain comes from his probate file.

In 1785 when the new church in Keene opened, David Wilson is recorded as having the high bid of £10.10.0 for pew number 22. David and several associates purchased a nearby plot of ground on which they erected a carriage shed to protect their horses and carriages during services. It appears that each of the men involved owned a portion of the completed structure, similar to the ownership of present day condominiums. In 1823 we find John Emerson, and Sabra his wife, and Becca Wilson, all of Keene, for a consideration of $6.67, quitclaiming to Solomon Woodward of Keene all their interest in a certain piece of land near the meeting house in Keene, near Main Street, with horse shed standing thereon, containing about 100 square feet, the same formerly built and occupied by David Wilson, late of Keene, deceased. (Cheshire County Registry of Deeds, 105:456) Inasmuch as Woodward had inherited one-third of this structure, and Sabra (Wilson) Emerson and Becca Wilson had a combined two-thirds interest its total value must have been $10.00. One must wonder what the lawyer received for drawing and recording this conveyance.

David is not listed as heading a household in the 1790 census of Keene. The 1800 census lists him with a household comprised of one male over 45 years of age, one male in the 10-16 year age bracket, one female over 45 years and two females aged 16-26 years. In 1793 Joseph served the town of Keene as Selectman and again in 1805-06. (History of the Town of Keene, New Hampshire, [1904] by S. G. Griffin, pp. 276, 672)

The will of Capt. David Wilson was probated at Keene on 24 December 1818. He mentioned therein his wife Eleanor and his three daughters; Becca Wilson; Susan, wife of Solomon Woodward; and Sabra, wife of John Emerson. Jabez Daniels was named to be executor, surety was posted by Joel Pond and Samuel Bassett, all of Keene. (Cheshire County Probate Court Records, file W321)

The widow Eleanor Wilson died intestate, administration was given to her son Calvin Chapman on 27 October 1828, with surety posted by Luther Chapman and John Towne, all of Keene. On 1 April 1829 her legal heirs were listed as; Sally Loveland, deceased wife of Israel Loveland; Eleanor Daniels, wife of Jabez Daniels; Daniel Chapman, deceased; Calvin Chapman; Luther Chapman; and Roselinda Childs, wife of Beda Childs. (Cheshire County Probate Court Records, file W437)

Children of Capt. David Wilson by his first wife, Elizabeth (Rockwood); all births are recorded at Keene:

6-12 i. SUSANNA, born 20 Mar. 1772, died at Keene (VR), 6 June 1847, age 75 years. She married there (VR), 15 Nov. 1798, SOLOMON WOODWARD, who was born at Marlborough, NH, 5 Dec. 1768, died at Keene (VR), 9 Dec. 1838, son of Solomon and Priscilla (Holmes) Woodward. They had births of three children recorded at Keene: (Charles H. Pope, The Haverhill Emersons, [1916] page 20)
a) David Wilson Emerson, born 17 Aug. 1796, died 2 June 1797.
b) Sabra Emerson, born 7 Feb. 1798, died 29 Aug. 1798.

6-14 iii. ASA, born 26 Feb. 1775, died at Keene (VR) 23 March 1775, "son of David and Elizabeth," age 25 days.

6-15 iv. RUTH, born at Keene (VR), 19 Nov. 1780, died there (VR), 29 July 1798.

6-16 v. REBECCA, usually given as BECCA, born at Keene (VR), 1 June 1781 (sic!), died there, unmarried, in 1831. On 24 Nov. 1824 Eliphalet Briggs, Jr., of Keene was appointed guardian for Rebecca Wilson of Keene, "adjudged to be non-compos." Surety was provided by Azel Wilder and Samuel Wood, Jr., both of Keene. On 4 Oct. 1831 Eliphalet Briggs was appointed administrator on the estate of Becca Wilson, of Keene, deceased, intestate. Legal heirs on 1 Feb. 1832 were listed as; Susannah Woodward, wife of Solomon Woodward, "nearest relative," Charles Emerson; Sophronia Pond, wife of Levi Pond; Adaline Emerson; Chauncy Emerson; Benjamin F. Emerson; and Albert Emerson. (Cheshire County Probate Court, files W379 and W455)

Child of David Wilson by his third wife, Eleanor (-----) (Chapman):

6-17 vi. Son, born about 1801. A son of David Wilson died at Keene (VR) 27 Mar. 1806, age 5 years.

P05-017 NOAH WILSON (Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) second of the eleven children of Dea. Michael and Mary (Bennett) Wilson was born about 1748 and baptized at Wells, Maine, on 11 September 1747/8. (NEH&G Register, 75[1921]: 113) He died at York, Maine (VR), 27 December 1815, "a member of the Church at Wells."

He married at York (VR), 16 September 1775, MARTHA JUNKINS, who was born there 14 May 1749, daughter of Alexander and Hannah (McIntire) Junkins. (Harry A. Davis, Descendants of Robert Junkins of York County, Maine, [1938] page 29) This relationship is proven by the will of Alexander Junkins, dated 28 September 1781, in which he mentions his daughter Martha, wife of Noah Wilson. (York County Probate Court Records, file 10625) The widow of Noah Wilson died at York (VR), on 6 January 1826.

Aside from the notation that Noah and Martha were listed as members of the church at Wells on 4 March 1777, and at the time of his death, we find little record of this couple. The 1790 census of York lists Noah Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and three females. In 1800 the household consisted of one male 16-26 years of age, one male over 45 years, two females 16-26 years and one female over 45 years of age.

On 7 September 1797 Noah Wilson brought JOHN ADAMS to the church at Wells for baptism. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]: 190) Contrary to a published compilation this was not a child of Noah, the heading which appears on the preceding page of the printed version reads; "A record of Infant Males baptized in the Church att Wells, being bro't thereunto by such as were not their Parents, but who have taken charge of them."

The will of Noah Wilson, yeoman of York was probated 27 March 1816. He mentioned therein his wife Martha, his son Michael and his daughters Sally and Hannah, wife of John Smith, 2nd. (York County Probate Court Records, file 20568)

Children of Noah and Martha (Junkins) Wilson, probably all born at York:

6-18 i. HANNAH, born circa 1776, baptized at Wells, 27 July 1777 (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:187). On 30 Apr. 1803 she filed her intention at York to marry JOHN SMITH, of Phillips Burgh, now Sanford, Maine.

6-19+ ii. MICHAEL, born circa 1778, baptized at Wells, 6 Dec. 1778.

6-20 iii. SARAH (Sally), born circa 1780, baptized at Wells, 5 Mar. 1781. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]: 187). Her intention to marry JAMES AVERILL, of York, was filed there, on 25 May 1805. He is thought to be a son of Samuel Averill, Jr., of York and Castine, ME. (Clara A. Avery, The Averell-Averill-Avery Family, [1914] page 389)

P05-018 JONATHAN WILSON (Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born circa 1752, third of the eleven children of Dea. Michael and Mary (Bennett) Wilson was baptized at Wells, Maine, on 27 May 1753. He died at York, Maine (VR), on 29 June 1817, age 64 years. (NEH&G Register, 64[1910]:182 and 75[1921]: 114)

His intention to marry MARTHA CARLILE, was recorded at York on 21 April 1780; they were married there (VR), 13 May 1780. Martha was born there, 10 July 1760, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Smith) Carlile, and sister of Daniel Carlile who married Jonathan's sister Lydia, and of Elizabeth Carlile who married his brother Miles. (Donald B. Macruda, Joseph Carlile of York, Maine, typescript at NEHG Society, [1986] page 123) This relationship is proven by the will, signed at York on 13 September 1791, of Elizabeth (Smith) Carlile, widow, who died 30 March 1816. She named Jonathan Wilson to be executor and bequeathed her estate to her four daughters, Sarah, wife of Nathaniel Swett, Martha, wife of Jonathan Wilson, Mary, wife of Joseph Young, and Elizabeth, wife of Miles Wilson. (York County Probate Court Records, 25:452, 527, and 528)

On 22 February 1775 Michael Wilson, yeoman, of York, conveyed to his son, Jonathan Wilson, laborer, of York, a fifteen acre parcel of land on the Josias River in York, adjoining his own land and the land of Mr. Swett. (York County Registry of Deeds, 43:181)

Jonathan had service in the Revolutionary War as private in Capt. Sawyer's company of York County militia on the disastrous Penobscot expedition of 1779. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:543)

He is listed in the 1790 census of York, heading a family consisting of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and two females. The 1800 census lists this household as one male under 10 years, one male 10-16 years and one male over 45 years, also three females under 10 years, two females 10-16 years and one female in the 26-45 year age bracket. In 1800 Jonathan was elected a member of the first school committee to serve in York. (Charles E. Banks, History of York, Maine, [1935] 2:263)

In the spring of 1813 Jonathan, "In consideration of the labor and service already performed by my son, Theodore Wilson," conveyed to him an undivided one-half of his homestead farm together with one-half of the dwelling house and barn. On the same date, for the sum of $300.00 paid by Jonathan, Theodore gave his father a lifetime lease on the one-half of the homestead he had just received. A provision in this lease stipulated that should Jonathan die before his minor children; Mehitable Wilson, Sophia Wilson, David Wilson, Thede Wilson and Eliza Wilson, should arrive at the age of 21 years, they would continue to have residence in the dwelling house and support from the produce of the farm. (York County Registry of Deeds, 89:24, 25) It is noteworthy that the first of these conveyances was prepared for the signature of Jonathan's wife Martha, but her signature does not appear, further there is no mention of her in subsequent deeds. Possibly this fact establishes the approximate date of her death.

After Jonathan's death his son Theodore began to acquire his siblings' shares in the undivided estate of their father. In July of 1817 he acquired the shares of Joseph Swett and Olive his wife, also of Edward Freeman and Mehitable his wife, paying a token $1.00 each. In 1818 he purchased the share of Sophia Wilson, single woman, for $100.00. In 1820, for $20.00 he obtained the share of Ebenezer Weare and Theoda his wife. The share of his brother David came in 1822 for $150.00. Finally, in 1823, he obtained the share of Eliza Wilson, single woman, for $50.00. (York County Registry of Deeds, 97:145; 119:168, 169) One must wonder at the wide variation in price paid for these identical shares. Some variation might be attributed to fluctuations in the value of the currency, but the spread is too great to be accounted for solely by this factor.

Children of Jonathan and Martha (Carlile) Wilson; probably all born at York:

6-21 i. OLIVE, born in July 1785 (calculated) baptized at Wells, 14 Sept. 1786. Her gravestone in York says Olive Swett died 19 Feb. 1877, aged 91 years and 7 months. She married at York (VR), 26 Aug. 1802, her first cousin, JOSEPH SWETT, who was born there, about 1779, died there (VR) 14 Nov. 1818, age 39 years, son of Nathaniel and Sarah (Carlile) Swett. (Everett S. Stackpole, Descendants of John Swett of Newbury, Massachusetts, [1913] page 56) Child:

a) Hannah W. Swett, born about 1818, possibly posthumous, died 16 Dec. 1859. She was age 32 years, living with her mother for the 1850 census of York. She married at York (VR), 28 Mar. 1859, her first cousin, Charles (P07-047) Wilson. We find Hannah and Charles, together with her mother, listed in the 1860 census of York, living in the household of Peletiah and Paulina Perkins.

6-22+ ii. THEODORE, born about 1787, died at York, 22 Aug. 1850.

6-23 iii. MARY, born about 1790, baptized 18 Mar. 1790, "of Jonathan and Martha Wilson, also near two years past as I think, baptized Theodore, which was not recorded." (York County Genealogical Society Journal 5[1990]:18) She is thought to be the POLLY WILSON whose intention to marry Capt. PETER WEARE, was filed at York, 13 July 1810. He is probably the Peter Weare who died at York (VR), 8 Apr. 1815.

6-24 iv. MEHITABLE, born 9 Dec. 1792, baptized at York, 2 May 1793, died 7 June 1868. She married, at York, 21 Nov. 1813, EDWARD FREEMAN. He was born at Cape Neddick, ME, 17 June 1789, died 19 May 1874, son of Dea. Nathaniel and Hannah (Foster) Freeman. (York County Genealogical Society Journal, 5[1990]:18 and 10[1995]:16) Known children:

a) Daughter, born about 1819, killed by lightning, at York (VR), 8 July 1830.

b) Mary M. Freeman, born about 1827, living with her parents for the 1850 census, age 23 years. The 1860 census lists her as age 24 years. Possibly the first Mary Freeman married and the second was the wife of Lowell M.

c) Jeremiah Goodwin Freeman, born at York about 1830, died there (VR) 13 Sept. 1887, age 57 years. He was living with his parents for the 1850 census of York. He married first, at York (VR), on 5 April 1886, Mary Eliza Sewall, born 25 Sept. 1843, daughter of Capt. Joseph and Eliza J. (Trafton) Sewall. The intention of his second marriage, to Jennie H. Emery, daughter of Sumner and Abigail Emery of Fairfield, ME, was recorded at York, 13 Sept. 1887.

d) Lowell M. Freeman, born about 1834, he was living with his parents for the 1860 census.

e) Ebenezer E. Freeman, born about 1837, listed with his parents in 1860 census of York.

6-25 v. SOPHIA, born about 1795, baptized at Wells, 15 July 1795 (York County Genealogical Society Journal 5[1990]:18) She died (GS), 22 Apr. 1878, age 83 years. She married at York (VR), 20 Oct. 1818, JOEL NORTON, born about 1792, died at York (VR), 10 Feb. 1858, age 66 years, buried with his wife in York Beach Cemetery.

6-26+ vi. DAVID, born 1797, bapt. at Wells, 7 Sept. 1797, died at Dover, NH, on 4 Aug. 1879.

6-27 vii. THEODOSIA, born circa 1799, bapt. as THEBE, at Wells, on 5 Nov. 1799. She married at York (VR), 27 Nov. 1817, EBENEZER WEARE. Child:

a) Probably Peter Weare, who died at York (VR), in February 1818 (sic!), age 10 months.

She is probably the Mrs. Theoda Weare who married at York (VR), on 9 Nov. 1825, GEORGE PHILLIPS, of York. They are listed in the 1850 and the 1860 census of York, with their children. Mary Phillips, age 94 years, probably George's mother, was also with them in 1850. Children:

b) Hannah Phillips, born about 1829, listed in 1860, not with them in 1850 census.

c) George H. Phillips, born about 1833, living with parents 1850 and 1860.

d) Theoda Phillips, born about 1836, living with parents 1850 and 1860.

e) Charles C. Phillips, born about 1841, living with parents 1850 and 1860.

6-28 viii. ELIZA, born about 1802, baptized at Wells, 10 July 1804, died there (VR), 26 Sept. 1832, age 30 years. She married at York (VR), 18 Jan. 1824, Capt. GEORGE NORTON, born about 1795, died (GS) 12 June 1848, aged 53 years, buried with his wife in York Beach Cemetery.

P05-019 Dea. DAVID WILSON (Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) fourth of the eleven children of Dea. Michael and Mary (Bennett) Wilson was born at York, Maine, 23 March 1753, and baptized, with his brother Jonathan, at Wells, Maine, on 27 May 1753. (NEH&G Register, 75[1921]:114) He died at Castine, Maine, on 29 April 1833, aged 80 years and 2 days. (George A. Wheeler, History of Castine, Penobscot and Brooksville, Maine, [1874] page 194)

He married at Wells (VR), 28 November 1780, MIRIAM LITTLEFIELD, who was born at York, 20 March 1757, daughter of Nathaniel and Susan (Jacques) Littlefield. (Franklin E. Littlefield, The Littlefield Family of England, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Maine, Mss. at Maine Historical Society, page 20) Miriam died at Castine (VR), on 23 March 1830.

Soon after their marriage David and Miriam settled on a farm located about two miles from the village of Majabigwaduce, now Castine. He served for thirty-three years as deacon in the First Congregational Church. He was also very active in town affairs; for seventeen years in succession he was chosen to be a selectman of Castine, for the greater part of that time he was first selectman and assessor. (Maine, A History, [1919] The American Historical Society, Publishers, 2:12) The records show that David owned, in addition to his farm in Castine, considerable land on Deer Isle and "sundry other islands" in Penobscot Bay. We find nothing to suggest that these parcels were ever occupied by members of his family.

He is reported to have served from Castine during the Revolutionary War and to have been present for the surrender of General Cornwallis at Yorktown. (Wheeler, op. cit. page 229) This would have been Continental service which is difficult to document because of the British burning of Washington during the War of 1812. We find no official record to verify this claim.

The 1790 census of Penobscot, Maine lists David Wilson heading a household consisting of one male over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and two females.

On 30 March 1835 David S. O. Wilson, gentleman, of Castine, was granted administration on the estate of David Wilson, late of Castine, yeoman, deceased, intestate. Surety was posted by Josiah Wilson of Penobscot and Charles A. Stevens of Castine. He left no widow, heirs-at-law were listed as Nathaniel Wilson and Josiah Wilson. (Hancock County Probate Court Records, file 1418)

Children of Dea. David and Miriam (Littlefield) Wilson; births as listed by Wheeler, op. cit. page 321:

6-29+ i. NATHANIEL, born 29 May 1782 at Wells, bapt. there 4 Aug. 1782, died at Castine in April 1864.

P05-020 JOHN WILSON (Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) fifth of the eleven children of Dea. Michael and Mary (Bennett) Wilson was born at York, Maine about 1755 and was baptized at Wells, Maine on 28 September 1755. (NEH&G Register, 75[1921]:311) He died (GS), on 30 April 1835, age 80 years, buried with his wife and their son's family in a small private Cemetery at North Castine, Maine.

John's wife, MARY -----, died at North Castine (GS), 12 October 1829, age 64 years, buried with her husband.

John had Revolutionary War service from York. On 19 September 1832 John Wilson, of Castine, Maine, aged 77 years, deposed that he enlisted in December 1776 in Capt. Abel Moulton's company of Massachusetts militia in the regiment commanded by Col. John Frost; that he was discharged 13 March 1777; that he reenlisted at York in April of 1778 for nine months service in the Massachusetts line regiment of Col. Brewer, company of Capt. James Donald, and was discharged 4 March 1779; that he was born at York in 1755 and resided in Castine ever since the war. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S15710, also Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:569)

The 1790 census of Penobscot, Maine, lists John Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, and two females. John served several terms as selectman at Castine, but not as frequently as his brother David.

Only known child of John and Mary (-----) Wilson:

6-35+ i. JOHN H., born at Castine, about 1797, died 22 Mar. 1839.

P05-021 MICHAEL WILSON (Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) sixth of the eleven children of Dea. Michael and Mary (Bennett) Wilson, was born at York, Maine circa 1758 and baptized at Wells, Maine, on 28 February 1759. (NEH&G Register, 75[1921]:313) He died at York (VR), on 17 April 1815.

His marriage in First Parish Church, to TABITHA WOODWARD, on 14 November 1784, was recorded at York. The death of the widow of Michael Wilson in May of 1817 was also recorded at York.

Michael Wilson of York served for 6 months and 23 days during the Revolutionary War in Capt. Thomas Bragdon's company of Lt. Col. Joseph Prime's regiment. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:545)

Michael resided at Cape Neddick, in the northern part of York where his land was bounded in part by the Josias River and in part by land belonging to his brother Joseph. From one of the deeds of his brother it appears that each of them owned and occupied a portion of a single homestead. In early New England this was not an unusual arrangement.

Michael Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of York, heading a household consisting of one male over 16 years of age, and one female. He is not listed as head of a household in the 1800 census of Maine.

Children of Michael and Tabitha (Woodward) Wilson:

6-36 i. NANCY, born circa 1791, baptized at Wells, 29 Dec. 1741. (York County Genealogical Society Journal, 5[1990]:18) She appears to be the Nancy Wilson who married at York (VR), on 28 Nov. 1816, PETER LITTLEFIELD, III, who was born there, 30 May 1775, son of Peter and ----- Littlefield. He died at York, 13 May 1817. (Littlefield Family Newsletter, 4[1994]:60)

6-37 ii. JAMES, born circa 1795, baptized at Wells, 25 Aug. 1795, "son of Michael Wilson." (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:249) James, "son of the late Michael Wilson," died at York (VR), 27 Apr. 1818, age 21 years. (York County Genealogical Society Journal, 2[1987]:68) Were there two different sons named James?

P05-022 JOSEPH WILSON (Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) seventh of the eleven children of Dea. Michael and Mary (Bennett) Wilson was born at York, Maine, circa 1759. He died at York (VR), 31 March 1803.

He married at York (VR), in First Parish Church, on 27 July 1780, HANNAH EDWARDS, of Wells. She probably was the one of this name baptized at Wells on 15 February 1756, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (-----) Edwards. (NEH&G Register, 75[1921]:314)

Like his older brothers, Joseph served during the Revolutionary War. His name appears on a list of men returned from York County to reinforce the Continental army at Fishkill in 1778. At that time he was described as: age 21 years; stature, 5 ft. 8 in.; complexion, light; residence, York. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:544)

The 1790 census of York lists Joseph Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and three females.

Joseph died intestate. It was not until 20 May 1811, eight years after his death, that administration on the estate of Joseph Wilson, late of York, deceased, was granted to the widow, Hannah Wilson, who posted surety by Jeremiah Weare, Jr. (York County Probate Court Records, file 20552)

On 1 December 1812 David Adams of York, mariner, and Susannah, his wife, in her right, Ephraim Littlefield of Wells, blacksmith, and Tabitha, his wife, in her right, for $50.00

quitclaimed to Daniel Wilson of York, yeoman, otherwise called mariner, all their right, title and interest in the estate, both real and personal, of Joseph Wilson, late of York, deceased, "let the same be found when and where they may." This document was witnessed by Michael Wilson, James Wilson and Aaron Maxwell. On the same day Hannah Wilson, widow, administrator on the estate of Joseph Wilson, late of York, deceased, for $180.00 sold to Daniel Wilson ten acres of land with the dwelling house thereon, "or that part thereof lately owned and occupied by said Joseph Wilson," bounded in part by land of Michael Wilson and by the Josias River. (York County Registry of Deeds, 88:129 and 89:79)

Children of Joseph and Hannah (Edwards) Wilson, probably all born at York:

6-38+ i. DANIEL, born about 1782, bapt. at Wells, on 25 Aug. 1782.

6-39 ii. TABITHA, born circa 1784, bapt. at Wells, 29 June 1789. (York County Genealogical Society Journal, 5[1990]:17) Her intention to marry EPHRAIM LITTLEFIELD, Jr., was filed at York, on 13 Feb. 1807. He was bapt. at Wells, 12 Sept. 1787, died 13 Apr. 1818, son of Ephraim and Mary (Wilson P05-024) Littlefield.

6-40 iii. SUSANNA (Sukey), born about 1786, baptized at Wells 14 Sept. 1786. (NEH&G Register 76[1922]: 189) She died (GS) 3 Oct. 1848, age 61 years, buried with her husband in River Road Cemetery, York. On 10 June 1808 Sukey Wilson and DAVID ADAMS filed their intention to marry. David, son of Ezekiel and Dorothy (Webber) Adams, died (GS) 17 Oct. 1850, age 66 years. Only known child:

a) William Adams, born 8 Jan. 1810. (Rev. Charles N. Sinnett, Phillip Adams of York)

6-41 iii. BENJAMIN, born circa 1791, bapt. at Wells, on 20 Oct. 1791. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:248)

6-42 iv. LYDIA, born circa 1793, bapt. at Wells, 28 Apr. 1794. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:253) She is possibly the Lydia Wilson, age 76 years, listed in the 1870 census of York, living with the family of Maj. Theodore (P07-046) Wilson.

6-43 v. MARY, born circa 1795, baptized at Wells, 4 May 1796. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:254)

6-44 vi. JOSEPH, born circa 1796, bapt. at Wells, on 4 May 1796. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:249) He is probably the Joseph Wilson who married there (VR), 29 July 1834, MARY CURTIS, both of Wells.

P05-025 MILES WILSON (Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) tenth of the eleven children of Dea. Michael and Mary (Bennett) Wilson was born at York, Maine, 6 June 1765. On 11 August 1765, like his siblings before him, he was baptized in the church at Wells, Maine. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:104) The York records note that Miles Wilson died very suddenly at Cape Neddick, on 11 August 1845, age 80 years. He is buried with his wife in Ocean View Cemetery, Wells where his gravestone bears the date 14 August 1845. (NEH&G Register, 93[1934]:57)

He married at York (VR), on 11 November 1790, ELIZABETH CARLILE, Jr., of York, who was born there, 10 May 1770, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Smith) Carlile, and sister of Martha and Daniel Carlile who had married two of Miles' siblings. (Donald B. Macruda, Joseph Carlile of York, Maine, [1986] typescript at NEHG Society page 129) Elizabeth died at York (GS), 4 September 1842, age 72 years.

Miles was only ten years of age at the outbreak of the Revolutionary War, we find no record of his serving in that conflict. He is listed in the 1790 census of York heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age and one female. He is not listed as head of a household in the 1800 census of Maine. In 1823 he was noted as being a member of the Baptist Church at Cape Neddick. (Charles E. Banks, History of York, Maine, [1935] 2:31)

Miles Wilson, of York, yeoman, for $1500. conveyed on 26 December 1842, to Woodbury Wilson, of York, gentleman, "all real estate of which I am now owner and possessor, also the stock and farming tools of said farm, and also one bed and bedding, and a clock and desk in the dwelling house on said farm, hereby reserving to myself the use and improvement of the above described premises during the time of my natural life." Witnessed by Elizabeth Wilson and by Theodore Wilson. (York County Registry of Deeds, 187:201)

Children of Miles and Elizabeth (Carlile) Wilson; probably all born at York:

6-45+ i. JOHN, born 18 June 1791.

6-46 ii. THEODOSIA, born circa 1795, bapt. as DOSIA at Wells, 25 Aug. 1795. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]: 253) Her intention to marry GEORGE C. DEXTER, of Dover, NH, was recorded at York, on 6 Mar. 1815.

6-47 iii. HADASSAH, born circa 1798. Hadassa, daughter of Miles and Elizabeth, was baptized at Wells, 20 July 1798. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:254) She is apparently the child, name not given, of Mr. Miles Wilson who died at York (VR), in June 1807, age not given.

6-48 iv. ELIZABETH, born in March of 1800 (calculated). She died at Wells (GS), 2 May 1872, age 72 years and 2 months, buried with her parents. Not found in the 1850 census, the 1870 census of York shows her keeping house for her brother Woodbury.

6-49+ v. JOSEPH, born about 1802, died at Easthampton, MA, 14 Mar. 1870.

6-50+ vi. WOODBURY, born 4 Dec. 1809, died 2 July 1894.

P05-028 HENRY WILSON (Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts, on 28 April 1761, second of the nine children of Henry and Elizabeth (Adams) Wilson. He died at Sherburne, Vermont (VR) (GS) on 14 April 1826, aged 65 years. He is buried there with several descendants in Riverside Cemetery.

He married at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR) on 1 January 1789, EUNICE COLTON, who was born at Longmeadow, Massachusetts on 25 April 1764, daughter of Eli and Meriba (Warner) Colton. Eunice is reported to have died at Rupert, Vermont on 6 November 1842. (George W. Colton, Descendants of Quartermaster George Colton, [1912] page 88) She was living in Sherburne in October 1829 when she sold land which had been set-off to her as widow of Henry Wilson, late of Sherburne, deceased. (Sherburne Land Records, 4:408)

Henry had Revolutionary War service from Myrifield (now Rowe), Massachusetts. He enlisted in the Continental Army on 16 July 1779 and served until the expiration of his enlistment one year later. His enlistment papers describe him as; age, 18 years; stature, 5 feet, 6 inches; complexion, light; hair, brown. He reenlisted on 2 September 1782 for a term of three years, serving in Capt. Rufus Lincoln's company of Lt. Col. John Brook's regiment. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 7:537, 564)

Henry Wilson, Jr. was of Myrifield on 4 December 1782 when he purchased fifty acres of land in that town, probably using his reenlistment bonus to finance the transaction. He received a deed from Cornelius Jones of Granville, County of Charlotte, state of New York, which was witnessed by his father and by Matthew Burr. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 26:283)

After the War Henry Wilson, Jr. continued to reside in Rowe, he was listed there as a taxpayer in 1784 and was listed in the 1790 census, heading a household consisting of himself and one female.

Shay's Rebellion (1786-87) was an armed civil outbreak protesting the harsh taxes and hard times in western Massachusetts following the close of the war. Henry Wilson and his brother Warren were prominent among the sympathizers.

They, together with several of their close relatives, were among the nine men from Rowe whose weapons were seized by the authorities. (Percy W. Brown, History of Rowe, Massachusetts, [1935] page 36)

On 10 July 1820 Henry Wilson, of Rowe, applied for a veteran's pension. He deposed that his family then consisted of his wife, age 56 years, his daughter Eunice, age 22 years, his daughter Sally, age 18 years, and his daughter Hannah, age 16 years, also his son Elijah, age 20 years, and his son Noah, age 12 years. He owned a farm of 137 acres which was valued at $1,200.00, but he owed the sum of $451.42 to a long list of creditors. He mentioned the military service as outlined above, but also mentioned that at one time during the War he was captured and for almost a year "was confined to a loathsome prison." (Revolutionary War Pension Application, W22643)

On 26 December 1820 Henry Wilson of Rowe, yeoman, in preparation for a move from the rocky hills of Rowe, to the equally rocky hills of Sherburne, Vermont, for a consideration of $255.00 quitclaimed to Josiah Carpenter of Rowe, twenty-five acres of land on the south line of Rowe, "containing all the land in Rowe owned by said Henry Wilson." (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 47:102)

Henry Wilson qualified as freeman, State of Vermont, at a town meeting held at Sherburne on the first Monday in February 1822. (Sherburne Town Records, 3:438)

Of interest is an affidavit from Dr. Josiah H. Phelps of Pittsford, dated 20 November 1825 and found in Henry's pension file. He stated: "that within three years past I have been called to witness very disturbing, long and distressed sickness in the family of Henry Wilson of Sherburne, in which he has met with the loss of two of his family, Elijah in whom he placed great dependence in his old age, also Sally who had formerly been most healthy. Eunice is now sick with a fever which will probably run a long time. Hannah was sick with typhus fever three years since and is still in a weakly state, unable to perform much herself. Noah has been unable to perform half a days work in a day for six months past, in which time he has been under my care, and is now unable to do but little. Mr. Wilson and wife are both in declining health and unable to perform but little."

Henry signed his will at Sherburne on 12 April 1826, it was proven on 8 May 1826. His wife Eunice was named to be sole heir, Otis Wilson of Sherburne, was named to be executor. Henry was insolvent, his creditors included the estate of his brother, Elijah Wilson, deceased. His three daughters, Sarah Wilson, Hannah Wilson, and Eunice Wilson were permitted to remove from the household specific items of a personal nature. (Rutland District Probate Court Records, files 1100 and 12:328)

Eunice applied for a widow's pension on 1 September 1838. She deposed that she was widow of Henry Wilson, late of Sherburne, deceased, who was a private in the Massachusetts line of the Revolutionary army; that her husband had a pension, which was transferred from Franklin County, Massachusetts to Rutland County, Vermont, on 25 November 1825; that she was married to said Henry Wilson on 1 Jan. 1789; that her husband died 14 Apr. 1826. To support her claim she enclosed a certificate from the Town Clerk of Rowe, stating that the town records showed that Henry Wilson married Eunice Carlton (sic!) on 1 Jan. 1789.

Children of Henry and Eunice (Colton) Wilson, all births recorded at Rowe:

6-51 i. Son, born 8 Oct., 1789, died 9 Oct. 1789. "first son"

6-52+ ii. HENRY C. (or HARRY), born 24 Aug. 1791.

6-53+ iii. OTIS, born 7 Sept. 1793, died at Sherburne on 11 Aug. 1860.

6-54+ iv. HORACE (sometimes ORRIS), born 11 Mar. 1795. He removed to Saratoga Springs, NY.

6-55 v. Son, born and died 3 Mar. 1797. "fourth son" [sic!]

6-56 vi. EUNICE, born 30 June 1798, died 19 Oct. 1875. She married RUFUS CONANT. (Colton, op. cit.) Known children:

a) Elijah Conant, born 12 Nov. 1829.

b) Henry N. Conant, born 4 Feb. 1832, at Pawlet, VT.

6-57 vii. ELIJAH, born 8 Apr. 1800, died at Sherburne (VR) 9 Nov. 1825, age 25 years and 7 months and 1 day. Administration on the estate of Elijah Wilson, late of Sherburne, deceased, intestate, was given to Otis Wilson, of Sherburne, in July of 1826, with surety posted by Albro Anthony. (Rutland District Probate Court Records, files 405 and 12:347) Elijah's estate was apparently divided among seven surviving siblings. On 30 Oct. 1833 Horace Wilson of Rowe, Mass. quitclaimed to Horace Sawyer of Sherburne an undivided one-seventh part of a parcel of 87 acres of land in Sherburne, formerly owned by his brother Elijah Wilson, deceased. Similar conveyances were signed by Hannah Wilson of Poultney, VT, Henry (or Harry) Wilson of Williamstown, MA, and by the widow, Eunice Wilson of Sherburne. Sawyer later sold to Asa Johnson, of Chester, VT, two pieces of land in Sherburne, one being the northerly half of the farm late the property of Henry Wilson, late of Sherburne, deceased. There is no other record of land transactions in Sherburne by Horace Sawyer. (Sherburne, Vermont Deeds, 5:231, 235, 237, 464 and 491)

6-58 viii. SALLY, born 15 Mar. 1802, died at Sherburne (VR), 11 Nov. 1825, age 23 years and 8 months. She died just two days after her brother Elijah, they share a stone in Riverside Cemetery. Administration on the estate of Sarah Wilson, was given to Josiah H. Phelps of Pittsford, VT, in November of 1826, surety was posted by Luther Daniels of Rutland. (Rutland District Probate Court Records, file 13:22)

6-59 ix. HANNAH, born 18 June 1804. On 6 January 1834 Hannah Wilson of Poultney, Vermont sold her one-seventh interest in the estate of her brother, Elijah Wilson, late of Shelburne, deceased. (Sherburne Land Records, 5:237) She is possibly the Hannah Wilson, age 61 years, whose death in Iowa during March of 1867 is recorded on a gravestone in Riverside Cemetery, Sherburne.

6-60 x. SELAH, born 26 Feb. 1806, died at Rowe (VR) 9 June 1810.

6-61 xi. NOAH, born 16 May 1808. On 9 Apr. 1827 Herman Colton was appointed guardian for Noah Wilson, a minor aged 18 years, son of Henry Wilson, late of Sherburne, deceased. (Rutland District Probate Court Records, file 13:21 and 22) Noah is said to have married MARTHA SHED, born at Rutland, Vermont about 1805, daughter of William and Mary (Stevens) Shed. (Frank E. Shed, Daniel Shed Genealogy, [1921] page 184) Noah Wilson, a farmer, age 50 years, born in Massachusetts, and his wife Martha, age 53 years, born in Vermont, are listed in the 1860 census of Palmyra, Jefferson County, Wisconsin.

P05-029 MARTIN WILSON (Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 28 April 1763, third of the nine children of Henry and Elizabeth (Adams) Wilson. He died at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR) (GS), on 6 September 1841, age 78 years. Martin Wilson and his wife Abigail are buried in West Cemetery, Rowe.

He married at Rowe (VR), on 7 November 1799, ABIGAIL (CHAPIN) TUTTLE, who was born there, 10 June 1775, daughter of Shadrach and Abigail (-----) Chapin, and widow of Benjamin Tuttle who died there in 1795. This relationship is proven by the will of her father, made 6 October 1819, which mentions his daughter, Abigail Wilson. (Gilbert W. Chapin, The Chapin Genealogy, [1924] page 275) Abigail Wilson, widow, born in Massachusetts, age 75 years, was listed in the 1850 census of Rowe, living with her son Theron. Abigail Wilson, daughter of Shadrach and Abigail Chapin, died at Rowe (VR), 19 September 1867, age 92 years, 3 months and 9 days.

Information regarding this man is elusive. There is no mention of him in the probate courts for either Hampshire or Franklin counties in Massachusetts. His name appears infrequently in the land records of Rowe. There is no Martin Wilson listed as heading a household in either the 1790 or 1800 census of the states of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont; it is probable that he lived on the homestead with his parents.

His grave has a Revolutionary War soldier's marker and Percy W. Brown, on page 47 of History of Rowe, Massachusetts, [1935], says Martin had a pension in 1802 and 1804. There is no pension application for a Martin Wilson on file in Washington and he is not listed on the Revolutionary War rolls for the above mentioned states. The dates are before pensions were generally available to veterans of the Revolutionary War. At that time the only pensions had been awarded to veterans who had been seriously wounded in battle, these records were destroyed when the British burned Washington during the War of 1812. A possible clue to Martin's condition comes from a conveyance dated 31 January 1835 whereby Martin Wilson of Rowe, yeoman, and Abigail Wilson his wife, for a consideration of twelve years labor and $100.00, transferred to Theron Wilson of Rowe, "the farm on which I now live, containing 224 acres of land with buildings thereon standing." (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 86:352)

Children of Martin and Abigail (Chapin) (Tuttle) Wilson; both births recorded at Rowe:

6-62+ i. BENJAMIN, born 20 May 1800, died at Theresa, NY in 1837.

6-63+ ii. THERON, born 26 Feb. 1802, died at Rowe, on 3 Sept. 1875.

P05-030 WARREN WILSON (Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 29 July 1765, fourth of the nine children of Henry and Elizabeth (Adams) Wilson.

He married either at Rowe (VR) on 22 August 1795, or at Charlemont, Massachusetts (VR), on 5 October 1795, HANNAH HUNT. One source says she was born there (VR), 5 June 1781, daughter of Jacob and Hannah (-----) Hunt. If this was indeed his bride she was only fourteen years of age for her marriage, and sixteen years younger than her husband, a considerable difference, even in those times.

Warren Wilson was a taxpayer in Rowe in 1784, when he was only nineteen years of age. He is said to have had a pension in 1802 although he is not listed as serving from Massachusetts in the Revolutionary War. (Percy W. Brown, History of Rowe, Massachusetts, [1935] pp. 113, 47)

He is listed in the 1800 census of Rowe heading a household comprised of one male under 10 years of age, one male in the 26-45 year age bracket, one female under 10 years and one female 16-26 years. On 20 March 1802 Warren Wilson of Rowe, husbandman, mortgaged to Thomas Clark of Dummerston, Vermont his farm in Rowe. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 18:153) This is the last mention that we have found of this man.

Children of Warren and Hannah (Hunt) Wilson, both births recorded at Rowe:

6-64 i. HADASSAH, born 20 Dec. 1797.

6-65+ ii. HARVEY, born 23 Nov. 1799. He removed to Illinois.

6-66 iii. Infant child of Warren and Hannah, died at Rowe (VR), 22 Aug. 1800. This could be either Hadassah or third child.

P05-035 JUNIA ADAMS WILSON (Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 24 November 1776, youngest of the nine children of Henry and Elizabeth (Adams) Wilson.

He married at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR), in November of 1798, SALLY CHAPIN, who was born there on 28 January 1780, daughter of Lt. Gideon and Elizabeth (Thomas) Chapin. (Gilbert W. Chapin, The Chapin Genealogy, [1924] page 272.

On 23 October 1812 Junia A. Wilson, yeoman, of Rowe, for a consideration of $600.00, sold to Joseph Chapin of Rowe, a one-half acre tract of land with a sawmill and water privileges for same. This parcel was adjacent to land of his brother, Martin Wilson, as were the two parcels of one acre each sold, on 12 May 1816, by Junia A. Wilson and Archabald Thomas, both yeoman of Rowe, for a consideration of $350.00. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 34:371, 40:124)

This second conveyance is the last record we have found of this man. The D. A. R. records indicate that Junia died in 1824 and Sally in 1835. The deaths are not recorded at

Rowe, and there are no gravestones there for them, thus we have been unable to verify these deaths which may well have occurred elsewhere.

Children of Junia A. and Sally (Chapin) Wilson:

6-67 i. BETSEY (Betcy), born at Rowe (VR), 4 Oct. 1799, died there (VR), 16 Apr. 1800.
6-68+ ii. BENAJAH, born at Rowe (VR), 5 Aug. 1801.
6-69+ iii. JOSEPH, born at Rowe, 27 Jan. 1803, died at Fredonia, Iowa on 14 Sept. 1868.

P05-036 EBENEZER WILSON (Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 16 November 1754, eldest child of Sgt. Michael and Martha (Fisher) Wilson. He died at Middlebury, Wyoming County, New York (GS), 1 September 1828, in his 74th year. His gravestone, in West Middlebury Cemetery, notes "45 years of Baptist Connection."

He married LYDIA ROWLEY, who was born about 1761. She is thought to have been a sister of Mary Rowley who married Ebenezer's brother Michael, however proof is elusive and this relationship remains unconfirmed. Her gravestone, adjacent to that of her husband, reads; "Lydia, wife of Ebenezer Wilson, Esq., died 19 May 1837, age 76 years, 55 years a member of the Baptist community."

Ebenezer Wilson served during the Revolutionary War in the regiment of Vermont troops commanded by Col. Ira Allen. Initially with the rank of sergeant, he was soon commissioned as lieutenant in the company commanded by Capt. Stephen Calkin; later he served as captain of his own company. (State of Vermont: Rolls of the Soldiers in the Revolutionary War, 1775-1783,(1904) John E. Goodrich, editor)

He took a strong interest in the affairs of Danby, Vermont where he resided from 1778 to 1783. In 1779 he was Highway Surveyor, in 1781 he represented the town in the Vermont Legislature, was Selectman in 1781 and 1782 and in 1783 he served as the Town Moderator. At Orwell he was the first to represent that town in the Vermont Legislature, serving from 1788 to 1796, was Assistant Judge for Rutland County from 1792 to 1806. (History of Addison County, Vermont, page 560, also A List of the Principal Civil Officers of Vermont, from 1777 to 1918, [1918] Edited by John M. Comstock, under the direction of the Secretary of State, pp. 115 and 183)

Ebenezer was a member of the Vermont Convention which, on 10 January 1791, ratified the United States Constitution, thus making Vermont the fourteenth state in the Union. (State Papers of Vermont, 17[1969]: 751 and 729)

Ebenezer is listed in the 1791 census of Orwell heading a household comprised of four males over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and five females. By 1800 this household consisted of two males under 10 years of age, one male in the 10–16 year age bracket, one male 16–26 years and one male over 45 years of age, also two females under 10 years, one female 10–16 years and one female 26–45 years of age.

In 1808 Ebenezer and his father removed from Vermont and settled in the northwest part of Warsaw, Genesee County, New York which, on 20 March 1812, was set-off as Middlebury. Ebenezer again took a leading role in civic affairs. He was elected overseer of the poor at the first town meeting which was held in Middlebury in March of 1819. He was one of the initial trustees of Middlebury Academy and was one of the founding members of the Second Baptist Church in Middlebury when it was originally organized on 11 March 1811 as the Third Baptist Church of Warsaw. (History of Wyoming County, New York, published by F. W. Beers & Co., [1880] pp. 212–218)

Ebenezer Wilson of Middlebury signed his will on 29 March 1826. It was not until 6 May 1830, almost two years after his death that the will was presented for probate. The delay allowed his son Isaac, a skilled attorney, to return from Illinois and supervise the settlement of the estate. His sons Heman and Orsamus each received one-half of the homestead in Middlebury, each to have ownership of one end. His son Ebenezer and his family were to receive the note of his brother Isaac for $150.00. The daughters Lucinda Root and Orinda Paterson both received bequests. His son Isaac, and his daughter Polly Grimes did not receive bequests; apparently they had received their portion at the time they migrated westward. The widow, who was not named, was given the right to live in the homestead with Heman and Orsamus, or either of them, or with any of her other children at her own discretion. Ample provision was made for her needs and desires, specifically including the right to give away apples from the tree in the orchard and to travel whenever and wherever she saw fit. (Genesee County Surrogates Court Records, Wills Book 2, page 98)

Howard O. Wilson (P08–185) about 1912 published a thin volume titled The Wilson Family, in which he outlined his Wilson ancestry. It lists only names and dates, localities and the sources of his data are not mentioned. This book coordinates well with known facts and appears to have been carefully compiled from valid records. Our account of Ebenezer's posterity, unless otherwise attributed, is taken from this source, as slightly augmented in 1981 by Marian Wright Jones.

On 25 Mar. 1814 Lucinda's father, "in consideration of the natural love and affection I have and bear unto my beloved son and daughter, Anson Root and Lucinda Root," conveyed to them a parcel of 20 acres of land in Middlebury. (Genesee County Registry of Deeds, 10:77)

P05-037 MICHAEL WILSON (Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 20 October 1756, second child of Sgt. Michael and Martha (Fisher) Wilson. He died at Orwell, Vermont, probably early in 1804.

He married MARCY -----, who survived him and in 1829 was living in Bethany, Genesee County, New York when she witnessed the will of Heman Brown. (Genesee County Surrogates Court Records, Wills Book 12:103)

During the Revolutionary War, when his father and older brother removed to Vermont, Michael remained in Rowe. He was a taxpayer there in 1784, was assistant tax collector in 1785 and purchased land there in 1786. He was still there for the 1790 census which shows him heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age and one female.

It is conceivable that some of the Revolutionary War service which has been credited to his father actually belongs to Michael, Jr.

Michael apparently did not prosper in the rocky Massachusetts hill town of Rowe. On 15 April 1793 Michael Wilson and Marcy, his wife, for $600.00 mortgaged 103 acres of land in Rowe. Less than one year later Michael Wilson, of Rowe, carpenter, conveyed this parcel to John McNitt of Rowe. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 6:32 and 7:432)

By 1800 Michael had removed to Orwell where the census lists his household as two males under 10 years of age, one male in the 10-16 year age bracket and one male 26-45 years of age, also two females under 10 years, one female 10-16 years and one female who was in the 26-45 year age bracket.

Administration on the estate of Michael Wilson, late of Orwell, deceased, intestate, was granted to his brother, Ebenezer Wilson, Esq. and his widow Marcy Wilson, on 30 May 1804. Surety was posted by Pliney Smith, Esq. Michael owned 100 acres of land on lot no. 196, second to the original right of John Ogden. Heirs-at-law were listed as the widow Marcy, Beebe and Nathaniel, minor children over 14 years of age, also Rhoda, Nancy, Phebe, Michael and Daniel, minor children under 14 years of age. Fair Haven District Probate Court Records, file 5-70, etc.

Children of Michael and Marcy (-----) Wilson, our estimate of their ages does not entirely agree with the 1790 census:

6-83 i. BEEBE, born circa 1787, mentioned in her father's probate.

6-84 ii. NATHANIEL, born circa 1789, mentioned in his father's probate.

6-85 iii. RHODA, born circa 1791, mentioned in her father's probate.

6-86+ iv. MICHAEL, born about 1792, died at Middlebury, 14 Oct. 1859.

6-87 v. NANCY, born circa 1794.

6-88 vi. DANIEL, born 12 Jan. 1796. On 3 March 1811 his uncle, Ebenezer (P05-036), was appointed guardian for Daniel Wilson, an infant found to be insane, aged 15 years on 12 January last, son of Michael Wilson, deceased. (Genesee County Surrogates Court Records, Guardians Book 1, page 10)

The 1850 census lists Daniel Wilson, age 54 years, a laborer, and his wife Almira, age 48 years, living in Byron, Genesee County, New York with their children, Daniel, Jr. age 24 years, Jane 22, and Marinda, 16 years of age, all born in New York. Because there is no verification as to his possible connection to this family we have not carried this line forward.

6-89 vii. PHEBE, born circa 1801.

P05-039 NOAH WILSON (Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 20 April 1761, fourth child of Sgt. Michael Wilson, the second by his second wife Mary (-----). A note in his pension file at the National Archives says he died at Alba, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, on 7 April 1844. His grave in the Alba Cemetery is identified by a small metal marker, of the type used by many funeral homes, and by a flag holder with a Sons of American Revolution emblem. Any inscription which may have been on his crude gravestone has long since worn away.

He married MARY (Polly) ROWLEY, who was born probably at Kent, Connecticut, daughter of Thomas and Lois (Cass) Rowley. Mary was a descendant of Edward Fuller, a passenger on the MAYFLOWER; her posterity is eligible for membership in the Mayflower Society. (Mayflower Families Through Five Generations, [1990] 4:156) Mary appears to have died before her husband, she is not mentioned in his will, no gravestone has been found.

On 18 September 1832 Noah Wilson, age 71 years, of Canton, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, applied for a veteran's pension. He deposed that he was born in Wrentham, Massachusetts in 1761; that he first volunteered at Rowe, Massachusetts on 16 August 1777 and marched to Bennington, Vermont under Capt. Howard and arrived there as the battle was in progress; that he later went to Stillwater, Saratoga and Fort Edward, and back to Saratoga in time for the capitulation of General Burgoyne; that he was honorably discharged and returned home after two months service; that he had six months of militia duty from Rowe starting in the early part of May 1780, and then joined Capt. Hasting's company at West Point under Col. Jackson of the Massachusetts line; that he was present at the execution of Maj. Andre; that he was discharged at West Point at the end of his enlistment period; that he turned out in January of 1781 and went to Danby, Vermont where he enlisted in a company called the Volunteer Rangers under his brother, Capt. Ebenezer Wilson, and was employed in this service until June 1780. He removed to Granville, New York and enlisted there in July 1782 in a company of Volunteer Rangers under Capt. Baker and was discharged the last of April or early in May 1783; that finally, in May 1783, he sailed from Providence, Rhode Island on the privateer MARCUS under Capt. Olney, but after about six weeks of cruising the ship was captured by a British frigate and burnt, he escaped in a small boat; that his total time in service is believed to be about two years and seven months; that after the Revolution he resided in Shoreham and Addison, Vermont and removed to Canton, Pennsylvania about 1802. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S22595) Noah's service from Myrifield, now Rowe, through 1780 is documented in Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:377 and 546)

After the War Noah apparently had difficulty in settling down to civilian life. In 1781 he resided in Granville, Washington County, New York, he was in Shoreham, Vermont in 1791 when the census listed his household as four males over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and three females. On 25 October 1797 the local Baptist Church was organized in his house in Addison, Vermont. He is not listed as heading a household in the 1800 census of Vermont, New York or Pennsylvania.

Clement F. Heverly, on page 37 of volume 2, Pioneer and Patriot Families of Bradford County, Pennsylvania, [1913], hereinafter referenced as "Heverly," says that Noah came to Bradford County with his family, consisting of his wife, four sons and three daughters, late in May of 1803, having traveled for sixteen days from Addison Township, Addison County, Vermont thereby becoming the first settlers in Alba. Heverly describes the trip in detail, quoting at length portions of Early Recollections of Alba, by Noah's son, Dr. Irad Wilson. This elusive volume was not found at the Canton library, the Bradford County library nor at the Bradford County Historical Society.

Noah owned five thousand acres of land in the vicinity of Alba which he had purchased before leaving New England, part of the large area in northern Pennsylvania and Ohio which had been granted to Connecticut. When the titles in the Connecticut grant were found to be invalid Noah was forced to again purchase the farm on which he had settled. His deed, from Asylum Company of Philadelphia, dated 27 July 1816, covering 225 acres of land in the town of Canton, with buildings and improvements thereon, which he purchased for $610.33, is recorded on page 414, Deeds Book 2, Bradford County Register and Recorder's Office.

Noah Wilson was one of the first justices of the peace in Bradford County, being appointed, by Governor Simon Snyder, for life or during good behavior. He continued to act until the amended constitution of 1838 made the office elective.

Noah Wilson signed his will at Canton, on 12 August 1840, it was presented to the court on 8 May 1844. He named therein his eldest son, Noah Wilson, Jr., his second son, Irad Wilson, and his third son, Iram Wilson. Also his four daughters; the eldest Patty, wife of Daniel Loomis; the second Melinda, wife of R. M. Taber; Omira, wife of Silas Gray; and the youngest, Samantha, wife of Bull (sic!) Smith.

Samuel Rockwell and David Palmer, were named to be executors, it was witnessed by James Cornell, all of Canton. Apparently Rockwell and Palmer declined to act, instead, two of Noah's sons, Irad and Noah Wilson, were appointed by the court to be executors. (Bradford County Register and Recorder's Office, Docket 1:281 and 2:502)

Noah and Mary had eight children and more than sixty grandchildren. Much of the following listing of cognate lines comes from the research of a correspondent, Mrs. Rulon Woffington of Big Piney, Wyoming, part of which was published by Joseph A. Haskin in A Haskin History, [1981].

Children of Noah and Mary (Rowley) Wilson:

6-90 i. MARTHA (Patty), born 16 Mar. 1786, probably at Shoreham, died (GS) 17 Oct. 1862, age 76 years, 7 months and 1 day, buried in Alba Cemetery.

Her marriage in 1807, to ROBERT McKEAN, born 1784, was the first in Alba. David Craft, on page 298 of his History of Bradford County, Pennsylvania, [1878] gives an account of the ceremony: "The dual ceremony which united Robert McKean with Martha Wilson, and David Soper with Polly Luther, was performed by Nathaniel Allen, Esq., a justice of the peace of East Troy, Lycoming County, now in Bradford County. Esquire Allen could not, as he supposed, perform the marriage service outside of his own county therefore the wedding-party got into sleighs and drove across the line between Alba and Troy, and there, standing in the sleigh, under the canopy of leafless branches of the trees, amid the snow of winter, the two pairs of young pioneers were joined together, for better or worse, through life."

She is said to have been the first white child born in Alba, if so one must wonder whether her mother was able to obtain the services of a midwife or whether this duty fell to her eldest daughter, eighteen year old Patty. On 30 Apr. 1826 Samantha married BUEL SMITH, who was born at Alba, 26 Jan. 1802, and died there (GS), 30 May 1859, son of Jeremiah and Sally W. (Smith) Smith. The name of his wife, SARAH -----, is found only as the mother of his daughter.

On 26 March 1833 Isaac Wilson, of Linden, Genesee County, New York, agent, submitted a pension application for John Wilson of Middlebury, Genesee County, in which John deposed that on 1 June 1781 he entered the service of the United States at Clarendon, Vermont and served in Capt. Brookin's company of Col. Fletcher's regiment of Vermont troops; that in October 1781 he was released from this service to enlist for six months under Capt. Hutchins in the garrison at Castleton from which he was discharged on 1 May 1782; that he lived in Clarendon when he first entered service, and in 1784 he removed to Whiting, Vermont, where he lived for seventeen years; that since that time he has lived at Sangerfield, Oneida County, New York about three years; again in Whiting for two years; Crown Point, Essex County, New York for four years; Orangeville, Genesee County, New York for nineteen years; and finally Middlebury where he has resided for four years; that the Rev. Beriah N. Leach, clergyman, and Col. Ira Wilson of Middlebury are persons who can testify to his character. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S11810)

John's service for 308 days, substantially as outlined above, is recorded in State of Vermont: Rolls of the Soldiers in the Revolutionary War, 1775 to 1783, [190] John E. Goodrich, editor.

John Wilson died intestate. On 8 August 1836 Orsamus Wilson was appointed administrator on the estate of "his friend," John Wilson, late of Bethany, deceased. (Genesee County Surrogates Court Records, Letters T and A, 2:187)

He married at Whiting, Vermont (VR), 27 June 1796, REBECCA LAMB, who was born in Vermont, 12 April 1776, daughter of Reuben and Rebecca (Nichols) Lamb. According to the records of Mrs. Maxine D. Gerlat, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, a descendant of her daughter Phila, Rebecca died in February 1867.

On 12 April 1811 Rebecka Wilson, widow, along with Elisha Rhoades and Benjamin Smith, all of Crown Point, petitioned for administration on the estate of Nathan Wilson, who died lately at Crown Point, intestate. Surety on the administrator's bond was by David Cross and Salmon Cross. The inventory of the estate included notes signed by David Wilson and by John Wilson. (Essex County Surrogates Court Records, Wills Book A, page 58) For notice of this David Wilson and his wife's uncle, David Cross, see J05-070 and J06-107 in Descendants of John Wilson of Woburn, Massachusetts.

Children of Nathan and Rebecca (Lamb) Wilson:

6-101 i. RHODA, born at Whiting (VR), 26 May 1797. A letter from a descendant suggests she may be the Rhoda Wilson, born 31 May 1798 (sic!), died 1848, in Medina Co., OH, who married, on 20 July 1817, JACOB Van GALDER. He was born 1 Oct. 1797, and died 18 June 1855, buried in Turtleville Cemetery, Rock Co., WI. Although proof is lacking, the fact that the Van Galder's were in Wyoming Co., NY until about 1839, together with their use of uncommon names, such as Truman, Michael and Orsamus, found in this Wilson family, tends to favor this relationship. They had eleven children, all but the youngest born in NY:

a) Phoeba Van Galder, born 1818.
b) Fanny Van Galder.
c) Truman Wilson Van Galder, born 1822, in Niagara Co., NY, died 1882, in De Kalb Co., IL. He married, during 1843, in Medina Co., OH, Mary Phelps, daughter of Bethel and Catherine (Beckhart) Phelps. They had children.

The Renne family Bible shows they had nine children;

a) Henry Charles Renne, born in Essex Co., 26 Sept. 1835, died at Nasonville, 6 Aug. 1907.
b) Rebecca Melissa Renne, born in Essex Co., 10 Apr. 1837, died at Nasonville, 9 June 1876.

P05-048 SAMUEL WILSON (Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Needham, Massachusetts (VR), on 16 November 1745, baptized 25 May 1746, eldest of the seven children of Seth and Millison (Kingsbury) Wilson. He died between 1788, when he fathered a child, and October 1800 when his widow died.

He married first, at Dedham (VR), 29 December 1768, ABIGAIL RICHARDS, who was born there, 10 October 1742, daughter of Ebenezer and Thankful (Stratton) Richards. (Rev. Abner Morse, Richards Genealogy, [1861] page 128) Abigail died at Dedham (VR), 6 July 1781, probably from complications from the birth of her fifth child.

Samuel married second, at Dedham (VR), 9 October 1781, HANNAH INGRAM; she died at Dedham (VR), 20 October 1800, "widow of Samuel Wilson."

He belonged to the company of minute-men from the fourth parish of Dedham under Capt. Ebenezer Battle which responded to the Lexington alarm of 19 April 1775. Shortly thereafter he enlisted for three months service in Capt. Daniel Whiting's company of Col. Joseph Brewer's regiment. This company was one of those engaged at Bunker Hill. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:547, 578)

Samuel Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Dover, heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and five females. After his second marriage Samuel settled in the vicinity of the "new mill." In 1791 he sold this land and left town. (Frank Smith, The Genealogical History of Dover, Massachusetts, [1917] page 262) He went to Dedham, as shown by a conveyance dated 11 March 1795 whereby Solomon Richards of Dover, yeoman, and Sarah his wife, sold to Samuel Wilson, Jr. of Dedham, housewright, two pieces of land in Dover, containing in the whole about four acres, with buildings thereon, excepting the dower of the widow Abigail Richards. (Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, 3:173)

Children of Samuel Wilson by his first wife, Abigail (Richards); all births recorded at Dover:

6-107 i. MOSES, born 15 Feb. 1773. He probably died before 1844, he is not listed with his siblings in the will of his aunt Mary (P05-054)

6-108 ii. ABIGAIL, born 12 Sept. 1774. She married at Dover (VR), 28 Mar. 1799, JOHN CHICKERING, who was born 25 Mar. 1771, son of John and Lois (Marsh) Chickering. They had seven children recorded at Dover; (Frank Smith, The Genealogical History of Dover, Massachusetts, [1917] page 79, which gives a long description of Abigail's wedding costume)

a) Calvin Chickering, born 25 Sept. 1799, died at Dover (VR), 29 Sept. 1819, age 20 years and 4 days.
b) Abigail (Nabby) Chickering, born 20 Jan. 1802. She married at Dover (VR), 24 Apr. 1822, Manning Thayer, of Bellingham. MA.

6-114+viii. ASA, born 24 Sept. 1788, died 15 Oct. 1869, at Wrentham, MA.

P05-050 NATHANIEL WILSON (Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Needham, Massachusetts (VR), on 8 March 1752, third of the seven children of Seth and Millison (Kingsbury) Wilson. He died at Needham (VR), on 8 July 1807, or 7 July 1812, according to his widow's deposition in her application for a pension.

He married at Dedham (VR), 29 June 1775, MARY STEVENS, who died there (VR), 11 November 1843, age 97 years, "relict of Nathaniel."

Nathaniel Wilson of Needham had service for ten days in the Revolutionary War, as private in Capt. Robert Smith's company of Col. William Heath's regiment, probably in responding to the Lexington alarm of 19 April 1775. He also served as sergeant in Capt. Thomas Mayo's company in Col. Eleazer Weld's detachment of Massachusetts militia. His record appears to be flawed by several unexplained and unauthorized absences. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:546, 576)

The 1790 census of Needham lists Nathaniel Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and one female.

On 10 May 1837 Mary Wilson, formerly a resident of Needham, but then living in Dover, age 91 years, applied for a pension based upon her husband's service during the Revolutionary War. She deposed that he served at Bunker Hill, Dorchester Heights and White Plains; that she married Nathaniel Wilson on 29 June 1775; that her husband Nathaniel died 7 July 1812; that she had not remarried. Supporting this application, which was rejected, were depositions by Enoch Wilson and Jared Wilson, both of Wrentham. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, R11677)

Children of Nathaniel and Mary (Stevens) Wilson:

6-115+ i. NATHANIEL, born at Needham, 1 Oct. 1778, died there on 15 February 1822.

6-116 ii. Possibly MARY, born circa 1790, relationship not proven. She married at Needham (VR), 18 June 1809, ISRAEL RICHARDSON.

P05-052 ENOCH WILSON (Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Needham, Massachusetts (VR), on 4 November 1758, fifth of the seven children of Seth and Millison (Kingsbury) Wilson. He died at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), 2 December 1843, age 84 years. He is buried there with his wife.

Shortly after his fifty-eighth birthday Enoch married at Wrentham (VR), on 26 November 1816, ELIZABETH KNOWLTON, daughter of Ezra. Mrs. Betsey Wilson died at Franklin, Massachusetts (VR), 10 March 1836, age 50 years. Although this match appears unlikely it is verified by the fact that in Wrentham at that time there were only two other males named Enoch Wilson. One was his nephew, Enoch (P06-119) who in 1823 married, as his second wife, Abigail Richardson, and thus could not have been the husband of Elizabeth (Knowlton) who was living at that time. Enoch, Jr. (P07-242), was only six years of age when Enoch married Elizabeth Knowlton.

Enoch Wilson of Needham had several short terms of service during the Revolutionary War. They are listed on pages 535 and 562 in volume 17 of Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, and detailed in his pension application which follows.

Enoch resided in Needham until 1817 when he removed to Wrentham, probably to please his new bride.

Enoch applied for a pension based upon his Revolutionary War service. His deposition, dated at Wrentham, 4 July 1837, says that he was born at Needham on 4 November 1758; that he resided there until 1817 when he removed to Wrentham; that he served in Cambridge, under Capt. T. Mayo, guarding prisoners taken with Gen. Burgoyne's army; that he also served three months in 1778 under Capt. Abel Richards in Fort Hill, Boston; that again in the spring of 1779 he served at Dorchester Hill under Capt. Robert Smith; that finally, in 1780, he served under Capt. Moses Bullard at Newport. (Revolutionary War Pension Applications, S30211)

Only known child of Enoch and Elizabeth (Knowlton) Wilson:

6-117 i. SUSAN K., born 1 June 1817 (calculated), died at Wrentham (VR), 15 Apr. 1845, age 27 years, 10 months and 14 days, "daughter of Enoch and Elizabeth." In her will, signed at Wrentham, on 11 Jan. 1845, Jared Wilson of Wrentham was named to be executor and sole heir. The only heir-at-law listed was ----- ROCKWOOD, of Holliston, MA. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20597.

P05-053 JARED WILSON (Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Needham, Massachusetts (VR), on 17 June 1761, sixth of the seven children of Seth and Millison (Kingsbury) Wilson. He died at Wrentham, Massachusetts (GS) in 1843.

He married first, at Medfield, Massachusetts (VR), 22 April 1784, CATHERINE LAWRENCE. She was born at Wrentham (VR), 12 May 1765, daughter of Ebenezer and Elizabeth (Ellis) Lawrence. This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 3 November 1786 whereby Jared Wilson of Wrentham, and Cate his wife, received 28 acres of land as heirs of Ebenezer Lawrence, late of Wrentham, deceased. (Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, 166:225)

Jared married second, at Wrentham (VR), on 12 January 1792, KATY MORSE, who was born there (VR), 7 June 1761, daughter of Nathan and Abigail (Pond) Morse. (Morse and Leavitt, Morse Genealogy, [1903] 1:112) Katy died at Wrentham (VR), 31 December 1805, in her 45th year.

Jared's third wife was a widow, CAROLINE (LAWRENCE) BOYDEN, whom he married at Wrentham (VR), 29 October 1807. She was born there (VR), 21 March 1761, a sister of his first wife, and widow of Jarius Boyden.

His fourth marriage, recorded at Wrentham, 6 August 1840, was to SUSAN CORLISS; she is not mentioned in his probate file.

Jared had Revolutionary War service from Medfield. A long account of his many enlistments is found on pages 538 and 566 of volume 17, Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution. He is described therein as stature 5 ft. 7 in.; complexion, light. One account by some descendants, which we are unable to verify, says that Jared, along with several others from Wrentham, was picked to serve in Marquis de LaFayette's Corps of Light Infantry. (Portrait and Biographical Album, Henry County, Illinois, [1885] page 688)

The 1790 census of Wrentham lists "Jerrad" Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years, and one female.

On 19 September 1832 Jared Wilson of Wrentham, age 71 years, applied for a soldier's pension. He deposed that he was born in Wrentham (sic!), 17 June 1761; that he enlisted at Medfield, Massachusetts, then he enumerated much of his service. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S21582)

Jared died intestate, leaving no widow. Administration on his estate was given to his son Enoch, on 23 November 1843. The heirs were his four children; son Enoch, who was deprived of his eyesight; son Jared, of Wrentham; daughter Susan, wife of Vespian Jones of Pennsylvania or parts unknown; and daughter Catherine, wife of John Jepson, of Wrentham. Mention was made of Harmon Wilson, a deceased son and Mary (P05-056), of Dover, who was a creditor. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20582)

Children of Jared Wilson by his first wife, Catherine (Lawrence); all births are recorded at Wrentham:

6-118 i. HARMON, born 15 Aug. 1785. On 29 June 1830, by a conveyance endorsed by his wife Caroline, Jared Wilson of Wrentham, yeoman, transferred to his son Harmon Wilson of Wrentham, brush maker, a tract of land with buildings thereon, "being the same farm where the said Jared now lives," containing 32 acres, bounded in part by land of Enoch Wilson. This transfer was subject to the lifetime use by the grantor. (Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, 90:175)

On 4 Nov. 1844 his brother, Enoch Wilson, of Wrentham, was granted administration on the intestate estate of Harmon Wilson, brush-maker, late of Wrentham, deceased, leaving no widow or children. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20578)

6-119+ ii. ENOCH, born 14 Jan. 1788, died at Wrentham 13 Apr. 1857.

6-120 iii. CALVIN, born 20 Aug. 1789, he appears to have died soon.

7-18 x. ELIZA, born 22 Aug. 1806, died at Walpole (VR), 23 Mar. 1884, age 77 years. She did not marry. The 1870 census of Keene lists Eliza Wilson, age 63 years, living with Abial (Rugg) Wilson, widow of Samuel (P07-012). She is buried with her parents in North Cemetery, Keene.

Her file, W1307 at the Cheshire County Probate Court, serves to clarify many relationships in succeeding generations of this line.

She made two wills, the first dated 20 May 1873 expressed the desire that one of the sons of her three deceased brothers, Abijah, Joseph and George, would utilize her two-thirds interest to perpetuate, in the male line, family ownership of the homestead farm in Keene. She mentioned by name her niece, Sarah Eliza (Reed) Herrick, her niece Mary Eliza (Wilson), wife of Fred Hall late of Perkinsville, VT, her niece Mary Maria Tolman, late of Marlborough, NH, her nephew Edward Abijah Wilson, her sister Fidelia Wright of Walpole, and without names, the sons and daughters of her sister Mary Reed.

Eliza signed the second will a few days before her death. To her nephews Avery Bemont Wilson and John Madison Wilson she left lifetime use of all her real estate, known as the Abijah Wilson farm in Keene, after their death ownership was to go to the two oldest sons of John Madison Wilson. For her sister Fidelia Wright she established a trust fund for lifetime support, the residue after her decease to be divided equally among her nephews excepting George S. Wilson and Charles H. Wilson. To her nephews George S. Wilson and Charles H. Wilson she gave the promissory note signed by them and Philena C. Wilson. To her sister-in-law Philena C. Wilson she gave $50. To her nephews Joseph Avery Wilson and Edward Abijah Wilson and her nieces Mrs. Cornelia Cummings and Mrs. Mary Eliza Hall she gave $100. each. To her nephews William B. Reed and George F. Reed she gave $25. each. To the two daughters of her niece Sarah Eliza Herrick $50. each. After paying all bequests the residue was to be equally divided among the nephews and nieces before mentioned, excepting Avery B., John M., George S. and Charles H. Wilson. Mrs. Sarah Eliza Herrick was named to be executor, surety was provided by William B. Reed and Jarib L. Herrick.

7-19 xi. AVERY, born 9 May 1808, his gravestone in North Cemetery, Keene, shows he died at Mobile, Mobile Co., Alabama, on 12 Mar. 1837. His death also appears in Keene vital records.

7-20+ xii. GEORGE, born 19 Nov. 1809, died 22 Feb. 1873.

P06-003 JOSEPH WILSON (Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) born at Keene, New Hampshire (VR), 11 June 1770, third of the five children of Maj. Joseph Wilson by his first wife, Mary (Wheeler? Woods?). He died at Marlborough, New Hampshire (VR), 26 May 1838, age 68 years.

His wife, EUNICE COLLINS, was born at Marlborough on 20 May 1769, daughter of Lt. Joseph and Eunice (Matthews) Collins. Eunice survived her husband and died at Marlborough (VR), 4 February 1840, age 70 years.

Joseph was a blacksmith by trade and was a man of great skill and ingenuity. He manufactured all kinds of agricultural implements, making many improvements in the articles he manufactured. He was the inventor of the "potato hook" which he lived to see come into general use, and was the first in this vicinity to manufacture the twist and auger bit. His house stood on the line between Marlborough and Keene. It is related of him that when a constable from Marlborough attempted to arrest him, he went into Keene without leaving the house, well knowing the law would not allow that officer to arrest him except in his own town. (Charles A. Bemis, History of the Town of Marlborough, New Hampshire, [1881] pp. 183, 445 and 699) It would be interesting to know why the constable wanted to arrest him.

Children of Joseph and Eunice (Collins) Wilson; probably all born at Marlborough:

Joseph Wilson, fourth by his second wife, Sarah (Wilder). He died at Malone, Franklin County, New York (GS), 18 February 1854, in his 69th year, buried with his two wives and a daughter in Webster Street Cemetery, Malone.

Abel Wilson, of Constable, New York, married at Keene (VR), 5 October 1812, LUCINDA SHURTLEFF, who was born at Fitzwilliam, New Hampshire, on 29 May 1786, daughter of Benoni and Nancy (Farrar) Shurtleff. Lucinda died at Malone (GS), 2 October 1822, in her 37th year.

Abel had a second wife, ANN M. -----. She survived her husband by more than a quarter century and died (GS) 20 January 1881, age 80 years, buried with her husband.

Soon after his first marriage Abel settled in Malone where he was a successful merchant. He served there in the War of 1812, and took an active part in local politics serving for some years as Supervisor of the Town of Malone, and County Clerk for Franklin County, an office to which he was re-elected several times. His last entry in the Franklin County records, on 30 April 1828, certifies that he has delivered to his successor, James B. Spencer, all books, blanks and other papers of his office, also the seal of said office. (Harry F. Landon, History of the North Country, [1932] page 1246)

Abel Wilson, age 64 years, born in New Hampshire, a merchant, is listed in the 1850 census of Malone, with his wife Ann M., age 48 years, born in New York, and his children, George C. age 36 years, a merchant's clerk, and Sarah M., age 21 years, both born in New York.

Children of Abel Wilson by his first wife, Lucinda (Shurtleff); all born at Malone; as given by Benjamin Shurtleff on page 441 of Descendants of William Shurtleff, [1912]:

7-36+ i. GEORGE GRANDISON, born 27 Mar. 1814, died 8 Nov. 1893.

7-37 ii. ANN JEANETTE, a twin, born 5 Jan. 1816, died at Malone, 6 May 1850. She married there on 10 July 1834 BENJAMIN W. CLARK, who was born at Vergennes, VT, on 24 Feb. 1812, died at Malone, 11 Dec. 1895. They had no children.

7-38 iii. MARIE ANTOINETTE, a twin, born 5 Jan. 1816, died at Malone 12 Jan. 1834, age 19 years. She is buried with her parents.

Child of Abel Wilson by his second wife, Ann M. (-----):

7-39 iv. SARAH N., born about 1829.

P06-019 MICHAEL WILSON (Noah, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born at York, Maine, circa 1778, baptized at Wells, Maine, 6 December 1778, son of Noah and Martha (Junkins) Wilson. (NEH&G Register, 17[1923]:141)

The intention of Michael Wilson, Jr. to marry LYDIA SWETT, who was born at York, in May of 1783, daughter of Samuel and Lydia (Moulton) Swett, was recorded at York, on 10 October 1801. (Everett S. Stackpole, Descendants of John Swett of Newbury, Massachusetts, [1913] page 30) This relationship is proven by the will of Samuel Swett, dated 28 June 1808, in which he mentions his daughter Lydia, wife of Michael Wilson. (York County Probate Court Records, file 18370)

Lydia survived her husband; she is listed in the 1850 census of York. Lydia Wilson, born at York, Maine, daughter of Samuel and Lydia Swett, died at Boston, Massachusetts (VR), 24 November 1869, age 89 years.

Michael Wilson and his wife owned the covenant in the church at Wells on 23 August 1804. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:262)

Michael Wilson of York, yeoman, and Lydia Wilson, his wife, in her right, on 24 November 1821 quitclaimed to Solomon Brooks of York, Esq., all rights, title and interest in the real estate of Samuel Swett, late of York, deceased, the father of said Lydia Wilson, also in the estate of Daniel Swett, late of York, mariner, deceased, also the reversion of the thirds of Lydia Swett, widow of Samuel Swett, and the reversion of the thirds of Clarissa Swett, widow of Daniel Swett. (York County Registry of Deeds, 109:108) This conveyance, which was witnessed by Miles Wilson and by Emeline Wilson, is the last record we have found of this Michael Wilson.

Children of Michael and Lydia (Swett) Wilson:

7-40 i. JEMIMA, born about 1803. She did not marry. Jemima Wilson died at York (VR), 10 Feb. 1895, age 92 years, 11 months and 24 days, daughter of Michael and Lydia (Smith) Wilson. Not only is her mother's maiden name incorrect in this death record, Jemima's age at death calculates to a birth date almost ten months before her parent's marriage!

7-41 ii. EVELINA, born circa 1805, baptized at Wells, 16 Sept. 1805. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:256) Miss Eveline Wilson married at York (VR), 8 June 1823, JAMES BOWDEN. If he was the James Bowden who died at York (VR), 21 Apr. 1824, then Evelina could well be the widow Bowden who died there (VR), 26 Apr. 1829.

7-42 iii. Son, born about 1813, died at York (VR), 25 Oct. 1819, age 6 years.

P06-022 THEODORE WILSON, Esq. (Jonathan, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) was born at York, Maine about 1787, second of the eight children and eldest son of Jonathan and Martha (Carlile) Wilson. He died at York (GS), 22 August 1850, age 63 years and 2 months, buried there with his wife in a small Wilson family cemetery.

He married at York (VR), 2 August 1813, THEODOSIA WEARE, who was born there 26 March 1786, daughter of Jeremiah and Lucy (Webber) Weare. "On 29 December 1813 said Theodosia moved to his home with furniture to keep house." (NEH&G Register, 55[1901]:57 also 64[1910]:180) One must wonder at the long delay between her wedding and the time she moved into her new home, we can only speculate that in the interim Theodore was building a house for his new bride. The widow Theodosia Wilson died at York (VR), 4 March 1858, age 72 years.

After the death of his father, Theodore gradually purchased his sibling's interests in their father's estate. We find a quitclaim deed dated 8 July 1817 from Joseph and Olive Swett, also Edward and Mehitable Freeman. On 22 September 1818 his sister Sophia signed a similar conveyance; Ebenezer and Theoda Weare sold on 6 November 1820; his brother David on 18 March 1822; the hold-out, Eliza, finally sold, in anticipation of her wedding, on 4 December 1823. (York County Registry of Deeds, 97:145, 119:168-169)

He served as representative from York to the Maine legislature in 1842-43. (Charles E. Banks, History of York, Maine, [1935] 2:365) The York records also show that Theodore Wilson, Justice of the Peace, from time to time performed marriages. In 1996 we found a pair of handsome oil portraits of Theodore and Theodosia hanging in the building of Old York Historical Society.

The 1850 census of York lists Theodore Wilson, a farmer, age 63 years, with his wife Theodosia, age 64 years, living adjacent to their son Theodore, Jr.

Theodore Wilson, Esq., of York, made his will on 6 April 1848; it was offered to the probate court on 4 November 1850. He mentioned therein his wife Theodosia, and his children Theodore Wilson, Jr., Jonathan Wilson, and Mary, wife of Woodbury Wilson. (York County Probate Court Records, file 20581)

Children of Theodore and Theodosia (Weare) Wilson; all births are recorded at York:

7-43 i. WILLIAM, born 13 Feb. 1814. He is reported to have gone west and died leaving no heirs.

7-44 ii. JONATHAN, born 29 Apr. 1816. Like his older brother he is said to have gone west and left no heirs.

7-45 iii. MARY, born 26 Dec. 1817, died at York (Wells GS) on 25 July 1850. She married at York (VR), 9 Dec. 1845, WOODBURY (P06-050) WILSON, who was born 4 Dec. 1809, son of Miles and Elizabeth (Carlile) Wilson. For children, see listing of his family.

7-46+ iv. THEODORE, born 17 Nov. 1819, died 20 Sept. 1862.

P06-026 DAVID WILSON (Jonathan, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born at York, Maine, in 1797 (GS), baptized at Wells, Maine, 7 September 1797, sixth of the eight children of Jonathan and Martha (Carlile) Wilson. (NEH&G Register, 76[1922]:250) He died at Dover, New Hampshire (VR), 4 August 1879, age 82 years.

He married first, at Dover (VR), on 7 March 1827, MERCY (YOUNG) TIBBETS (1788-1831), daughter of ----- Young, and widow of Wentworth Tibbets (1787-1826).

David married as his second wife, at Dover (VR), 1 December 1835, another widow, NANCY (PLUMER) SMITH (1805-1854), daughter of Ephraim and Judith (Perkins) Plumer, and widow of ----- Smith. This relationship is established by the will of her daughter Susan, who left funds for the maintenance of the graves in Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover, of her father, David Wilson, and her grandfather, Ephraim Plumer.

The 1850 census of Dover lists David Wilson, a mason, age 53 years, born in Maine, with his wife Nancy, age 45 years, born in New Hampshire. The children were Charles, age 22 years, Martha, age 20 years, Edmund, age 1 year, and Susan, age 3 years, all born in New Hampshire. Also listed with them was Ann Linton, age 15 years. In 1860 the census listed the father with his daughters Martha and Susanna A.

The Wilson plot in Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover, faces the plot of Charles Henry Sawyer, who served as governor of New Hampshire 1887-1889. It contains a single large monument on which are inscribed the names, with year of birth and death, of David Wilson, his two wives, and eight of his children. Also inscribed are the names of Wentworth Tibbets (1787-1826), his child Frances L. Tibbets (1820-1822), also Mary Sleeper (1828-1828), and Ann Mary Sleeper (1820-1832), children of Sherburn and Mary Sleeper. Their relationship, if any, to David Wilson, is not apparent.

On the reverse side of this monument is inscribed the names and dates for seven individuals named Plumer. The name of his father-in-law, Ephraim Plumer does not appear, and the cemetery office has no record of the burial of a man by this name.

Children of David Wilson by his first wife, Mercy (Young) (Tibbets):

7-47 i. CHARLES, born about 1828. Mr. Charles Wilson, of Dover, NH, married at York (VR), in December 1859, his first cousin, HANNAH W. SWETT, who was born at York, about 1818, daughter of Joseph and Olive (P06-021) Swett.

The 1870 census of York, Maine lists Charles, age 45 years, a carpenter, and his wife Hannah W., age 53 years. Living with them was Hannah's mother, Olive Swett, age 85 years.

Hannah died on 17 Dec. 1891, age 75 years and 10 months, she was buried next to her mother in the old Wilson Cemetery, on the west side of Logging Road in York. Hannah signed her will on 30 April 1889, naming J. J. Hazen to be executor. Aside from a bequest of $25.00 to Hannah W. Phillips, her entire estate was left to Sarah E. Swett. The relationship, if any, was not stated. (York County Probate Court Records, file 20537)

On 25 June 1878 Susan Augusta, daughter of David and Nancy Wilson, married at Dover (VR), CHARLES K. HARTFORD (1838-1916). The 1850 census shows him there with his father, Oliver G. Hartford, age 60 years, born in Maine. Susan A. Hartford signed her will at Dover, 21 Apr. 1916, shortly after the death of her husband. In addition to the funds for cemetery maintenance she left bequests to a sizeable number of individuals, the only relationship mentioned was for Annie P. Davis, of Dover, a cousin. (Strafford County Probate Court Records, file 137:202)

It appears that Daniel had a first wife whose identity has eluded us.

He married at York, Maine (VR), on 8 December 1816, probably as a second wife, LOUISA BEAN, spelled BANE in the York records, who was born there 9 September 1783, daughter of Daniel and Abigail (Beedle) Bean. (Frederick R. Boyle, Early Families of Sanford-Springvale, Maine, [1988] page 28) Louisa, wife of Daniel Wilson, died of childbirth, at York (VR), 24 April 1817.

We find no record of his next marriage, to LYDIA -----, who, according to the census, was born in Maine about 1794. She is possibly the Lydia Wilson who died in the almshouse at York (VR), in October of 1882.

There is but little data available on this man. We find no trace of him in the probate records or in the land records, nor is his family found in any of the York cemeteries. He is listed as heading a household in the census of York for each decade from 1810 through 1850 but there is hardly any details of his family. The 1850 census shows him, age 68 years, a farmer, with his wife Lydia, age 56 years. Living with them was Charlotte Wilson, age 42 years, thought to be a daughter by an unrecorded first marriage.

Children of Daniel Wilson by an unknown first wife, possibly there were others:

7-76 i. Probably CHARLOTTE, born about 1808.

Child of Daniel and Louisa (Bean) Wilson:

7-77 ii. Infant, died at York (VR), 26 April 1817.

P06-045 JOHN WILSON (Miles, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born 18 June 1791, at York, Maine, oldest child of Miles and Elizabeth (Carlile) Wilson. He died before 1850, probably at Springfield, Massachusetts.

He married at York (Kittery VR), on 7 November 1813, LYDIA CHASE. Lydia was born at York, 23 June 1793, daughter of Col. Joseph and Hannah (Grow) Chase. (John C. Chase, Descendants of Aquilla and Thomas Chase, [1925] page 113) Lydia C. Wilson, widow, born at York, Maine, daughter of Col. Joseph and Hannah G. Chase, died at Springfield (VR), 27 May 1876, age 82 years and 11 months.

Lydia was living with her daughter Elizabeth for the 1850 census of Springfield, Massachusetts.

Known children of John and Lydia (Chase) Wilson:

7-78+ i. EDWARD CHASE, born at Dover, NH, 19 Feb. 1815, died at Brookline, MA, 19 Apr. 1893.

7-79 ii. WILLIAM WOODBURY, born in June 1819 (calculated), probably at Brunswick, ME, died there (GS), 16 Oct. 1820, age 16 months, "son of John and Lydia."

7-80 iii. ELIZABETH A., born about 1821, probably at Brunswick, ME. She married HORATIO N. E. TINKHAM. The 1850 census of Springfield lists Horatio Tinkham, age 36 years, born in New Hampshire, a merchant, with his wife Elizabeth, age 29 years, born in Maine. Also in the household was his mother-in-law, Lydia C. Wilson, age 58 years, born in Maine, and her son, William Wilson, age 29 years, a merchant, born Massachusetts. Both Elizabeth Tinkham and her mother were mentioned in the 1872 will of her brother William.

7-81+ iv. WILLIAM WOODBURY, born 4 July 1821, probably at Springfield. He died at Brookline, MA, 8 Oct. 1891.

P06-049 JOSEPH WILSON (Miles, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born about 1802, probably at Wells, Maine, fifth of the six known children of Miles and Elizabeth (Carlile) Wilson. He died at Easthampton, Massachusetts (GS), 14 March 1870, age 68 years, buried with his two wives and two of his children in Ocean View Cemetery, Wells. "A kind husband and most affectionate father." (NEH&G Register, 93[Jan. 1939]:57)

Joseph Wilson of Wells, married at York, Maine (VR), 4 November 1830, MARY ANN CLARK, of York. Mary Ann died from complications during childbirth, 6 March 1833 (GS), age 28 years and 8 months.

Joseph married second, MARY -----, who was born in Maine, in August of 1802 (calculated), and died (GS) 20 January 1875, age 72 years and 5 months.

On 14 September 1844 Joseph Wilson, of Wells, mariner, for the sum of $530, quitclaimed all of his interest in several pieces of real estate in the harbor area of Wells, including wharfs, warehouses, and similar parcels, all of which he owned in common with William Gooch, Esq. This conveyance was endorsed by his wife Mary Wilson, who thereby relinquished her dower rights in this land. (York County Registry of Deeds, 184:167)

The 1850 census of Portsmouth, New Hampshire lists Joseph Wilson, a machinist, age 48 years, with his wife Mary, age 47 years, and his children; Joseph W., a clerk, age 18 years, and Lydia A. C., age 14 years. Also living with them was Harriet N. Curtis, age 25 years, all were natives of Maine.

Joseph Wilson of Easthampton died intestate, on 14 March 1870, leaving a widow, Mary Wilson, a daughter, Lydia A. Preble of Half Moon Bay, California, and a son Joseph W. Wilson, of Easthampton, who was given administration on the estate. The widow died 20 January 1875 leaving as heirs her step-son Joseph W. Wilson and her daughter, Lydia A. Preble. (Hampshire County Probate Court Records, files 265:20, 21)

7-82+ i. JOSEPH WOODBURY, born at Wells, 26 Aug. 1831.

7-83 ii. J. CLARK, born at Wells, in March 1833 (calculated). He died at Brookline, MA (VR), 14 Jan. 1863, age 29 years and 10 months. Neither his death record or his gravestone in Ocean View Cemetery, Wells, gives his first name.

Children of Joseph Wilson by his second wife, Mary (-----):

7-84 iii. LYDIA ANN CLARK, born about 1836. She married SAMUEL W. PREBLE. In 1870 she was living in Half Moon Bay, San Mateo County, California.

7-85 iv. SAMUEL C., born at Portsmouth about 1839. He died (GS), 28 June 1850, age 11 years, he is buried in Wells with his parents.

P06-050 Capt. WOODBURY WILSON (Miles, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born (GS), 4 December 1809, probably at Wells, Maine, youngest of the six known children of Miles and Elizabeth (Carlile) Wilson. Woodbury Wilson, a farmer, son of Miles and Elizabeth (Carlile) Wilson died at Wells (VR), 2 July 1894, age 84 years and 7 months. His gravestone in Ocean View Cemetery, Wells shows the date as 2 May 1894.

His intention to marry MARY (P07-045), who was born at York, Maine (VR), 26 December 1817, daughter of Theodore and Theodosia (Weare) Wilson, was recorded there on 24 November 1845. This marriage is verified by the will of Theodore Wilson, Esq., dated at York, 6 April 1848, which lists his daughter Mary, wife of Woodbury Wilson. (York County Probate Court Records, file 20581) Mary died (GS), 23 July 1850, nine days after the birth of her second daughter, buried with her husband.

The title captain was used on his marriage application; we have not determined whether it indicated military service or his occupation. The 1850 census of York lists Woodbury Wilson, a farmer, age 40 years, with his wife Mary, age 32 years, and their daughter Helen, age 2 years. They were living with his cousin, Daniel (P06-038).

On 2 May 1853 Woodbury Wilson was appointed guardian for Helen A. Wilson and Mary T. Wilson, minors under the age of fourteen years, daughters of Mary Wilson, late of York, deceased. Surety was posted by Theodore Wilson and Joseph Weare, Jr. (York County Probate Court Records, file 20539) The 1870 census shows Woodbury Wilson, a farmer at York, with his daughters Helen and Mary, and his sister, Elizabeth, who was keeping house.

Woodbury Wilson of York died intestate. Administration on his estate was granted, on 29 August 1894, to Helen A. Wilson, of York, who provided surety by Mary T. Wilson and W. M. Walker. (York County Probate Court Records, file 20587)

Children of Capt. Woodbury and Mary (Wilson) Wilson:

7-86 i. HELEN A., born about 1848. Helen A. Wilson, of York, on 16 Dec. 1897, for the consideration of one dollar, quitclaimed to her sister, Mary Wilson Currier, wife of John E. Currier, of York, "one undivided half interest in the land I inherited from my father Woodbury Wilson, late of York, deceased." (York County Registry of Deeds, 486:90)

7-87 ii. MARY T., born 14 July 1850, died at Merrimac, MA, 25 Feb. 1948, age 97 years, 7 months and 11 days. (Huse) Currier. No children. (Philip J. Currier, Currier Family Records, [1984] page 477)

P06-052 HENRY C. WILSON (Henry, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) frequently called HARRY WILSON, he was born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR) on 24 August 1791, second of the eleven children of Henry and Eunice (Colton) Wilson.

The intention of Harry Wilson to marry AZUBAH PORTER, both of Rowe, was recorded there on 5 September 1811.

On 4 July 1859 Henry Wilson, a mechanic, age 67 years, born at Rowe, son of Henry and Emma (sic!) Wilson, married on 4 July 1859, at Adams, Massachusetts (VR), a widow, MARY (-----) ADAMS, age 52 years, both residents of Adams.

On 31 August 1831 Harry Wilson, of Williamstown, Massachusetts, sold 12-1/2 acres of land in Sherburne, Vermont, probably the land he had received from his father's estate. This conveyance was witnessed by his son Horace Wilson. On 23 November 1835 when Henry Wilson of Williamstown sold his one-seventh interest in the estate of his brother Elijah Wilson, deceased, the deed was witnessed by his son Roswell Wilson. (Sherburne Land Records, 5:47 and 464)

We find but little additional information regarding this man. He is listed in the 1860 census of Adams, Massachusetts, a teamster, age 68 years, born in Massachusetts, with his wife Mary who was age 53 years, born in Vermont. Henry was living in 1873 when he, with his siblings, signed a petition requesting the court to appoint a guardian for their aged mother. (Rutland County Probate Court Records, 39:360-62)

Known children of Henry C. and Azubah (Porter) Wilson; there probably were others:

7-88 i. ROSWELL, born at Rowe (VR), 25 Dec. 1811.

7-89 ii. HORACE, born in March 1817 (calculated). His death on 18 Oct. 1844, is recorded at North Adams, MA. Age 27 years and 7 months, a carpenter, married, he was born at Rowe, son of Henry and Zuliette (sic!) Wilson.

P06-053 OTIS WILSON (Henry, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR), 7 September 1793, third of the eleven children of Henry and Eunice (Colton) Wilson. He died at Sherburne, Vermont (VR), 11 August 1860, age 67 years, 11 months and 14 days, buried there in Riverside Cemetery.

It appears that as a young man Otis resided in New York state. His wife was born there; they apparently married there and his first child was born there.

He married, on 27 March 1817, LUCY JANE BROWN, who was born 11 June 1791. (George W. Colton, Descendants of Quartermaster George Colton, [1912] page 88) Her death record at Pittsfield, Vermont says Lucy Wilson, a widow, born in Orange, New York, died on 4 December 1873, age 76 years, 5 months and 23 days. The records in Sherburne say Lucy Wilson died 4 December 1873, age 76 years, 6 months and 4 days, a widow, born at Cooperstown, New York, daughter of Ezra and Emily (----) Brown. We have not found a gravestone.

The 1850 census of Sherburne lists Otis Wilson, age 54 years, a carpenter, with his wife Lucy, age 51 years, both born in Massachusetts. Their children then living with them were James age 15 years, Roxanna 12, Charles 8, and La Fayette, 6 years old, all born in Vermont. In 1860 the census shows Charles the only child still at home with his parents.

Otis Wilson of Sherburne died intestate, leaving a widow Lucy. Administration on his estate was given to Richard Estabrook of Sherburne, on 21 August 1860, surety was provided by Warner Bates. His homestead consisted of 850 acres of land in Sherburne, on the highway from Sherburne to Pittsfield. His son Daniel C. Wilson had built a house, in which he then resided, situated on 12 acres of this land. Distribution of the assets was made on 18 August 1862 to the following heirs; Horace Wilson, Daniel Wilson, Ann, wife of Simeon Clark, Sarah Flanders, Henry Wilson, James Wilson, Charles Wilson, Elijah Wilson, Roxanna Kingston and to the heirs of Ellen Carruth, deceased. (Rutland County Probate Court Records, 35:357, 508, 36:187, also file 2913)

On 27 August 1873 the following relatives of Lucy Wilson, widow, of Pittsfield, signed a petition requesting that she be ruled legally insane and a guardian be appointed to handle her affairs; Roxy Kingston, Sarah Flanders, Simeon Clark, Ann Clark, James O. Wilson, Daniel C. Wilson and Henry C. Wilson. Alonzo T. Estabrook was appointed by the court on 16 September 1873. (Rutland County Probate Court Records, 39:260-62)

Children of Otis and Lucy Jane (Brown) Wilson:

7-90+ i. HORACE, born at Preston, Chenango Co., NY, 9 Dec. 1818, (Rowe VR), died at Mendon, VT, 22 Apr. 1868.

7-91+ ii. DANIEL CAREY, born at Rowe (VR), 2 Apr. 1820, died at Rutland, VT, 2 Apr. 1893.

7-92 iii. ELIJAH, born about 1822. On 9 September 1846 Otis Wilson, for $600.00 conveyed to Elijah Wilson of Sherburne, the farm on which he then lived, 140 acres of land, subject to a mortgage deed for $100.00 held by Jonathan Colton. Apparently this transaction was a way of mortgaging the property; on 9 November 1849 Elijah Wilson, then living in Weathersfield, Vermont, conveyed the same parcel back to Otis Wilson who was still residing thereon. (Sherburne Land Records, 7:303, 539)

The 1850 census of Weathersfield lists Elijah Wilson, age 28 years, born in Vermont, a farmer. Living with him were CONTENT WILSON, age 47 years, and ALMIRA MARCY WILSON, age 34 years, both born in Vermont. We have no clue their identity or their relationship, if any, to Elijah.

Elijah is not indexed as heading a family in the 1860 census of Vermont, in 1863 he was one of the children who participated in the distribution of the estate of Otis Wilson of Sherburne. He did not sign the 1873 petition to the court.

7-93 iv. SARAH A., born 28 July 1823, at Chittenden, VT, died 26 Dec. 1909, at Plymouth, VT, age 86 years, 4 months and 28 days, buried in Village

Cemetery, Pittsfield. She married STANISLAUS P. FLANDERS, on 8 June 1849, at Clarendon, VT (VR). He was born at Mt. Holly, VT, son of Benjamin and Rhoda (Dean) Flanders, died 5 Mar. 1865, while serving in Co. B, Ninth Regiment, Vermont Volunteer Infantry, buried in National Cemetery, City Point, VA. (Edith Flanders Dunbar, The Flanders Family From Europe To America, [1935] page 353) They had six children:

a) Otis W. Flanders, born 21 July 1849, at Clarendon, died 27 Nov. 1928, at Rutland City Hospital, age 79 years, 4 months and 6 days. He never married.

f) Ella F. Flanders, born 7 Apr. 1863, at Pittsfield, died there 21 Feb. 1864.

7-94 v. ELLEN, born at Sherburne, in September 1825 (calculated), died at Mendon, VT (VR), on 8 Apr. 1860, age 34 years and 7 months. She married, as his first wife, DARIUS CARRUTH, who was born in 1824, at Rutland, VT. His stone in Parker Cemetery, Mendon, says he died 17 May 1900, age 75 years and eight months, son of Daniel and Betsey (Davis) Carruth. (Harold B. Carruth, Carruth Family, [1952] pages 83/109; also Records of East Parish Church, Rutland, Vermont)

f) Charles Darius Carruth, born at Rutland, 3 Aug. 1859 (calculated), died at Marlboro, VT, 17 Jan. 1913, age 53 years, 5 months and 14 days. He married, on 20 Sept. 1882, at Mendon, VT, Ada A., born 1861, daughter of Anson and Eliza (Johnson) Moulton. They had four children. Charles married second, at Grafton, VT, on 3 Dec. 1900, a widow, Mary (Pike) Hescock, born 1880, daughter of Oscar L. and Mary A. (Martin) Pike, they had six children.

Living with them were their two daughters, Belle, age 18 years, and Frankie, age 16 years, both born in Vermont. Also in the household were GEORGIA WILSON, age 21 years, born in Massachusetts, a domestic servant; JOHN WILSON, age 18 years, born in Vermont, a laborer in a saw mill; and OTIS WILSON, age 12 years, also born in Vermont, the orphaned children of her brother Horace (P07-090). 7-100 xi. WILLIAM LaFAYETTE, born in August of 1844 (calculated) died at Sherburne (GS), 23 July 1857, age 12 years and 11 months, buried there in Riverside Cemetery.

P06-054 HORACE WILSON (Henry, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) sometimes called ORRIS WILSON, he was born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR) 11 March 1795, fourth of the eleven children of Henry and Eunice (Colton) Wilson.

From their listing in the 1850 census we find that his wife, ELIZABETH -----, was born in New York about 1798.

He was Horace Wilson, trader, of Rowe, on 23 May 1817 when his brother Henry mortgaged to him a parcel of 25 acres of land in Rowe. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 42:7)

Again relying on the census for our information, it appears that shortly after this document was executed Horace removed to New York where he married and where his first child was born. By the time their second child was born Horace and Elizabeth had returned to Massachusetts. They were still there on 24 March 1836 when Horace Wilson, of Rowe, and Elizabeth, his wife, for $1,200.00 sold two parcels of land, one of 34 acres, the second containing 5 acres. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 121:158) It appears that they removed from town shortly thereafter, as there is no further record of them in Rowe.

The 1850 census of Saratoga Springs, Saratoga County, New York shows where they went. It lists Horace Wilson, a farmer, aged 54 years, born in Massachusetts, with his wife Elizabeth, age 52 years, born in New York. Their oldest child, Almira, age 28 years, was born in New York. The next four, Catherine S. 25, Edmund C. 24, Melvin W. 21 and Francis M. 16, were all born in Massachusetts. Their youngest child, Caroline L., age 12 years, was born in New York.

Children of Horace and Elizabeth (-----) Wilson; there may have been others:

7-101 i. ALMIRA, born about 1822, in New York.

7-102 ii. CATHERINE S., born about 1825, probably at Rowe.

7-103 iii. EDMUND C., born about 1826, probably at Rowe. He married EMMA J. -----. On 4 Feb. 1884, 19 Oct. 1907 and 16 Apr. 1909 Edmund C. Wilson and his wife Emma J. Wilson sold small parcels of land in Rowe. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 372:273, 467:294 and 550:196)

7-104 iv. MELVIN W., born about 1829, probably at Rowe. The fact that he was called student for the census suggests he was attending college.

7-105 v. FRANCES M., born about 1834, probably at Rowe.

7-106 vi. CAROLINE L., born about 1838, probably at Saratoga Springs.

P06-062 BENJAMIN WILSON (Martin, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR), 20 May 1800, oldest son of Martin and Abigail (Chapin) (Tuttle) Wilson. He died at Theresa, Jefferson County, New York (GS), in 1837.

He married, at Marlboro, Vermont (VR), 5 December 1822, EUNICE JENKS, who was born there (VR), 14 September 1798, daughter of Boomer and Anna (King) Jenks. (The Genealogy of the Jenks Family in America, [1952] page 99) Eunice survived her husband and married second, HOSEA GOSS, who was born in Massachusetts about 1785. The gravestone of Eunice (Jenks) Wilson, (1799-1876) (sic!), in the Theresa Cemetery, adjoins those of her first husband and her eldest son.

Benjamin and Eunice were living in Massachusetts in 1824 when their first child was born, by 1831 they had settled in New York. The 1850 census of Theresa lists Hosea Goss, age 65 years, a teacher, born in Massachusetts, with his wife Eunice, age 52 years, born in Vermont, living with her Wilson children; Charles, age 26 years, born in Massachusetts, Melissa, age 19, Boomer 16, Philando 14 and Sarah Ann, age 12 years, all but Charles born in New York. Also in the household was Charles' wife Philesta, age 18 years, and their daughter Malvina, age 6/12 years.

Amos Wheeler and Eunice W. Wilson, widow, were appointed administrators on the estate of Benjamin Wilson, late of Alexandria, deceased, intestate. He died seized of a 51 acre farm situated on the easterly shore of Hyde Lake, on which was a log house and a frame barn. Among the creditors were Ebenezer Nims and Theron Wilson, of Rowe, Franklin County, Massachusetts. (Jefferson County Surrogates Court Records, W-139)

Children of Benjamin and Eunice (Jenks) Wilson:

7-107+ i. CHARLES J., born 1824, died 1864, at Theresa.

7-108 ii. MELISSA, born about 1831.

7-109 iii. ALFRED, born about 1833. A newspaper obituary, found at Flower Memorial Library, Watertown, NY, notes the death, in September 1924, of Alfred Wilson, age 91 years, a Civil War veteran. He was born on the homestead at Hyde Park, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wilson, and married Miss ELIZA ANN BRANOUGH, in 1856. Although the article says the couple resided on a 200 acre farm in Theresa, we do not find them there in the 1880 or 1900 federal census. In fact, the only other mention we have of this elusive individual is the listing of Alfred in the 1855 state census when he was living in Theresa with the family of his brother Charles.

7-110+ iii. BOOMER, born about 1834, died 23 Mar. 1900.
7-111+ iv. PHILANDO, son, born about 1836.
7-112 v. SARAH ANN, born about 1838.

P06-063 THERON WILSON (Martin, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR), 26 February 1802, younger of the two sons of Martin and Abigail (Chapin) (Tuttle) Wilson. He died at Rowe (VR), 3 September 1875, age 73 years, buried there with his wife and several of their children in West Cemetery.

He married there (VR), 10 September 1822, OLIVE GOODNOW. She was born at Rowe (VR), 8 March 1803, daughter of Thomas (P04-012.d) and Charity (Hinkley) Goodnow. Olive Wilson, age 67 years, 3 months and 15 days, daughter of Thomas and Charity (Kimberly sic!) Goodnow, died at Rowe (VR), 23 June 1870.

The 1850 census of Rowe lists Theron Wilson, a farmer, age 48 years, with his wife Olive, age 47 years, and their daughter Olive, age 3 years. Also residing in the household was his mother, Abigail Wilson, age 75 years, and Joseph Goodnow, age 9 years, all natives of Massachusetts.

On 5 October 1875 Adaline Hicks of Rowe presented at court the will, dated 24 January 1871, of Theron Wilson, late of Rowe, deceased. Heirs-at-law were listed as Adaline Hicks of Rowe, daughter, Alonzo M. Wilson of Rowe, son, and Olive White of Colrain, daughter. The will listed bequests to each of his children; Adaline Hicks was the residual legatee. (Franklin County Probate Court Records, case 9,261)

Children of Theron and Olive (Goodnow) Wilson; all births are recorded at Rowe:

7-113+ i. ALONZO MARTIN, born 2 June 1824, died 12 Feb. 1890.

7-116 iv. OLIVE, born 11 July 1846, died 1933. She married GEORGE A. WHITE (1841-1888), son of Othniel and Eleanor (Hillman) White of Colrain. (Lois McClellan Patrie, History of Colrain, Massachusetts, [1974] page 178)

P06-065 HARVEY WILSON (Warren, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR), on 23 November 1799, son of Warren and Hannah (Hunt) Wilson.

He married BETSEY -----. According to the 1850 census she was born in New Hampshire about 1805.

Based upon the births of their children it appears that Harvey and his wife settled in New York soon after their marriage and removed to Illinois about 1839.

The 1850 census of Benton, McHenry County, Illinois lists Harvey Wilson, age 45 years, a farmer, born in Massachusetts, with his wife Betsey, age 45 years, born in New Hampshire, and their children Wyman, age 22 years, Lorillard, age 17 years, Paulina, age 15 years, Mary, age 10 years, Sarah, age 8 years, Otis J., age 5 years and Thomas, who was one year old. The three oldest children were natives of New York; the younger ones were born in Illinois.

The 1880 census of Richmond, McHenry County, shows Harvey Wilson, age 80 years, born in Massachusetts, father-in-law, in the household of R. B. Cole.

7-121 v. SARAH, born about 1842, in Illinois.

7-122 vi. OTIS J., born about 1845, in Illinois.

7-123+ vii. THOMAS H., born about 1849, in Illinois.

P06-068 BENAJAH WILSON (Junia, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR), 5 August 1801, second of the three children of Junia Adams and Sally (Chapin) Wilson.

His wife, MARTHA -----, according to the 1850 census, was born about 1800 in Maryland.

The 1850 census of Miami Township, Greene County, Ohio lists Benajah Wilson, a carpenter, age 48 years, born in Massachusetts, with his wife Martha, age 50 years, born in Maryland, and their daughters, Martha M., age 7 years and Mary C., age 3 years, both born in Ohio.

Known children of Benjah and Martha (-----) Wilson:

He married first, on 18 December 1820, ELEANOR Van EPPS, who was born at Schenectady, New York, in 1801, died at Arcade (GS), in 1852. Eleanor is said to have been a cousin of President Martin Van Buren.

Heman in 1854 married, as his second wife, a widow, RUTH (-----) PIERCE. She was born (GS), in 1801 and died in 1879. (Historical Wyoming, 29[1982]:26)

Heman was nine years of age in 1807 when his parents removed from Vermont to Middlebury, in what is now Wyoming County, New York. It has been said that he walked all the way barefoot, while driving a team of oxen. Ten years later Heman united with the Second Baptist Church in Middlebury, later known as the West Middlebury Baptist Church, where for several years he served as deacon.

In 1837, he removed with his family to East Arcade, Genesee County, then known as China, and there purchased in excess of 900 acres of land. Some he sold but he cleared a large farm for himself and lived there for several years. The 1850 census of China shows Heman Wilson, age 52 years, a farmer, born in Vermont, with his wife Eleanor, age 49 years, born in New York, and their children: Ozro, age 26 years, a farmer; Harriet, age 22 years; Truman, age 24 years; William H., age 20 years; Ellen L., age 18 years; and Franklin H., who was then 13 years of age.

About 1859 Heman gave up active business and came to Arcade village. The 1860 census shows him there, age 61 years, the postmaster, born in New York, with his wife Ruth, age 58 years, born in Maine. For 23 years he lived with his son, William H., for about 10 years in ill health and for four years a confirmed invalid.

Heman Wilson was a prominent citizen of Arcade, he held several elective offices, and became vice-president of the Attica & Alleganey Railroad. For 47 years he served as deacon in the Baptist church. A short biography will be found in Biographical Review, Livingston and Wyoming Counties, New York, [1895] pages 119 and 417.

P06-081 Col. ORSAMUS WILSON (Ebenezer, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) a twin, born 26 February 1804, at Orwell, Vermont, twelfth of the thirteen children of Capt. Ebenezer and Lydia (Rowley) Wilson. He died 22 January 1875, probably in Illinois.

His first wife, BETSEY HOYT, died (GS), 11 April 1833, age 21 years. She was probably a daughter of Reuben and Polly (-----) Hoyt who are buried in an adjacent plot of the West Middlebury Cemetery, Wyoming County, New York.

The second wife of Col. Orsamus was ANTIVERTA EJESTA SMITH, who was born in New York about 1810.

Orsamus was an infant when his parents moved from Vermont to Wyoming County. He is too young to have served in the War of 1812, his military title apparently came from service in the New York militia. Sometime between 1840 when his third child was born and the birth of his fourth child in 1846 Orsamus and his family moved from New York to Illinois. The 1860 census of Batavia, Kane County, lists Orsamus Wilson, a merchant, age 54 years, born in Vermont, with his wife Antebela (sic!), age 50 years, born in New York, and their children; Elizabeth, age 20 years and James S., age 19 years, both born in New York, and Douglas, age 14 years, who was born in Illinois.

P06-086 MICHAEL WILSON (Michael, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born about 1792, probably at Orwell, Vermont, fourth of the seven known children of Michael and Marcy (-----) Wilson. He died (GS), 14 October 1859, age 67 years, buried with his wife in West Middlebury Cemetery, Middlebury, Wyoming County, New York.

His wife, EUNICE BROWN, survived him and died 9 January 1872, age 79 years, buried with her husband. The widow died intestate, administration on her estate was granted on 16 May 1872, to her son Joseph E. Wilson, her only heir-at-law. (Wyoming County Surrogates Court Records, 3:410)

Michael Wilson of Middlebury, age 67 years, signed his will on 29 July 1859. He named Philander Choate to be executor and mentioned his wife Eunice, his son Joseph Elliott and his daughters Mary Zuluna Wilson and Lucinda Meriah Wilson. (Wyoming County Surrogates Court Records)

Children of Michael and Eunice (Brown) Wilson; probably all born at Middlebury.

7-173 i. MICHAEL H., born about 1818, died at Middlebury (GS), 14 Aug. 1843, age 25 years.

7-174 ii. OCTAVIUS, born about 1820, died at Middlebury (GS), 21 July 1853, age 33 years. He died intestate, administration on his estate was granted to his father, on 23 Jan. 1854. 7-179 vii. LUCINDA MERIAH, born about 1838.

P06-092 Dr. NOAH W. WILSON (Noah, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born in 1787, probably at Shoreham, Vermont, third of the eight children of Noah and Mary (Rowley) Wilson. He died in November of 1864, probably at Brandon, Jefferson Township, Buchanan County, Iowa.

Noah married LIVONA A. OTIS, who was born about 1802 and died in 1844. The preceding information, and much of what follows regarding Noah's first family, comes from page 417, Portrait and Biographical Album of Linn County, Iowa, Chapman Brothers, Chicago, Publishers, [1887].

Noah's second wife is believed to have been, MARGARET SMITH, who was born in Pennsylvania about 1815. (Clement F. Heverly, Pioneer and Patriot Families of Bradford County, Pennsylvania, [1913] 2:39) Margaret is listed in the 1880 census of Jefferson Township, living with her daughter Lurinda Myres.

Our information regarding Noah's second family comes from the 1860 census of Brandon, which lists Noah Wilson, age 68 years, a physician, born in Vermont, with his wife Margaret, age 45 years, born in Pennsylvania, and their children, Ann, age 15 years; Nonuda, age 14 years; Laurinda, age 12 years, all born in Ohio; also Stephen, age 10 years, and Jane, age 5 years, both born in Iowa. Also living with them were John Bowers, age 25 years, born in Ohio and Charles Bowers, age 2 years, born in Iowa. Two of Noah's sons from his first marriage were living nearby.

7-191 xii. STEPHEN, born in Iowa about 1850.
7-192 xiii. JANE, born in Iowa about 1855.

P06-096 Col. IRAD WILSON (Noah, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Addison, Vermont (VR), on 20 January 1798, sixth of the eight children of Noah and Mary (Rowley) Wilson. He died (GS), 4 July 1884, age 86 years and 6 months, buried with his wife and several of their children in Village Cemetery, Alba Borough, Canton Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania.

He married first, on 7 June 1818, SALLY MARIA ELLIOTT, who was born 23 April 1803 (calculated). If these dates are correct, Sally was only fifteen years old at the time of her wedding. She died at Alba (GS), 25 March 1848, age 44 years, 11 months and 2 days, buried with her husband.

Col. Irad married a widow, ANN (-----) CRANDALL, as his second wife, a native of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. According to the 1880 census of Alba, Ann was born about 1805. Portraits of Col. Irad and Mrs. Ann Wilson, together with a short biography, will be found facing page 296 of History of Bradford County, Pennsylvania, Rev. David Craft, editor, L. H. Evarts & Co., publisher [1878].

Irad was a few months past his fifth birthday when the family moved from Vermont to Pennsylvania, a journey which took twenty four days. An account of this trip, as given in Col. Wilson's book, Early Recollections of Alba, is reprinted in detail by Heverly, 2:237.

He also writes:-"Irad began reading medicine at the age of sixteen years and practiced that profession at Alba for nearly half a century; he was chosen county commissioner in 1839 and elected state representative, 1843 and 1844; was active in the state militia, filling the positions of captain and colonel and was best known as Colonel Wilson; was Alba's first post-master and kept up his active duties as ticket and station agent for the Williamsport & Elmira Railroad until past 85 years of age; he was a gracious and remarkable old gentleman."

The 1850 census of Canton lists Irad Wilson, farmer, age 52 years, born in Vermont, with his wife Ann, age 45 years, and his children; Courtland 19, Samantha 15, Almira 12, Emma 10, Clinton 7, and Addison, who was three years old, all born in Pennsylvania. Also listed in the household were Andrew Crandall 17, Hannah Crandall 15, Sarah Crandall 14, and Harriet Crandall, children from Ann's first marriage.

The census of 1860 shows this household consisted of Irad and Ann; his daughter Emma, a teacher; Ann's daughter Harriet Crandall; and Irad's son Addison. Also living with them was Eber Smith, age 88 years. The 1870 census lists Irad with his wife Ann. They had Helen Crandall, age 9 years, born in Pennsylvania, living with them.

The will which Col. Irad Wilson signed at Alba on 5 June 1883 was filed with the court on 1 August 1884. The complex provisions of this document provide illuminating details regarding his family. First, he mentions his wife Ann who was to have lifetime use of the house and furniture. His son C. S. Wilson was to receive all the real estate in Alba excepting the house and lot on Willow Street, also the 50 acre lot in Armenia. His sons V. M. Wilson, A. M. Wilson and his daughter Almira Witherall were each to receive $300, his son Iram having previously received $300.00 when he left the county. His grandchildren Eugene Wilson and Egesta Lindley each were to receive $150. His grandson Irad was to receive his grandfather's gold watch. Eliza, wife of Addison Wilson, was to receive the house and lot on Willow Street. After the demise of his wife the furniture was to be equally divided between their daughters; Maria Andress, Hannah Wilson, Samantha Baker, Sarah Pierce, Almira Witherall and Hannah Ewell, while the personal property was to be evenly divided among their sons, including Andrew Crandall. His sons, V. M. Wilson, C. S. Wilson and Allen M. Wilson were named to be executors. (Docket Book 7, page 235, in Bradford County Register and Recorder's Office) In reviewing the foregoing it appears that Hannah Crandall had adopted her step-father's name, we have found nothing to suggest she married a Wilson.

Heverly appears to have been misled by this document, on page 39 of his book he lists the children of Irad and Sally M. (Elliott) Wilson as Volney M., Charles S., Allen M., Iram, Addison, Maria, Hannah, Samantha, Sarah, Almira and Harriet. Apparently he soon received a correction, on page 427 of the same volume he lists the children as Oliver, Volney M., Irad, Iram, Cortland S., Allen M., Addison, Eugene, Maria (Mrs. L. J. Andrus), Samantha (Mrs. John Baker), Almira (Mrs. Jefferson Witherall), and Emma (Mrs. Erastus Manley). He added that Hannah, Sarah, Harriet and Andrew were step-children, or children of his second wife, Mrs. Ann Crandall.

Children of Col. Irad and Sally M. (Elliott) Wilson; all born at Alba:

7-193 i. MARIA E., born 1820. She married LUTHER J. ANDRUS, sometimes ANDRESS, who was born in Washington Co., NY, on 25 Dec. 1815, son of William and Lida (Towner) Andrus. He was a grocer in Alba, where their three children were born:

a) Lydia Andrus (1834-1925), she married Columbus Palmer (1827-1919).

b) Phillip A. Andrus. His gravestone in Alba has dates 9 Jan. 1838 - 14 Oct. 1883, and notes Civil War service with Co. F, 11th Pennsylvania Cavalry. His wife Mary A. ----- (1850-1926), and a daughter, are buried with him.

c) William Andrus, born about 1840. He married Gertrude Lilley, by 1880 they had two children.

16 Jan. 1856, as his second wife, ELI PARSONS ROCKWELL, who was born there, 7 Feb. 1830, son of Samuel and Betsey (Grantier) Rockwell. He was postmaster at Alba from June 1861 to 1865, they lived three years in Emporia, KS and returned to Canton in 1875. (James Boughton, Rockwell-Keeler Genealogy, [1903] page 241) Children:

7-199+ vii. ALLEN M., born in August 1833.

7-200 viii. SAMANTHA, born (GS) 22 Dec. 1834, died 1 Sept. 1916. In 1851 she married JOHN L. BAKER who was born 20 July 1827, and died 26 May 1907. They are buried in Alba.

7-201 ix. ALMIRA V., born about 1838, died at Alba, 8 Oct. 1899, age 61 years, buried in Alba. Her death is recorded in Deaths, Book 1 and 2, at Bradford County Register and Recorder's Office. She married JEFFERSON WITHERALL, a carpenter, who was born about 1836, a native of New York. They are listed in the 1870 census of Canton with their daughters:

a) N---- Etta Witherall, born about 1862. She was living with her aunt Maria Andress in the 1880 census of Alba.

b) L---- H. Witherall, born about 1864.

7-202 x. EMMA, born 3 Mar. 1840 (calculated), died (GS) 7 Dec. 1868, age 28 years, 9 months and 4 days, buried with her parents. A school teacher, she was living with her parents in 1860. She married ERASTUS H. MANLEY. Child:

a) E---- Manley, daughter, born (GS) 29 Aug. 1868, died 28 Dec. 1868.

Child of Col. Irad Wilson by his second wife, Ann (Crandall):

7-206 xiv. IRAD, born (GS) illegible 12, 1852, died 10 Nov. 1856, buried with his father. The inscription on this stone conveys a sad note; "Our Irad, we dyed him."

P06-097 IRAM WILSON (Noah Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born about 1800 in Vermont, probably at Addison, seventh of the eight children of Noah and Mary (Rowley) Wilson.

He married at Alba Borough, Canton Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, HANNAH GRANTIER. She was a daughter of Jacob and ----- (Tabor) Grantier. (Heverly, 2:39)

According to Heverly, Iram came to Alba with his parents in 1803. With such a distinctive name it is difficult to believe that he is not the one who had U. S. service for 2 months and 6 days during 1812 in Capt. Preston's company of Col. Jonathan Williams' regiment of detached Vermont militia. (Rosters of the Soldiers, in the War of 1812-14, published by the Adjutant General, State of Vermont, [1933])

He must have returned to Vermont to visit friends or relatives. Of greater concern was his age, given as 50 years in 1850, he would have been only 12 or 13 years old at the time, too young for such military service. Of course the age given the census-taker may have been incorrect, a not unusual occurrence. However, if it was not this man who was it? We have no other possible candidates.

During the winter of 1838-39 Iram and his family removed from Pennsylvania to Iowa. We find them there in the 1850 census of Linn County; Iram, age 50 years, a farmer born in Vermont, with his wife Hannah, age 47 years, born in Pennsylvania, together with their children, Ira G., age 27 years; George W., age 14 years; and Mary D., age 12 years; all born in Pennsylvania, together with Robert L., age 11 years and Arthur B., age 5 years, both born in Iowa. Living in the household adjacent to Iram was his son Noah and his wife Mary (-----), both age 24 years, both born in Pennsylvania.

Children of Iram and Hannah (Grantier) Wilson, there may have been others:

7-207+ i. IRA G., born 7 Dec. 1821, in Alba, died 22 Aug. 1908 in Marion Township, Iowa.

7-208 ii. NOAH, born about 1826, in Alba. His wife, MARY ----- was also born about 1826, in Pennsylvania.

7-209 iii. GEORGE W., born about 1836, in Alba. The 1870 census shows him living alone in the City of Marion, Linn County, 35 years of age, born in Pennsylvania, a retired general merchant. He owned considerable property, given the place and the times he must have been one of the most affluent men in town. Several times George served as trustee of the City of Marion, in 1867 and 1868 he held the office of treasurer. (History of Linn County, Iowa, Western Historical Company, publishers, [1878] page 540)

7-210 iv. MARY D., born about 1838 at Alba.
7-211+ v. ROBERT L., born about 1839 in Iowa.
7-212 vi. ARTHUR B., born about 1845.

P06-099 NATHAN WILSON (John, John, Henry, Michael, Henry) born about 1788, at Whiting, Vermont, son of John and Sarah (-----) Wilson. He died at Bethany, Genesee County, New York, on 2 December 1865.

He married SALLY -----, who was born in Vermont about 1792. She is possibly a daughter of Mercy Brown, age 82 years, born in Massachusetts, who was living with them for the 1850 census.

Nathan and Sally initially settled on a farm, near relatives, in Middlebury. In May of 1817 they sold this land. Genesee County Registry of Deeds, 10:78/80) They settled in the nearby town of Bethany where the 1850 census lists Nathan Wilson, age 62 years, a farmer, with his wife Sally, age 58 years, both born in Vermont, and their daughter Mercy E. Wilson, age 23 years, born in New York.

Nathan Wilson of Bethany died intestate, on 2 December 1865. Administration on his estate was granted to his son, Orson G. Wilson, of Geneva, Ashtabula County, Ohio, on 4 June 1866. Other heirs-at-law as listed in the probate record were his daughter, Adaline Shelly, wife of Ambrose Shelly of Geneva; his daughter, Elizabeth Blood, of Bethany; his son John S. Wilson, of place unknown but supposed to be living in Iowa; and his grand-daughter, Leva J. Dodge, wife of Elisha Dodge, of Iowa, daughter of Leva J. Pixby, a deceased daughter. (Genesee County Surrogates Court Records, Administrations, 2:111)

Children of Nathan and Sally (-----) Wilson:

7-213 i. ORSON G., born about 1813. He and his wife SABRA -----, born in New York about 1821, were living in Denmark, Ashtabula Co., OH, one house removed from his sister Adaline, in the 1850 census.
7-214 ii. ADALINE, born about 1816. She married AMBROSE SHELLY, a native of Massachusetts.

We find them in the 1850 census of Denmark and the 1870 census of Geneva, both in Ashtabula Co., OH. Living with them were their daughter Lucy, and their son George W. Ambrose, who is erroneously listed as Andrew, was probably a son of Elijah Shelly, born in Massachusetts, about 1786, who was living with them in the 1850 census.

a) Lucy E. Shelly, born about 1842 in Pennsylvania.

b) George W. Shelly, born about 1847, in Pennsylvania.

7-215 iii. LEVA J., born circa 1819, died before 1865. She married -----PIXBY, had one child:

a) Leva J. Pixby, married Elisha Dodge.

7-216 iv. JOHN S., born about 1823. He and his wife SEREPTA -----, born in New York about 1824, were living in Denmark, adjacent to his sister Adaline, for the 1850 census. Homer P. Nilson, age 3 years, born in Ohio was living with them.

7-217 v. MERCY E., born about 1827. She is not listed in her father's probate, 1866.

7-218 vi. ELIZABETH, born circa 1829, living 1890. She married, in December of 1852, WARREN BLOOD, who was born at Bethany, 26 Aug. 1827, died there 21 Jan. 1862, age 34 years and 5 months, son of Nason and Rhoda (Everest) Blood. They had two children. (Winifred Lovering Holman, Descendants of Andrew Everest of York, Maine, [1955] page 157)

P06-111 SAMUEL WILSON (Samuel, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Dover, Massachusetts, early in July of 1781, fifth of the eight children of Samuel Wilson, the youngest by his first wife, Abigail (Richards). He died at Roxbury, Massachusetts (VR), on 17 August 1811, age 29 years.

He married at Boston, Massachusetts (VR), on 15 May 1804, LYDIA CHRISTY.

On 25 October 1819 the widow, Lydia Wilson, was appointed administrator on the estate of Samuel Wilson, late of Roxbury, housewright, deceased, intestate. On 9 July 1821 Thomas Christy was appointed guardian of Abigail R. Wilson and Lydia A. Wilson, minors over the age of 14 years, and Albert Wilson, Elizabeth Wilson, Mary Wilson and Samuel Wilson, minors under the age of 14 years, all being children of Samuel Wilson, housewright, late of Roxbury, deceased. Suffolk County Probate Court Records, files 26001 and 26447-52)

Children of Samuel and Lydia (Christy) Wilson, probably all born at Boston:

> (All references herein to Needham Vital Records (VR) are to the version published in NEH&G Register, 55[1901]:258 and 57[1903]:378.)

He married at Needham (VR) on 4 June 1797 ELIZABETH SWAN. Elizabeth, wife of Nathaniel Wilson, died there (VR) 2 August 1810, age 28 years.

Nathaniel married second, also at Needham (VR), 29 June 1812, TYLLE TUCKER, who was born there 18 January 1786, daughter of Jared and Elizabeth (Houghton) Tucker. (Report to the Houghton Association, U. S. A., [1869] page 55) Tylle, wife of Nathaniel Wilson, died at Needham (VR), 15 February 1821.

On 7 January 1800 Nathaniel Wilson, of Needham, yeoman, deeded to Nathaniel Wilson, Jr., of Needham, yeoman, a farm with dwelling house and buildings, containing about 70 acres of land in Needham, bounded southerly by the Charles River. Mary Wilson, the mother, endorsed this conveyance to relinquish her dower rights in the homestead. (Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, 18:76)

For reasons which do not appear, Nathaniel in 1815 was in serious financial difficulty. In April of that year he sold 11 acres of his farm to his brother Enoch (P06-119). Later in the same month he sold 30 acres to Daniel Mann of Dover. In October to satisfy a judgment the sheriff seized three acres of his land. Finally, in December in execution of another judgment the sheriff seized two additional tracts of land, one of which included the homestead. This second judgment was obtained by Nathaniel's mother, who apparently acted to forestall further seizures which would have left the family homeless. (Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, 46:148, 188; 50:73, 247; 51:67)

P06-119 Capt. ENOCH WILSON (Jared, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Wrentham, Massachusetts (VR), on 14 January 1788, second of the seven children of Jared and Catherine (Lawrence) Wilson. He died at North Wrentham, now Norfolk, Massachusetts (VR), on 13 April 1857, age 69 years and 3 months. The title of Captain comes from his gravestone in Norfolk Cemetery.

He married first, at Wrentham (VR), 19 February 1810, JULIA KNOWLTON, of Medway, Massachusetts.

Enoch married second, at Wrentham (VR), 19 June 1823, ABIGAIL RICHARDSON, who was born at Portland, Maine, 20 December 1799, daughter of John and Lydia (Libby) Richardson. Abigail (Richardson) Wilson died at Creston, Union County, Iowa, on 27 March 1884, age 84 years. (Robert H. McIntire, Descendants of Philip McIntire, [1982], hereinafter referenced as "McIntire," pages 132/236)

His father, in his probate in 1843 refers to his son Enoch "who is deprived of his eyesight." His aunt Mary (P05-054), who lived with him, bequeathed her entire estate to her "beloved, but unfortunately blind nephew, Enoch Wilson." His blindness must have come late in life, it would be inconceivable for a man blind at birth to acquire the title of Captain. Despite his affliction Enoch was fully competent. He was appointed administrator on the estates of his father and his brother Harmon and was named to be executor in the will of his aunt Mary.

Known as Enoch Wilson, 2nd to differentiate him from his uncle (P05-052) he was initially termed yeoman, later gentleman signifying a higher status in the community. Nevertheless, for reasons which do not appear he got into deep financial trouble. On 25 January 1831 Solomon Blake of Franklin executed a judgment obtained against Enoch Wilson, of Franklin, gentleman, alias yeoman, otherwise called Enoch Wilson, 2nd, placing a lien on land "in the north parish of Wrentham which above Enoch Wilson 2nd may be entitled to in reversion of land now in possession of his father who only has a life estate in same, lying in common and undivided with his brother Harmon Wilson, who holds the other half in reversion, containing 26 acres which adjoins Jared Wilson's house."

The matter became quite murky. Enoch Wilson, 2nd, in a deed witnessed by Jeremiah Blake and Ebenezer Blake, on 11 April 1831, quitclaimed to his aunt Mary, singlewoman, of Dover, land in the north parish of Wrentham, with buildings thereon standing, it being the farm now occupied by my father, Jared Wilson, containing 26 acres. Next, on 27 August 1831 we find another execution, identical in wording to the first, this one filed by Mary Wilson, singlewoman of Dover, and witnessed by Enoch Wilson, 2nd, attorney to the creditor, and Enoch Wilson, debtor. At this point the matter became too complicated for us pursue to further. (Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, 92:310, 94:17 and 94:255) The 1850 census of Wrentham lists Enoch Wilson, age 62 years, a farmer, with his wife Abigail, age 52 years, and their children, Edward H, age 16; James 14; Abigail 12; and George, age 8 years. Also residing with him was his 84 year old aunt.

Enoch died intestate. Administration on his estate was granted to Julius Wilson, of Taunton, "eldest son in Massachusetts," on 23 May 1857. Heirs-at-law were listed as, son, Silas Wilson, of New Jersey; daughter, Mary Ann, wife of William Kinney; son, Charles Wilson, of Illinois; son, Erastus E. Wilson, of New York City; and his minor sons, Edmund and George, both of Wrentham. Also mentioned in the probate were Abigail Wilson, the widow; WILLIAM M. WILSON, of Illinois, grandson by a deceased son; and JAMES WILSON of Taunton, grandson by a deceased son. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20573)

"Enoch had five boys by his first wife, of those two are still living. By his second marriage he had nine children born to him five boys, and four girls; two of the girls are now dead. Judge C. C. Wilson, late Chief Justice of Utah, was the eldest of these boys by the second marriage, of the other boys one is a lawyer and two are physicians." (United States Biographical Dictionary - Iowa Volume, American Biographical Publishing Company, [1978] page 723) "The youngest of the four brothers of Charles C. Wilson is an attorney at Creston, Union County, Iowa. The other three are all physicians and surgeons, one is located at Havana, Cuba, another is at Osceola, Clark County, Iowa, and the third is also at Creston." (Portrait and Biographical Album, Henry County, Illinois, [1885] page 685)

Children of Enoch Wilson by his first wife, Julia (Knowlton):

7-242 i. Probably ENOCH, born at Wrentham (VR), 16 July 1810, five months after the published date for his parent's marriage. The record says son of John and Julia Wilson but we find no such couple in Wrentham. He may be the man whose intention to marry MARY JANE HAILEY, of South Boston, was filed in Dorchester, Massachusetts, on 28 May 1830, but we find nothing to validate this speculation. He is not listed in the 1857 probate of his father.

7-243+ ii. SILAS H., born circa 1812.

He graduated at Hahnemann College, Chicago in Feb. 1871, became a doctor in Osceola, Clarke Co., IA. (United States Biographical Dictionary - Iowa Volume, American Biographical Publishing Company, [1878] page 723) The 1880 census of Osceola lists Edward H. Wilson (sic!), a physician, age 46 years, with his wife Eliza J., age 44 years, both born in Massachusetts. A side note, this census-taker appears to have misunderstood the column headings at the top of the page, Edward, like most of the other males in Osceola is shown as having been unemployed for twelve months during the census year!

7-253+ xii. JAMES B., born about 1836.

7-254 xiii. ABIGAIL, born about 1838.

He married at Marlborough, New Hampshire (VR), 10 October 1822, AZUBAH BOWMAN, born 23 April 1801 (calculated), daughter of Francis Bowman. Azubah died at Keene (VR), 20 October 1884, age 83 years, 5 months and 27 days.

In 1833 Stillman Wilson, of Swanzey, New Hampshire, purchased for $150.00 a tract of 200 acres of land situated in Township No. Ten, Old Military Tract, Franklin County, New York. (Franklin County Registry of Deeds, 6:595) We find nothing to suggest that he ever occupied this land; Stillman was residing in Swanzey in 1850 where the census lists him, a blacksmith, age 49 years, his wife Azubah, age 49 years, and their son Francis B., age 21 years, a blacksmith, all born in New Hampshire.

Stillman Wilson of Keene signed his will on 27 August 1861, it was introduced in the probate court on 16 June 1864. He mentioned therein his wife Azubah, his daughters Lorinda W. Hamilton and Lucy A. Dudley and his son Francis B. Wilson, of Keene, who was named to be executor. (Cheshire County Probate Court Records, file W933)

Children of Stillman and Azubah (Bowman) Wilson; all births are recorded at Swanzey:

8-43 i. LORINDA WHITCOMB, born 8 Oct. 1824. She married ----- HAMILTON; was living in 1861.

8-44 ii. LUCY ALMIRA, born 16 Mar. 1827. On 26 July 1846 Lucy A. Wilson, of Marlborough, NH, married at Brattleboro, VT (VR), HENRY O. DUDLEY.

8-45 iii. FRANCIS BOWMAN, born 12 Mar. 1829. Francis B. Wilson, a machinist, born at Swanzey, NH, died at Lawrence, MA (VR), 28 Dec. 1875, age 46 years, 9 months and 16 days. On 6 Jan. 1857 Francis B. Wilson of Worcester, MA, married at Keene (VR), ANNA MARIA ARNOLD. She was born at Chesterfield, NH, on 12 Nov. 1833, daughter of David and Lettie (Howe) Arnold. (Oran C. Randall, History of Chesterfield, New Hampshire, [1882] page 217) Ann M. Wilson, of Lawrence, MA, executor on the estate of Francis B. Wilson, late of Lawrence, deceased, on 29 May 1878, after having recovered judgements against Sanford K. Barker and George L. Wyman, both of Keene, sold a farm situated on the Walpole road in Keene, adjoining the Abijah Wilson farm and land of the late Abijah Metcalf. (Cheshire County Registry of Deeds, 261:26)

P07-028 CHARLES WILSON (Ephraim, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) born at Northfield, Massachusetts, on 15 June 1796, oldest child of Ephraim and Sarah (Prindle) Wilson. He died at Keene, New Hampshire (VR), 5 May 1845, age 49 years.

He married at Marlborough, New Hampshire (VR), 16 July 1818, LAVINA COLLINS, who was born there 8 September 1797, only daughter of Samuel and Lydia (Matthews) Collins. She survived her husband and in 1853, accompanied her son Horace on their move to Gilroy, Santa Clara County, California. Lavina (Collins) Wilson died at Gilroy, 17 June 1883, age 86 years.

Charles was a brick mason by trade, as were all of his sons. In 1825 he removed from Marlborough to Swanzey, New Hampshire, where he spent his remaining years.

Charles Wilson of Swanzey died intestate. Administration on his estate was granted on 20 May 1845 to Horace Wilson, of Swanzey, "only son of the deceased in this state over the age of 21 years." Surety was posted by Horace Hamblet, George Metcalf and Amos Stone, all of Keene. Mentioned in his probate were the widow Lavina, sons Horace, Hiram, Dorson, Dan and Albert, also daughters Lydia M. and Sarah Ann. Guardians were appointed for the last four who were minors under the age of fourteen years. (Cheshire County Probate Court Records, files W657, W658, W659, and W664)

The 1850 census of Swanzey lists the widow, Lavina Wilson, age 54 years, there with her sons Dorson, age 26 years, a mason; Dan, age 24 years, a mason; Albert, age 21 years, a mason; also daughters Sarah A., age 17 years; and Lydia A., age 15 years. Some of these entries are in error inasmuch as the older sons had already migrated to California. Perhaps at that time the widow considered this to be only a temporary move and thought they would return to New Hampshire.

The descendants of Charles and Lavina in Gilroy, California should not be confused with the descendants of William (N06-) Wilson, a wheelwright born in Marlborough, Massachusetts in 1811, who removed to Gilroy in 1868.

> Our information regarding Charles Wilson and his descendants, unless otherwise attributed, comes from pages 475, 849, 1281 and 1332 of Historical and Biographical Record, Coast Counties of California, [1904]. This material has been augmented by the research and family records of a descendant, the late Cecil H. Grider (P10-061.b), of Widner, Georgia.

P07-036 GEORGE GRANDISON WILSON (Abel, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) born at Malone, Franklin County, New York, on 27 March 1814, oldest child of Abel and Lucinda (Shurtleff) Wilson. He died at Malone, on 8 November 1893, buried there in Morningside Cemetery.

He married at Rochester, Vermont, 10 January 1855, OLIVE GOODENOW HUNTINGTON, who was born there, 21 October 1820, daughter of Dr. Daniel and Mary (Davis) Huntington.

There are some differences between our three sources for this family. These are: Benjamin Shurtleff, Descendants of William Shurtleff, [1912] page 441, Simon Huntington, The Huntington Family in America, [1915] page 978, and Harry F. Landon, History of the North Country, [1932] page 1246. We have opted to use the most recent version.

George was educated in the schools of Malone and at Franklin Academy. For many years he was an accountant at one of Malone's banking institutions. George G. Wilson is listed in the 1850 census of Malone, a merchant's clerk, age 36 years, living with his parents.

8-53 i. Son, a twin, born and died 10 Aug. 1855.

P07-046 Maj. THEODORE WILSON (Theodore, Jonathan, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born at York, Maine (VR), 17 November 1819, youngest of the four known children of Theodore and Theodosia (Weare) Wilson. According to a gravestone, in Pine Grove Cemetery, Farmington, New Hampshire, he died 20 September 1862. Inasmuch as his family at that time was residing in York he obviously was buried elsewhere, and his name included on the joint stone when it was erected thirty years later to mark the resting place of his wife. We have found no explanation for his military title, it is quite possible he was a casualty of the Civil War.

Maj. Theodore Wilson, Jr., married at York (VR), on 1 January 1845, Miss ELIZABETH S. TALPEY. Elizabeth Wilson, age 71 years, born 7 April 1821, in York, Maine, daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth (Carlile P05-026.e) Talpey, died at Farmington (VR), 28 April 1892.

Maj. Theodore Wilson was well respected by his neighbors in York as witnessed by the fact that he was elected to represent the town in the Maine State Legislature, 1842-1843. (Charles E. Banks, History of York, Maine, [1935] 2:365)

The 1850 census of York lists Theodore Wilson, Jr., a farmer, age 30 years, with his wife Elizabeth, age 29 years, and their children, Mary, age 3 years, and William, age 2 years. His parents were living in the adjacent household. In 1860 the family consisted of both parents and six children; Mary E. 13, William T. 12, Harriet P. 9, Edward T. 6, Henry C. 3 and Frank W., who was age 2/12 years. The family was still in York for the 1870 census. William, age 22 years, a farmer, is listed as heading the household, followed by his mother who was keeping house. Hattie P. 19, Edward T. 16, Henry C. 13 and Theodore 10, follow, then his aunt, Lydia (P06-019), who was aged 76 years.

Elizabeth S. Talpey had a brother, Charles W. Talpey (1835-1905) who married Mary A. Berry (1833-1909). He and his wife are buried in the same plot in Pine Grove Cemetery as his namesake, Charles Wesley Talpey (P09-067), whose name is inscribed on the reverse side of a common headstone. In 1909, when Mary A. (Berry) Talpey, a wealthy, childless widow, made her will she included legacies for surviving relatives, both hers and her husband's. Appearing on this list are her husband's nephews, Edward T. Wilson and Henry C. Wilson of Farmington, and Will T. Wilson of Boone, Iowa; his nieces, Hattie T. Wilson Littlefield of Brookline, Massachusetts and Clara B. Wilson of Portland, Maine; also his grand-nephew, Edward T. Wilson of Farmington, son of Theodore Wilson, late of Boone, deceased, and his grand-niece, Maude Jacobs, of Boston, Massachusetts. (Strafford County Probate Court Records, file X1291)

This complex probate file has been very helpful in establishing relationships within this family and should be equally helpful to those researching the Talpey and Berry families.

Children of Maj. Theodore and Elizabeth S. (Talpey) Wilson, probably all born at York:

8-56 i. MARY ELIZABETH, born about 1847. She married at York (VR), 25 Nov. 1866, WILLIAM T. JACOBS, of Wells. They had a daughter:
a) Maude Jacobs. She was living in Boston, unmarried, in 1909 when she was listed in the will of her aunt, Elizabeth Talpey.

8-57+ ii. WILLIAM T., born in May of 1848.

8-58 iii. HARRIET P., born about 1851, married ----- LITTLEFIELD. In 1909 she was living in Brookline, Massachusetts.

8-59+ iv. EDWARD TALPEY, born 5 Sept. 1853, died 7 Jan. 1947, at Farmington.

8-60 v. CLARA B., born circa 1855. The only mention we have found of this elusive woman is in her aunt's will, dated 1909, when she was living, unmarried in Portland, Maine.

8-61 vi. HENRY C., born (GS), 5 Aug. 1856, died (GS) 21 Jan. 1944. He is buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, in the plot of his brother, Edward Talpey Wilson. He did not marry; his will, dated at Farmington, 31 Aug. 1933, names Nellie Joy Wilson, wife of his nephew Charles W. T. Wilson, to be executrix and sole heir. (Strafford County Probate Court Records, file A2649)

8-62+ vii. THEODORE, born about 1860, died in Iowa.

P07-058 DAVID S. O. WILSON (Nathaniel, David, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born at Castine, Maine (VR), on 16 April 1810, oldest of the four children of Nathaniel and Christiana (Gardner) Wilson. He died (GS) 4 March 1861, age 50 years, buried in Castine.

He married probably at Castine, in 1835, MARY ELLEN STEVENS. Her gravestone, adjacent to that of her husband, says she was born 11 October 1811 and died 16 January 1839, daughter of Jonathan L. and Ellen (-----) Stevens.

Despite his being termed "gentleman" in 1835 when he was appointed administrator of his grandfather's estate, we have found surprisingly little information regarding this man. The family was dispersed for the 1850 census which lists the father, a "corker" residing in Bangor, Maine, the son was living with his Wilson grandparents in Castine while the daughter was living elsewhere in Castine.

Children of David S. O. and Mary E. (Stevens) Wilson:

8-63+ i. GEORGE STEVENS, born 1836, died at Portland, 23 July 1902.

8-64 ii. SARAH ELLEN, born about 1838, "only daughter." She died (GS), 3 Sept. 1853, age 15 years, buried with her parents.

P07-059 BENJAMIN JAMES WILSON (Nathaniel, David, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born at Castine, Maine (VR), on 4 September 1811, second of the four children of Nathaniel and Christine (Gardner) Wilson. He died (GS), 27 October 1882, buried in Castine.

His first wife was MARY W. WEBSTER, who was born in New Hampshire about 1824, said to have died in 1853, her grave has not been found.

Benjamin J. Wilson married, as his second wife, ABBEY WASSON HATCH, daughter of James and Lucy (-----) Hatch, of Castine. (Maine, A History, published by The American Historical Society [1919] 2:12) Her gravestone, adjacent to that of her husband, shows she was born at Castine, 11 July 1830, the Castine vital records say she died 4 January 1906, age 75 years, 6 months and 23 days, daughter of James and Ann (sic!) Hatch.

Benjamin had military service in 1839, during the Aroostock Campaign, as a member of the Hancock Guards. (George A. Wheeler, History of Castine, Penobscot and Brooksville, Maine, [1874] page 363) "He was a well known boat builder, and was commissioned as Post Master of Castine near the end of Pierce's presidential term, holding the position until after the close of Buchanan's administration. He represented the class of Castine, Penobscot and Matinicus in the Legislature of 1847 and 1859. He leaves four sons and one daughter." (Obit in Castine Visitor, dated 2 November 1882)

The 1850 census of Castine lists Benjamin Wilson, a boat builder, with his wife Mary W., age 26 years, born in New Hampshire, and their children, Althea, age 5 years; Louis A., age 3 years; and Benjamin, who was aged 3/12 years.

Benjamin J. Wilson, of Castine, was appointed on 26 April 1865, as guardian for Althea Wilson, Louis A. Wilson and Benjamin J. Wilson, Jr., all minors above fourteen years of age, heirs to the estate of Mary Wilson, late of Castine, deceased. The estate included a one-fourth interest in the undivided estate of David Wilson, late of Castine, deceased, including the homestead and sundry parcels on Deer Island and other islands in Penobscot Bay. (Hancock County Probate Court Records, file 2909)

Abigail Wilson of Castine died 4 January 1906, leaving as heirs-at-law two sons, Rufus P. Wilson, of Lynn, Massachusetts, and Edward E. Wilson, of Saco, Maine. Her will, dated 29 March 1901, named her son, Rufus P. Wilson, to be executor and sole heir. (Hancock County Probate Court Records, file 7124)

Children of Benjamin J. Wilson by his first wife, Mary W. (Webster):

8-65 i. ALTHEA, born at Castine (GS), 10 Mar. 1844, died there (VR), 25 Feb. 1899, age 54 years, 11 months and 10 days, "daughter of Benjamin Wilson, boat builder, and Mary (Webster)." Althea did not marry, she is buried at Castine adjacent to her parents.

Althea Wilson, late of Castine, died 25 Feb. 1899. John N. Gardner of Castine was appointed administrator on her estate, 6 June 1899; surety was provided by George M. Warren and Charles H. Hooper. Heirs-at-law and next-of-kin were listed as: Benjamin J. Wilson, brother, of Abington, MA, Edward E. Wilson, brother, of Saco, ME; Rufus P. Wilson, brother, of Lynn, MA; William Wilson, nephew, of Castine; J. G. Wilson, nephew, of Castine, and Abbie W. His first wife was SARAH E. -----. Sarah died 8 September 1858, age 41 years; she is buried with her husband.

John had a second wife, TEMPERANCE S. -----. According to her gravestone in the Castine Cemetery, Temperance was born in 1837 and died during 1924.

John, along with his brother Benjamin, was a member of the Hancock Guards who participated in the Aroostock campaign of 1839. From 1858 to 1860 he served as fourth lieutenant of the Castine Light Infantry. (George A. Wheeler, History of Castine, Penobscot and Brooksville, Maine, [1874] page 363-4)

The 1850 census of Castine lists John B. Wilson, a cooper, age 32 years, with his wife Sarah E., age 31 years, and their children; Harriet A., age 7 years; Caroline E., who was 5 years old; and Sarah B., age 2 years.

On 2 November 1859 the court appointed John B. Wilson of Castine, guardian for Sarah B. Wilson and Caroline E. Wilson, minors under the age of 14 years, children of John B. Wilson, aforesaid. At the same time his brother Benjamin J. Wilson was appointed guardian of Althea Wilson, Lewis A. Wilson and Benjamin J. Wilson, all minors. After the death of his parents, Nehemiah was brought up by his uncle, Ralph Devereaux of Prospect. He was living with his uncle for the 1850 census, age 15 years, born in Maine. Also listed in this household were Horace Wilson, age 13 years, Nancy Wilson, age 12 years, and Martha Wilson, age 8 years. These three listings were in error, they were in fact Devereaux children. The 1880 census lists the widow, Emily Wilson, age 49 years, with her children, Arthur S., age 18 years and Lizzie D., age 13 years, at school. Also living with her was her sister, Hannah Heagan, age 42 years.

Nehemiah Wilson of Prospect, a minor over the age of 14 years, one of the children of John H. Wilson, late of Castine, deceased, on 4 February 1847 chose Ralph Devereaux of Prospect as his guardian, and on 31 March 1851 chose his future father-in-law, Samuel S. Heagan, for this function. Included in Nehemiah's assets was an undivided one-quarter part of a house lot at Northwest Harbor, Deer Isle, Maine. (Waldo County Probate Court Records, case 1751)

Nehemiah Wilson of Prospect died 24 August 1871. His widow, Emily G. Wilson, was appointed administrator but apparently did not act. On 14 September 1886, after Emily's death, John T. Shute was appointed to close out the estate. (Waldo County Probate Court Records, case 5563)

Emily G. Wilson of Prospect signed her will on 16 August 1884, it was presented to the court on 16 Jan. 1885. Mentioned therein was a son, Arthur S. Wilson, who received one half of the homestead, and Lizzie D. Wilson, a minor above the age of 14 years who received the other half. Also a daughter, Mabel S. Shute, wife of John T. Shute whose promissory note, amount not stated, was cancelled by the will. William S. Mills of Stockton was named to be executor, Hannah K. Heagan of Prospect was appointed guardian for Lizzie D. (Waldo County Probate Court Records, case 5600 and 5608)

Children of Nehemiah and Emily G. (Heagan) Wilson:

8-87 i. MABEL S., born circa 1858. She married JOHN T. SHUTE of Prospect.

8-88 ii. MERRILL, born circa 1860, died at age of 5 years.

8-89+ iii. ARTHUR S., born at Prospect 25 Feb. 1862, died at New London, CT, 28 Apr. 1906.

8-90 iv. ELIZABETH DEVEREAUX, born circa 1864. She married J. G. JAMES, of Bangor, ME.

P07-078 EDWARD CHASE WILSON (John, Miles, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born (GS), at Dover, New Hampshire, 19 February 1815, oldest of the four children of John and Lydia (Chase) Wilson. He died at Brookline, Massachusetts, 19 April 1893.

According to York County Marriage Returns Prior to 1892, Maine Genealogical Society Special Publication No. 13, page 147, Edward C. Wilson, of Springfield, married on 15 June 1841, at South Berwick, EMELINE T. BRIGGS. This is incorrect, her gravestone, adjacent to that of her husband in Forest Hills Cemetery, Boston, says she was EMELINE FULLER GRIGGS, born at Needham, Massachusetts, on 17

November 1819, daughter of ----- and Sarah (Fuller) Griggs, who is buried in the same plot. Emeline survived her husband by sixteen years and died 30 December 1909.

"The family removed from Dover, New Hampshire to Brunswick, Maine, and thence to South Berwick, where at a very early age Mr. Wilson commenced his business career. About the year 1840 he removed to Springfield, Massachusetts, where, although but twenty-five years old, he opened the largest dry goods store then to be found in the western part of the state. Relinquishing this business in 1849, he removed to Boston, where he found a wider scope for his business activity, and became a member of the firm of Turner, Wilson & Co., wholesale dealers in dry goods, subsequently Wilson, Hamilton & Co."

The 1850 census shows him residing in Brookline, a merchant, age 33 years, born in New Hampshire, with his wife, Emeline G., age 30 years, born in Massachusetts, and three children; William G., age 8 years, Lydia M., age 5 years, and Emma F., who was 1 year old, all born in Massachusetts.

In 1866 Edward retired from active business life. He maintained his home in Brookline and his active association with the Baptist religion while for many years he and Emeline travelled extensively in Europe. He joined the New England Historic Genealogical Society in 1865 and retained his membership therein until his death. (Obituary in NEH&G Register, 47[1893]:372)

Edward Chase Wilson of Brookline died, testate, 19 April 1893, leaving a very large estate. Heirs-at-law were listed as the widow Emeline G. Wilson, a son William G. Wilson of New York City, two daughters Lilly M. Wilson and Anne E. Wilson, both of Brookline, also Margaret Dexter, Wilson Chase Dexter and Wallace Dunbar Dexter, the three children of his daughter Lizzie C., deceased wife of Wallace D. Dexter. Also mentioned in the will were Sarah Potter, his wife's niece, and his two namesakes, a grandson, by his son William G. Wilson, and a nephew, by his deceased brother William W. Wilson. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 29511)

The widow Emeline G. Wilson signed her will in July of 1896, codicils were added on 23 February 1901, 5 May 1904 and 23 July 1907. She left bequests to several friends and employees, to her niece Sarah M. Potter, and to her grandchildren Virginia C. Erdman, Margaret C. Wilson, Margaret Dexter, Wilson Chase Dexter, Wallace Dunbar Dexter, and Malcolm Sands Wilson. The remainder of her estate was to be divided between her three children, William G. Wilson, Lydia M. Wilson and Annie E. Wilson, who were also to act as executors. The two girls declined to serve, by 26 June 1910 when the inventory was allowed by the court, William G. Wilson, the former executor, was deceased. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 45051)

He died at Brookline, Massachusetts, on 8 October 1891.

He married LOUISE EVERITT, who was born (GS) 13 September 1837, and died 27 January 1893. She is buried with her husband.

Lydia W. Wilson, Emma Wilson, Elizabeth Wilson, and Annie Wilson, the four daughters of his brother, Edward C. Wilson. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 28323)

Children of William W. and Louise (Everitt) Wilson:

8-96 i. EDWARD C., born 3 July 1864. In 1891 he was living in Rainbow, a hamlet in Windsor, CT. On 5 June 1934 he was interred in the family plot in Forest Hills Cemetery. His wife, GRACE K. -----, was buried in the same plot on 24 Apr. 1967, there is no stone for her.

P07-082 JOSEPH WOODBURY WILSON (Joseph, Miles, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born at Wells, Maine on 26 August 1831, eldest of the known children of Joseph and Mary Ann (Clark) Wilson.

On 31 August 1856, Joseph W. Wilson, a machinist, age 25 years, born at Wells, Maine, son of Joseph Wilson, married at Cummington, Massachusetts (VR), SOPHIA L. MEEKINS, age 22 years, born at Goshen, Massachusetts, daughter of Russell and Sally (Packard) Meekins. Sophia L. Wilson, age 29 years, 3 months and 4 days, born at Goshen, Massachusetts, daughter of Russell and Sarah MAKINS, died at Easthampton, Massachusetts (VR), 21 August 1863. Her gravestone in Main Street Cemetery, Easthampton, shows that she was born 17 May 1834.

For his second wife Joseph married at Easthampton, on 12 January 1864, LAURA A. RUST, who was born there, 12 June 1839, daughter of Daniel and Julia (Parsons) Rust. (Albert D. Rust, History of Rust Family, [1891] page 318) Laura died at Easthampton (VR) (GS), 10 January 1901, she is also buried in Main Street Cemetery.

Joseph was listed with his parents in the 1850 census of Portsmouth, New Hampshire. He was educated in the public schools of Biddeford, Maine, and at Union Academy, Kennebunk, Maine. He was a machinist, first at Biddeford, later at Easthampton. In 1881 he became a partner in the mercantile firm of Rust, Wilson and Co. In Easthampton he served the town as selectman, assessor, town treasurer and town clerk. (One of A Thousand, Biographical Sketches by John C. Rand, [1890] page 662)

Laura A. Wilson of Easthampton, died 10 January 1901, intestate. Administration on her estate was given to her husband, Joseph W. Wilson of Easthampton, on 23 January

1901. Heirs-at-law were listed as Carrie A. McAlpine, of Easthampton, daughter, and Rollin C. Wilson, of Mt. Vernon, New York, son. (Hampshire County Probate Court Records, file 317-42)

Children of Joseph W. Wilson, by his first wife, Sophia L. (Meekins), as given by Rand, op. cit.:

8-99 i. MARY A., born circa 1857.
8-100 ii. S. ELIZABETH, born circa 1860.

Children of Joseph W. and Laura A. (Rust) Wilson:

8-101 iii. CAROLINE (Carrie), born circa 1865. She married ----- McALPINE, of Easthampton.
8-102 iv. ROLLIN C., born circa 1868. In 1901 he was living in Mt. Vernon, Westchester Co., NY.

P07-090 HORACE WILSON (Otis, Henry, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born on 9 December, 1818, at Preston, Chenango County, New York (Rowe VR), first of the eleven children of Otis and Lucy Jane (Brown) Wilson. He died at Mendon, Vermont (VR), on 22 April 1868, age 50 years, 4 months and 13 days.

We find no record of his marriage to ELEANOR REED, who was born in Massachusetts during July of 1823 (calculated). On 10 September 1866 Eleanor Wilson, age 43 years and 2 months, daughter of Ebenezer and Eleanor Reed, died at Woburn, Massachusetts (VR).

The 1850 census of Woburn lists Horace Wilson, age 30 years, born in Vermont, a teamster, with his wife Eleanor, age 27 years, and their daughter Georgiana, age 1 year, who was born in Massachusetts.

The 1870 census shows three of Horace's orphaned children living in Mendon, Vermont with their aunt, Anna M. (P07-095) and her husband Simeon Clark; Georgia Wilson, age 21 years, born in Massachusetts, was a domestic servant, John Wilson, age 18 years, born in Vermont, was a laborer in a sawmill, while Otis Wilson, age 12 years, born in Massachusetts, was attending school. A fourth child, Willie Wilson, age 7 years, born in Massachusetts, was residing in the adjacent home with his cousin, Charles E. Clark and his wife Carrie.

Children of Horace and Eleanor (Reed) Wilson:

8-103 i. JAMES H., born 13 July 1847, at Woburn (VR), died there 31 July 1847.

8-104 ii. GEORGIANA ELEANOR, "GEORGIA," born 30 Oct. 1848, at Woburn (VR). Georgia Wilson, age 48 years, born at Woburn, MA, daughter of Horris and Helena (Reed) Wilson (sic!), married at Rutland, VT (VR), on 7 Jan. 1897, ISRAEL DERAGON. The 1900 census of Rutland lists Ezra Deragon (sic!), a mason, born in Vermont during 1857, of French Canadian parents. He had been married for twenty years (sic!), to Georgia E. Deragon, born during October 1848, in Massachusetts. She was working as a laundress. Georgia never had children. Living with them was their nephew, CHARLES WILSON, who was born in Vermont during May of 1886. We find no clue as to which of her brothers was the father of this boy. Georgia is buried with the family of her brother John in Evergreen Cemetery, Rutland.

8-105+ iii. JOHN B., born 12 Nov. 1851, at Mendon, died 11 Feb. 1927, at Rutland.

8-106 iv. LUCY ANN, born 3 Feb. 1855, at Woburn (VR).

8-107+ v. OTIS HORACE, born about 1859, at Woburn.

8-108+ vi. WILLIAM M., born 24 Nov. 1861, at Woburn.

P07-091 DANIEL CAREY WILSON (Otis, Henry, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Rowe, Massachusetts (VR), on 2 April 1820, second of the eleven children of Otis and Lucy Jane (Brown) Wilson. He died at Rutland, Vermont, 2 April 1893. The record of his death, found at Mendon, Vermont states that Daniel Currier Wilson, widower, age 78 years, born at Salem, New York, son of Otis and Lucy (Brown) Wilson, died at Rutland on 2 April 1893. We find nothing to validate those statements in this account which differ from his birth record at Rowe.

His wife, ALMIRA POLLARD, who according to her death record, was born at Stockbridge, Vermont, on 8 May 1832 (calculated). If this is correct, Almira was twelve years younger than her husband and barely fifteen years of age when her first child was born. Almira Wilson died at Mendon, Vermont (VR), 14 January 1884, age 51 years, 8 months and 6 days, born at Stockbridge, daughter of Warren Pollard.

If, as the records show, Almira was born at Stockbridge, and her first child was also born there, it is probable that she married there as well. However there is no record in Stockbridge of these events, and no listing has been found for the father, the mother, or their daughter in the 1850 census. The 1860 census shows them in Pittsfield, Daniel, a farmer, age 40 years, born in Massachusetts, with his wife Almyra, age 26 years, born in Vermont. Their children were listed as Gillman, age 9 years, Permelia 8, Mary E. 5, Delia 4 and Elijah, who was aged 1 year. We find no sign of the oldest daughter, Millie, nor do we find a listing of the family in the 1870 census. They were in Mendon by 1880 when the census listed him, a farmer, age 60 years, his wife Almira, age 46 years, their daughters Almira, age 16 years and, Permelia, age 28 years.

Children of Daniel C. and Almira (Pollard) Wilson:

8-109 i. MILLIE, born in 1847 (calculated), at Stockbridge. There is no record of her birth, her name does not appear with her siblings on the yearly list of scholars residing in Pittsfield, nor is she found with the family in the 1860 census. The only mention we have found of her is the marriage, at Shrewsbury, VT (VR), on 29 May 1877, of Millie, age 30 years, born at Stockbridge, daughter of Daniel and Almira Wilson, and THOMAS MERRIAM.

8-110+ ii. GILMAN A., born at Pittsfield, 25 Aug. 1850, died at Mendon 9 Dec. 1926.

8-111 iii. PERMELIA, born about 1852, at Pittsfield. She appears to be the Millie (Mealie?), age 19 years, born at Pittsfield, daughter of Daniel C. and Elmira Wilson, who married at Mendon (VR), on 8 Feb. 1872, ALBERT H. FRENCH, age 23 years, a laborer, born at Coventry, VT, son of Samuel F. and Prudence (Head) French, first marriage for each. They separated and he married again in June 1878 (St. Johnsbury, Vermont VR). In the 1880 census Permelia was living at home with her parents, this is the last mention of her that we have found.

8-112 iv. MARY ETTA, born (GS) in 1854, died 1906, buried with two of her children in Parker Cemetery, Mendon. On 23 Oct. 1872, Mary Etta, age 18 years, born at Sherburne, daughter of Daniel and Elmira Wilson, married at Mendon (VR), DANIEL L. WEBSTER, age 21 years, a farmer, born at Plymouth, VT, son of Handel and Soloma Webster, first marriage for each. Children as recorded at Mendon:

a) Caroline Webster, born 15 Mar. 1873.
b) Daniel Webster, born 24 July 1874.
c) Daughter, stillborn, 19 Dec. 1876.
d) Daughter, stillborn, 23 Aug. 1878.

e) Cora Belle Webster, born 3 July 1884, died 24 June 1886, buried with her mother in Parker Cemetery.
f) Maud Irene Webster, born 25 July 1890.
g) Vincent Charles Webster, born 28 July 1888.
h) Newman F. Webster, born 18 Jan. 1887 (calculated), died 22 Sept. 1888, buried with his mother.
i) Cecil Arden Webster, born 31 Jan. 1893.
j) Burnice A. Webster, born 27 July 1896.

8-113 v. DELIA, born 14 May 1856 (calculated), died at Mendon (VR), 30 Apr. 1868, age 11 years, 11 months and 16 days, buried there in Parker Cemetery.

8-114 vi. ELIJAH, born about 1857, died at Mendon (VR), 9 Aug. 1861, age 4 years, buried there in Parker Cemetery.

8-115 vii. GILMAN A., son of Daniel Wilson, was born, 5 Jan. 1859, at Pittsfield (VR). The death of Gilman A., son of Daniel and Elmira Wilson, is recorded at Mendon (VR), 19 Aug. 1862, age 2 years, 7 months and 14 days. Although these appear to be proper listings, we have strong reservations and question whether this individual ever existed. Although there are stones for his two older siblings, one of whom died prior to the death given above, and the other after that date, there is no gravestone for this child. Second, his name does not appear with the family in the 1860 census. Third, there already was a son in this family whose name, Gilman A. Wilson, is found both prior to and subsequent to the foregoing birth and death, not only in the census but also on lists of town scholars and on his marriage certificate which was recorded many years after the death of this child. We can offer no rational explanation.

8-116 viii. ARMINA, born about 1860. The marriage of Armina, age 18 years, daughter of Daniel and Almira (Pollard) Wilson, of Mendon, on 29 Sept. 1877, to FREDERICK PITTS, is recorded at Clarendon, VT. Armina Wilson, age 20 years, born at Mendon, daughter of Daniel and Almira (Pollard), married there (VR), on 2 Apr. 1880, EDWARD TUCKER, age 26 years, a farmer, born at Mendon, son of Nelson and Florence Tucker, his first marriage, second for the bride. Children recorded at Mendon:

a) Louie H. Tucker, born 9 July 1882.
b) Leora Maud Tucker, born 11 Jan. 1886.

8-117 ix. ALMYRA, born 16 June 1864 (IGI). Almyra Wilson, age 18 years (sic!), born at Mendon, daughter of Daniel and Almira (Pollard), married at Ira, VT (VR), on 15 June 1880, CHARLES H. PETERS.

P07-096 HENRY C. WILSON (Otis, Henry, Henry, Henry, Michael, Henry) born at Sherburne, Vermont, fifth of the eleven children of Otis and Lucy Jane (Brown) Wilson; his birth was not recorded. The year of his birth is open to question. The vital records in Pittsfield, Vermont, say he died 21 December 1908, aged 73 years, 11 months and 14 days, which works out to a birth date of 7 January 1835; however his gravestone there, in Village Cemetery, says he was born in 1828. In 1869, for his third marriage, he gave his age as 40 years. The ages given to the census taker for the decennial enumerations further complicate the matter, in 1860 he was listed as age 30 years, ten years later it was 42 years, in 1880 it was 47 years while the 1900 census says he was born during January of 1827. So there it is, depending upon the source, he was born in 1827, 1828, 1829, 1830, 1833 or 1835. As the saying goes you pays your money and you takes your choice.

The name of Henry's first wife, ADDIE GOODNOW, comes from the death record of their son.

The name of his second wife is also questionable. The birth record of their son calls her ELIZABETH PRATT, while the marriage record of their daughter gives her mother's name as ELIZABETH SPAULDING. He is not indexed as heading a family in the 1850 census of Vermont, in 1860 he was living in Mendon, listed as Henry Wilson, carpenter, age 30 years, with his wife Elizabeth, who was age 27 years. With them were his children; George, age 8 years, Harriet, age 4 years, and William, who was age 8/12 years, all being natives of Vermont.

Henry C. Wilson of Sherburne, carpenter, aged 40 years, son of Otis and Lucy, married at Pittsfield, Vermont, on 10 February 1869, MARY JANE (WARDWELL) WARDSWORTH, of Clarendon, age 22 years, born at Rutland, Vermont, daughter of Joseph S. and Sophronia Wardwell. Subsequent records call her JANE M. WILSON. It was the third marriage for the groom, second for the bride. According to the 1900 census Mary Jane was born in Vermont during November of 1847, her gravestone, alongside that of her husband in Village Cemetery, Pittsfield, shows she died in 1935.

In 1870 Henry C., farmer, and Jane E. (sic!) Wilson were living in Sherburne. With them were their children; Frances, age 3 years, and Ella, age 10/12 years. Also his children from previous marriages, Hattie 8, Willie 10, and George H., age 17 years.

By 1880 Henry was residing in Pittsfield, again working at his trade of carpenter. Their children were listed as: Frances, age 13 years, Nancy E. 10 years, the twins, Bert S. and Harry E., age 8 years, Joseph L., 3, and Robert E., age 1 year, all natives of Vermont.

They were still in Pittsfield for the 1900 census which lists Henry Wilson, age 73 years, born during January of 1827, married for 35 years to Jane Wilson, age 52 years, who was born during November of 1847. Jane was the mother of thirteen children of whom seven were then living. Also in the household were their children, Nancy E., born during July 1869, a milliner, Harry S., born during July of 1873, a day laborer, Robert, born during May 1879, a farmer, and Mary A., born during January 1882, at school. It appears that some of Jane's thirteen children were from her first marriage.

An interesting item found on page 506 in volume 3 of Pittsfield Town Records. "VIORA MARIE, of Pittsfield, a minor child, is hereby adopted and made heir-at-law of Mrs. Jane Wilson of Pittsfield, and said adopted person shall not be interfered with in any manner by the undersigned, Robert Brown, said child's parent." (signed) Robert "X" Brown, Mrs. Jane M. Wilson, (dated) 31 Mar. 1906.

Child of Henry C. Wilson by his first wife, Addie (Goodnow):

8-118 i. GEORGE HENRY, born 28 Aug. 1852 (calculated), at Sherburne, died at Pittsford (VR), 4 Sept. 1903, age 51 years and 6 days, "son of Henry C. and Addie (Goodnow).

Children by his second wife, Elizabeth (Pratt):

8-119 ii. ANNETTE D. (NETT D.), born (GS), 19 Jan. 1855, died 9 Feb. 1933. She married at Stockbridge, VT (VR), 9 Nov. 1877, GEORGE BOUTWELL, who was born (GS), 16 Jan. 1854, and died 9 June 1920. They are buried in Maplewood Cemetery, on the common in Stockbridge.

8-120 iii. WILLIAM L., born 12 Aug. 1859, at Mendon (VR), died, 22 June 1922, buried in Riverside Cemetery, Sherburne. On 18 July 1922 Celia E. Estabrook of Sherburne petitioned for administration on the estate of William Wilson, late of Sherburne, who died 22 June 1922, testate. Heirs-at-law were listed as Annette D. Boutwell of Stockton Springs, Vermont, a sister, "also three half-brothers, perhaps some half-sisters." Henry's will, dated 26 Mar. 1906, bequeathed his home farm, 65 acres lying partly in Sherburne and partly in Mendon, to his friend, Mrs. Celia E. Estabrook. (Rutland District Probate Court Records, file 12827) Celia Estabrook and William L. Wilson were apparently friends for many years; the 1900 census of Sherburne lists a household headed by Celia Estabrook, a 68 year old widow. Living with her was William L. Wilson, age 38 years, a boarder.

8-121 iv. HARRIET M., born at Mendon (VR), 11 Aug. 1861. On 26 Feb. 1881, Hattie M., age 19 years, born at Pittsford, daughter of Henry and Lizzie (Spaulding) Wilson, married at Ludlow, VT (VR), PHILLIP BRINN.

Children by his third wife, Mary Jane (Wardwell):

8-122 v. FRANCES, born about 1867, she was living in 1880.

8-123 vi. ELLA N. (NANCY ELLA), born at Sherburne (VR), 5 July 1869, died (GS), 1909, buried with her parents in Village Cemetery, Pittsfield. The 1900 census shows her a milliner, unmarried, living with her parents.

8-124 vii. HARRY E., born 30 July 1873, Sherburne (VR), a twin, living with his parents in 1900.

8-125 viii. BERT SMITH, born 30 July 1873, at Sherburne, a twin, died at Rutland (VR), 1 July 1921.

8-126 ix. Child, stillborn, 14 Mar. 1875, at Sherburne (VR).

8-127 x. JOSEPH E., born 1876 (GS), died 1956, buried with his wife, VIOLET M. -----, in Village Cemetery, Pittsfield.

8-128+ xi. ROBERT ELWIN, born 21 May 1879.

He married LOVINA EVERHART, who, according to the 1850 census was born in New York about 1824. Her death record says she was born at West Danby, New York, daughter of Adam and Charlotte Everhart. Maria was a descendant of Francis Cooke, a passenger on the MAYFLOWER. (Mayflower Index Revised, [1960] 1:659, no. 30,727)

Volney, and his new bride were living with his older brother for the 1850 census of Canton. The 1860 census lists him there, a blacksmith, age 36 years, with his wife Maria E., age 30 years, and their children; Charles C., age 10 years, and Edwin S., age 6 years. The 1870 census shows him still there, age 45 years, his wife age 40 years, and their son E. S., age 15 years, and their daughter, A. L., age 8 years, and another son, V. M., Jr., age 2 years. The 1880 census lists the children as Edward, age 25 years, Louise, age 18 years, and Morill, a son, age 12 years.

An account of the descendants of Volney and Maria is found in an informative conveyance, dated 14 February 1931, preserved in Deeds Book, 377:383, at Bradford County Registry and Recorder's Office. "Louise Fancher and Grover C. Fancher, her husband, Ethel Wilson, unmarried, of City of Elmira, John V. Wilson and Anna E., his wife, of City of Boston, for a consideration of $1.00, sell to Louise W. Mills, of Fall River, Massachusetts, a parcel in Alba, Bradford County, containing five acres of land, being the same originally owned by one Maria E. Wilson under various deeds. The said Maria E. Wilson dying intestate, leaving to survive her four children, to wit, Edwin S. Wilson, V. Morrrell Wilson, Louise W. Mills and Charles C. Wilson, they being the only heirs-at-law of Maria E. When, a few weeks later Louise W. Mills and Asa A. Mills, her husband, and then Henry B. Van Dyne, as guardian to Maria Wilson, sold their interest in this five acre parcel, descendants of the first settler, having the name Wilson, no longer owned land in Alba.

The material which follows, regarding descendants of Volney M. and Maria E. (Slade) Wilson, unless otherwise attributed, comes from the family Bible and other carefully researched records quoted by a descendant, Dorothy Louise Fancher Duggar, of Anchorage, Alaska, in Ancestors and Descendants of Maria Louise Wilson and Grover Cleveland Fancher, [1995].

Children of Volney M. and Maria E. (Slade) Wilson:

His wife SUSAN M. -----, according to the 1900 census of Canton, was born in Pennsylvania in June of 1832. She survived her husband and died 31 January 1920.

The 1860 census of Canton lists Iram Wilson, age 33 years, a farmer, with his wife Susan, age 31 years, and their daughter Effie, who was 7 years old. His name is not found in the 1870 census of Canton, from his father's will we learn that he had received his patrimony and left the county. We find no clue as to where he went, how long he was gone or when he returned.

Iram N. Wilson of Canton, a merchant, died 7 March 1900, intestate, leaving a widow, Susan M. Wilson. She waived her rights so that A. M. Wilson could be appointed administrator. Susan M. Wilson of Canton, widow, signed her will on 13 June 1912; she died 31 January 1920. Susan named her friend, Lotty Miller, widow of the late Carroll E. Miller, deceased, to be executor and sole heir. (Docket 13:89 and 25:414 in Bradford County Registry and Recorder's Office.)

Child of Iram N. and Susan M. (-----) Wilson:

P07-198 COURTLAND S. WILSON (Irad, Noah, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born in Alba Borough, Canton Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania (GS), in 1830, sixth of the thirteen children of Col. Irad Wilson by his first wife, Sally Maria (Elliott). He died at Alba, on 8 January 1916.

Courtland's first wife was HANNAH -----, who was born in Pennsylvania in 1834. She died on 14 October 1892 and is buried with him in Alba Cemetery.

Courtland S. Wilson, a farmer, age 63 years, married at Canton, on 29 December 1894, a widow, ELIZABETH (BATTISON) CRANDALL, of Alba, age 44 years, daughter of Alison and Susan Battison. (Marriage Licenses, 10:44, at Bradford County Registry and Recorder's Office)

We find no record of Courtland's third marriage, this to ANNA -----, who survived him.

The 1860 census of Canton lists C. S. Wilson, a farmer, age 28 years, with his wife Hannah, age 25 years, and their daughters, Sally A., age 6 years, and Helen, age 4 years. In the 1870 census Sally was missing and Helen was listed as Nellie. The 1880 census shows the household as Courtland, age 49 years, a farmer, Hannah, age 45 years, and their daughter Lotte L, age 9 years.

C. S. Wilson of Alba Borough signed his will on 11 August 1915, he died on 8 January 1916. He listed his debts of $879.46 to his daughter Charlotte L. Burwell, and $1,000.00 to his brother A. D. Wilson. His executors were also to pay the expenses he owed to his daughter Charlotte, "for the trips she made to see me during my dying sickness." His remaining estate, after paying these debts, was to be paid one-third to his daughter Charlotte L. Burwell, one-third to his daughter Nellie Dyer, and the other third to the heirs of his deceased daughter Sallie Henry, viz.: Lizzie Smith, Lena Henry, Paul Henry and Donald Henry, children of Sallie Henry, and to Marjorie Carner and Muriel Carner, grandchildren of Sallie Henry, deceased. His sons-in-law, W. J. Burrell and James Henry, were named to be executors. (Docket, 22:35, in Bradford County Register and Recorder's Office)

Anna Wilson, widow of Courtland S. Wilson, deceased, on 28 February 1916, refused to take under the will of her late husband, and insisted upon her right to take as widow of said decedent under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. (Deeds, 327:268, in Bradford County Registry and Recorder's Office)

All indications are that Courtland's declining years were far from happy. He had buried the mother of his children. He was deeply in debt. He knew he was terminally ill at least nine months before his death. During his final sickness he agreed to pay his daughter's travel expenses so she would come to visit him. His relationship with his wife was so bad that he ignored her when making his will.

Living with them was E. H. Manley, age 23 years, born in Pennsylvania, soon to be the husband of Allen's sister Emma.

For his second wife Allen married, about 1866, FRANCES J. MUNN, who was born in May of 1847. She was listed with him in the 1870 census of Alba, F. J. Wilson, age 28 years (sic!), born in New York. Marie Wilson, single, of Canton Borough, on 31 Mar. 1930, for the consideration of $1.00, conveyed to Orris and Blanche Bailey, of Canton, two small parcels of land. (Deeds Book, 414:479, at Bradford County Registry and Registrar's Office)

P07-205 ADDISON D. WILSON (Irad, Noah, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born in Alba Borough, Canton Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania (GS), 19 April 1847, youngest of the thirteen children of Col. Irad Wilson by his first wife, Sally Maria (Elliott). He died intestate, on 21 June 1925, and is buried in Alba Cemetery.

In 1867 he married ELIZA L. LINDLEY, who was born (GS), 1 January 1848, daughter of Joseph and Lavinia B. (Manley) Lindley. Eliza died, 21 May 1940, and was buried with her husband.

The 1870 census of Canton lists Addison Wilson, age 23 years, a carpenter, with his wife Eliza, age 22 years, and their daughter Marion, age 11/12 years, all born in Pennsylvania. The 1880 census lists the children as Marilun, age 10 years, Ora, age 5 years, and Josie, age 2 years.

We are puzzled as to why Addison was not given the same $300.00 legacy his siblings received in their father's will. Even if we assume the house he received was valued at $300.00, why was it given to the daughter-in-law and not to the son?

Later relationships within this family are confirmed by a conveyance dated 3 October 1925, whereby Marion Reynolds and Walter N. Reynolds, her husband, of Canton Borough, and Ora Packard and Arthur Packard, her husband, of Troy Township, for a consideration of $1.00 quitclaimed to Eliza L. Wilson of Canton Borough, all right, title and interest in two parcels of land in Canton Borough, being the same conveyed by Mary Louise Webb to Addison D. Wilson by deed dated 10 March 1914. The said Marion Reynolds and Ora Packard are the sole heirs and the said Eliza L. Wilson is the widow of said Addison D. Wilson, who died intestate. (Deeds Book, 317:263, at Bradford County Registry and Registrar's Office)

Children of Addison D. and Eliza L. (Lindley) Wilson:

8-207 i. FRANCES MARION, usually known as MARION WILSON, she was born (GS), 12 Aug. 1869, died 19 Aug. 1959, buried in Alba Cemetery with her husband and parents. She gave her age as 30 years, on 7 Nov. 1900, when she married at Alba (VR), WALTER NELSON REYNOLDS, a farmer, age 27 years, son of G. H. and Celia Reynolds. (Marriage Licenses, 13:322, at Bradford County Registry and Registrar's Office) Walter's gravestone says he was born 31 Aug. 1872 and died 6 Mar. 1959.

P07-207 IRA G. WILSON (Iram, Noah, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born 7 December 1821, at Alba Borough, Canton Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, oldest of the six known children of Iram and Hannah (Grantier) Wilson. Ira G. Wilson died 22 August 1908, in Marion Township, Linn County, Iowa. He is buried there, with his wife, in Oak Shade Cemetery.

He married, 12 September 1850, EVA MONTGOMERY, who was born 17 May 1833, in Decatur County, Indiana, daughter of George and Elizabeth (Jackson) Montgomery. (History of Linn County, Iowa, Western Historical Company, publishers, [1878] page 535, 650)

Ira removed to Peoria County, Illinois in 1839. In December of 1839 he was working as flagman in the first survey party in Linn County, Iowa. He occupied his farm of 100 acres in Marion Township in 1841.

Ira Wilson, a farmer, age 48 years, born in Pennsylvania, is listed in the 1870 census of Marion Township. His wife, Eve (sic!), age 37 years, was born in Maryland (sic!). They had four children, Sarah, age 17 years, Ard (sic!), age 15 years, and the twins, George and Georgianna, age 12 years, all born in Iowa.

P07-211 ROBERT L. WILSON (Iram, Noah, Michael, Henry, Michael, Henry) born about 1839, probably in Linn County, Iowa, fifth of the six known children of Iram and Hannah (Grantier) Wilson.

His wife, CINDERELLA -----, was born in Iowa about 1846.

Our only information regarding this man comes from the Iowa census. In 1850 he was living with his parents. In 1870 he was living in the City of Marion, Linn County, listed as Robert Wilson, age 30 years, born in Iowa, a retired dry goods merchant, with his wife Cinderella, age 24 years, and their children, Jessie, age 3 years, and Horace, age 1 year, all born in Iowa. He is afain listed, age 30 years, born in Ohio, a music dealer, living with the same wife and children.

Children of Robert L. and Cinderella (-----) Wilson:

8-215 i. JESSIE, daughter, born about 1867.
8-216 ii. HORACE, born about 1869.

P07-225 CYRUS WILSON (Asa, Samuel, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Dover, Massachusetts (VR), 17 February 1811, oldest of the eight children of Asa and Patty (Blyn) Wilson. He died at Providence, Rhode Island (VR), 30 March 1849.

He married at Hartford, Connecticut (VR), 23 August 1836, LYDIA ANN CLARK. The death record of her son says the mother was born in Medway, Massachusetts.

The 1850 census of Cumberland, Rhode Island, lists Lydia A. Wilson, a widow, age 40 years, born in Massachusetts, with her children, Eugene, age 7 years, and Buchanan, age 3 years, both natives of Rhode Island. Also residing in the household was Lucy Tarbox, age 42 years, born in Massachusetts.

Children of Cyrus and Lydia A. (Clark) Wilson:

8-217 i. EUGENE, born about 1843, in Rhode Island.
8-218 ii. BUCHANAN, born 19 Apr. 1847 (calculated). The death on 25 Oct. 1863, of Buchanan Wilson, a soldier, age 16 years, 6 months and 6 days, born at Richmond, RI, son of Cyrus and Lydia Ann Wilson, is recorded at Wrentham.

P07-227 ASA WILSON (Asa, Samuel, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Medfield, Massachusetts (VR), on 19 April 1814, third of the eight children of Asa and Patty (Blyn) Wilson. He died 30 March 1893, at Burrillville, Rhode Island.

He married first, intention recorded at Wrentham, on 27 July 1834, JULIA A. WHITE. Either this marriage was never consummated or Julia soon died, as Asa married again less than 13 months later.

The marriage of Asa Wilson, Jr. and AMANDA HATTEN, of Franklin, on 25 August 1835, is recorded at Medway, Massachusetts. According to census listings, she was born in Massachusetts about 1818. The death of Amanda Wilson, on 27 January 1897, age 79 years, is recorded at Scituate, Rhode Island, where her son Elliot was buried in 1900. This entry appears to match this woman, however the record continues, "daughter of Asa and Hannah Wilson," which, if correct, would rule her out.

Asa was a mason who, following the demand for men of his trade, moved from town to town at frequent intervals. He was in Waltham, Massachusetts in 1839, and Hopkinton, Massachusetts 1844-5. By 1850 he was in Newton, Massachusetts where the census lists Asa Wilson, age 36 years, and his wife Amanda, age 32 years. Their children were listed as Ellen 15, Martha 13, Lewis 11, Elliot 7, Albert 5 and George, age 2 years, all born in Massachusetts. Also living with them was Eliza Fisher, age 36 years and John Fisher, age 15 years.

Asa Wilson, a stone mason, age 51 years, is listed in the 1865 census of Warwick, Rhode Island, with his wife Amanda, age 47 years. Also living with them was Maria Cranston, age 28 years, Arthur Wilson, age 27 years, and George Wilson, age 18 years, all born in Massachusetts. We believe that Maria and Arthur are probably children of Asa and Amanda, and have listed them thus even though they do not appear with this family in the 1850 census of Newton, Massachusetts.

Children of Asa Wilson, all by his second wife, Amanda (Hatten):

8-219 i. ELLEN, born about 1835.

8-220 ii. MARTHA, born about 1837. Could she be MARIA CRANSTON, listed in the 1865 census?

8-221 iii. Possibly ARTHUR, born about 1838.

8-222+ iv. LEWIS B., born 9 May 1839 at Waltham, died 5 May 1864, at West Warwick, RI.

His gravestone in Scituate, RI, gives his age as 56 years and 14 days, and adds that he had service during the Civil War in Company A, 2nd Rhode Island Volunteers.

8-224 vi. ALBERT B., born 1 Sept. 1845, at Hopkinton (VR).

8-225 vii. GEORGE, born about 1848. The death, on 9 Jan. 1876, age 28 years, of George, son of Asa and Amanda Wilson, is recorded at Woonsocket, RI.

P07-230 SAMUEL WILSON (Asa, Samuel, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born at Medfield, Massachusetts (VR), on 9 May 1823, sixth of the eight children of Asa and Martha (Blyn) Wilson.

The marriage of Samuel Wilson, a shoemaker, age 22 years, son of Asa and Martha, on 17 March 1846, to LUCY P. SANDERS, age 20 years, daughter of John and Sophronia, is recorded at Georgetown, Massachusetts.

The 1850 census of Georgetown lists Samuel Wilson, age 27 years, a shoemaker, with his wife Lucy, age 25 years, and their daughters, Lucy M., age 2 years, and Martha S., age 25 days.

Children of Samuel and Lucy P. (Sanders) Wilson:

8-226 i. LUCY M., born at Georgetown (VR), 13 Dec. 1847.

8-227 ii. MARTHA S., born 3 Aug. 1850, also at Georgetown.

P07-231 LOWELL G. WILSON (Asa, Samuel, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born 26 March 1825, at Medfield, Massachusetts (VR), seventh of the eight children of Asa and Martha (Blyn) Wilson.

His wife, HANNAH M. -----, according to her son's death record, was born in Woolwich, Maine.

The vital records of Haverhill, Massachusetts note that on 28 September 1845, Willard Wilson, Jr., age 20 years, a shoemaker, son of Asa and Martha, married MARY B. SARGENT, age 30 years, daughter of John and Anna Sargent.

Mary B. Sargent, born 21 October 1813 at Haverhill, Massachusetts, daughter of John and Anna (Livingston) Sargent, married on 28 September 1845, William (sic!) Wilson of Haverhill. They removed to Troy, Delaware County, Ohio, where they had children. (Edwin E. Sargent, Sargent Record, [1899] page 142)

He married at Shrewsbury, Massachusetts (VR), on 20 April 1840, MIRIAM NEWTON, daughter of Dana and Miriam (Smith) Newton. (Ermina N. Leonard, Descendants of Richard Newton, [1915] page 569)

George W. Wilson and his wife, together with their two oldest children, were living in Worcester, Massachusetts for the 1850 census, his occupation was given as "clicker." Also living with him was his sister, Emily Wilson.

The 1860 census of Ward 6, Worcester, Massachusetts lists George W. Wilson, age 48 years, a boot clicker, with his wife Marion, age 43 years, and their daughter, Emily A. Wilson, age 15 years.

This listing cancels and replaces the original listing for this family, incorrectly shown as J06-308 in Descendants of John Wilson of Woburn, Massachusetts.

8-236 i. ALVAH ELLIOT, born at Shrewsbury, MA (VR), 6 Nov. 1840, died at Worcester (VR), 13 Feb. 1856, age 15 years, 3 months and 7 days.

His wife was JENNETTE -----.

Silas is first noted in May of 1857 when Silas Wilson, of New Jersey, was listed as one of the heirs of Enoch Wilson, deceased. (Norfolk County Probate Court Records, file 20573)

He was back in Massachusetts in July of 1862 when he enlisted for three years service in Company A, 35th Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. He was wounded at the battle of South Mountain, was then taken prisoner and confined at Richmond. When the Confederates paroled him Silas was given a disability discharge. (Mortimore Blake, History of Franklin, Massachusetts, [1879] page 133)

The marriage, on 20 January 1850, of Charles C. Wilson and NANCY MARIA BENHAM, both of Wrentham, is recorded in the adjacent town of Cumberland, Rhode Island. Robert H. McIntire, on page 236 of his book Descendants of Philip McIntire, [1982] says Nancy was born at Jericho, Vermont, daughter of Judge Silas and Elizabeth (Humphrey) Benham. The 1900 census of Kewanee tends to verify McIntire's account by noting that Nancy was born in Vermont in February of 1827.

Charles Wilson in 1850 went west to Illinois, settling first in Peoria, Peoria County, in 1853 he removed to Toulon, Stark County, and later to Bureau, Bureau County. In 1859 he was admitted to the bar and established a lucrative practice in Kewanee. In 1864 he was elected District Attorney for the Fifth Judicial District, an office he held for four years. In 1868 President Johnson appointed him to be Chief Justice for the Supreme Court of Utah Territory, an office he filled with admirable ability and integrity. In August of 1870 he resigned this post and returned to his home in Kewanee. (Biographical Encyclopedia of Illinois, [1875] Galaxy Publishing Co., page 348)

Our table shows the ages for members of this family as they appear in the decennial census of Kewanee. Theoretically the census is taken as of June 1st, therefore all ages should increase by exactly ten years in each decade. The variations from this norm, as listed, below illustrate the frustrations experienced in attempting to obtain accurate genealogical data, even when a so-called primary source is used.

	1870	1880	1900	1910	Birth*
Charles	42	52	73	82	1/27
Nancy M.	42	52	73	82	2/27

George	5	14	28	--	10/71
Eddie	3	12	33	--	2/67

*Month and year of birth from the 1900 census.

The 1900 census shows that five of the children had left home. The couple had been married for fifty years, had seven children, all of whom were then living. The father, a lawyer, was born in Massachusetts; both of his parents being natives of Maine. (sic!) His wife was born in Vermont; both of her parents were natives of that state.

After a liberal payment of expenses to Turner, the remainder of William's estate, including his surveying instruments, went to the Town of Gilsum. (Cheshire County Probate Court Records, file 3121)

P08-005 CHARLES JOHNSON WILSON (Eseck, Joel, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) born 9 April 1846, at Gilsum, New Hampshire (VR), youngest of the five children of Eseck Thurber Wilson, the second by his second wife, Mary Jane (Randall) Johnson. He died at Atchinson, Atchinson County, Kansas, on 3 April 1922. (Frank B. Kingsbury, History of Surry, New Hampshire, [1925] page 717)

He married, on 14 October 1871, at Sullivan, New Hampshire (VR), MARIA SOPHIA OSGOOD. Maria was his first cousin, born there, on 13 August 1850, daughter of Roswell and Sophia (Johnson) Osgood. (Rev. Josiah L. Seward, History of Sullivan, New Hampshire, [1917] page 1288)

Charles served during the Civil War as private in Co. H, Fifth New Hampshire Infantry. He was mustered into service on 6 October 1863, and transferred to the U. S. Navy on 22 April 1864. His wartime service, which differs somewhat from that given by Kingsbury, above, is listed on page 197 of A History of the Fifth Regiment, New Hampshire Volunteers, [1893], by Dr. William D. Child.

About 1876 Charles and Maria removed from New Hampshire to Atchinson. They are both noted as living there in 1914.

Only child of Charles J. and Maria S. (Osgood) Wilson:

9-2 i. MINNIE MARY, born in December of 1877, at Atchinson. She died there, unmarried, on 16 Jan. 1907.

P08-014 JOHN QUINCY ADAMS WILSON (Davis, Joel, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) was born 5 November 1825, at Gilsum, New Hampshire (VR), only son of Davis Howlett and Annis (Barnes) Wilson. He died 19 April 1890, age 64 years, 5 months and 14 days, at Swanzey, New Hampshire (VR). John is buried in Mt. Caesar Cemetery, Swanzey.

He married, at Rockingham, Vermont (VR), on 20 April 1846, SARAH E. WHITCOMB, who was born at Swanzey, on 30 September 1826, daughter of Joseph and Sally (Whitcomb) Whitcomb. (Silvanus Hayward, History of Gilsum, New Hampshire, [1881] page 421; also Benjamin Read, History of Swanzey, New Hampshire, [1892] page 486) Sarah E. Wilson, daughter of Joseph Whitcomb, died at Keene, New Hampshire (VR), 27 February 1904.

In the record of her marriage she is called Sarah Eliza Whitcomb; this middle name may not be correct. In 1890, when acting as administrator on her husband's estate, she used the name ELVIRA S. WILSON, and signed her name this way on all documents involved in this probate. At the time of her death, as previously noted, her name had reverted to Sarah E. Wilson.

John and Sarah were listed as living with his parents in the 1850 census of Ashburnham, Massachusetts. The 1870 census shows the family residing in East Swanzey, John L., a pail turner, age 49 years, born in New York (sic!), with his wife Sarah E., age 43 years, born in New Hampshire, and their daughters, Mary E., age 19 years, born in New York, and Lena M. (sic!), age 10 years, born in New Hampshire. The 1880 census corrects several of the earlier errors, listing, John Q. A. Wilson, a pail turner, age 54 years, with his wife Sarah E., age 52 years, and their daughter, Gertrude L., age 19 years, all born in New Hampshire.

John Q. A. Wilson served from Swanzey during the Civil War. He was mustered into the Eighteenth New Hampshire Infantry on 13 September 1864, and detailed as a member of the regimental band. He was mustered out of service on 10 June 1865. (Benjamin Read, History of Swanzey, New Hampshire, [1892] page 142)

Elvira S. Wilson, widow, petitioned, on 16 May 1890, to be appointed administrator on the estate of John Q. A. Wilson, of Swanzey, lately deceased, intestate. The file shows that John, in addition to his widow, left Lillian D. Sebastian and Gertrude L. Farr, children of said deceased. (Cheshire County Probate Court Records, file 1418)

Children of John Q. A. and Elvira S. (Whitcomb) Wilson:

9-3 i. MARY E., born about 1851, died before 1900.

He was mustered into the Fourteenth New Hampshire Infantry, on 22 Sept. 1862, and mustered out, with the rank of corporal, on 8 July 1865. (Benjamin Read, History of Swanzey, New Hampshire, [1892] pp. 445 and 546) This service can not be verified in the published records of this regiment which, incidentally, was commanded by Col. Robert (K04-304) Wilson of Keene.

Simonds, History of the Simonds Family, [1985] page 145) They had one child:

Gertrude married, on 30 Nov. 1889, as her second husband, WALTER P. FARR. (Read, op. cit., pp. 337 and 499) Walter was born at Putney, VT (VR), on 4 June 1866, son of Henry J. and Sarah E. (Wright) Farr. The 1900 census of Swanzey lists Walter P. Simonds, a step-son, born in 1883, and Marion M. Farr, a daughter, born in October 1892; also Sarah E. He married, on 4 May 1852, at Waterloo, SARAH J. HAIGH.

William, like his father, was active in the business and political affairs of Waterloo. He was listed there in 1862 and 1866 as a distiller; in August 1879 as founder of the Wilson Yeast & Manufacturing Co., and as treasurer of the Empire Order of Mutual Aid. (John C. Becker, History of Waterloo, Seneca County, New York, [1949] pp. 66, 176, 228 and 238)

New Hampshire, on 30 March 1828, daughter of Alvin and Eunice (Gleason) Chickering. (History of Westmoreland, New Hampshire, [1976] page 375)

Eunice survived her husband by many years. After his death she disposed of the ranch and in 1899 built a beautiful two and a half story house in the town. She died there on 3 July 1910.

Horace Wilson, age 28 years, a farmer, born in New Hampshire, his wife Eunice E., age 21 years, and their children Charles A., age 2 years and Dan, age 1 year, are listed in the 1850 census of Swanzey, New Hampshire. His mother, Lavina Wilson, age 54 years, was living with them, as well as his siblings, Sarah A. 17, Lydia A. 15. The three boys, Dorson 26, Dan 24, and Albert 21, were working as masons.

Like his siblings Horace learned the bricklayer's trade from their father. He worked at this trade in Cheshire County for nearly twenty years before deciding to join his brothers in California. Horace and Eliza, with their three infant children and his widowed mother, left New Hampshire early in November of 1853. They had a unusually fast trip, crossing the isthmus at Nicaragua and arriving in California less than a month later. They joined his brother Dorson in Old Gilroy, Santa Clara County.

Getting a start by working at his trade of mason, he soon branched out. From a small beginning he developed an extensive cattle business, understanding well his occupation and becoming known as one of the principal stock men in his neighborhood. Industrious and frugal, he not only made but saved money. He acquired a large ranch at Paicines, San Benito County, which he soon sold. He then bought eleven hundred acres of land east of Gilroy, not far from Hot Springs.

He resided in a large brick mansion he had constructed, situated in the center of the classic little town of San Ysidro. In 1860 both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson united with the Presbyterian church. Horace was very interested in horticulture, his homestead was beautifully landscaped and he was an active member of the Horticultural Society. He never occupied any political office. (History of Santa Clara County, California, Alley, Bowen & Co., publishers, [1881] page 636)

The 1850 census of Swanzey lists Dorson Wilson, a mason, living with several siblings and his widowed mother. This listing is incorrect, Dorson and his brother Dan had gone to California to mine gold. They left Boston, on 31 March 1849, on board the bark EMMA ISADORA, a Mediterranean fruiter. The ship being owned by the seventy men on board, Capt. McHenry in charge. It must have been a clumsy old vessel, they were 49 days in making Rio de Janeiro, another 49 days from there around the Horn to Valparaiso, and 66 days from the latter place to San Francisco.

Dorson relates; "We arrived in San Francisco, September 12, 1849. Stayed in that city about a week, then took our ship up to Stockton, where we sold the vessel, divided up according to shares of ownership and dissolved the partnership. We all struck out for the mines, brother Dan and I and some of the company headed to the Mariposa Mines. Reached there by mule pack train in eight days, footing it all the way, 150 miles. We paid twenty-five cents a pound for our freight. I mined there until May of 1850, then went down the Merced and San Joaquin Rivers in a small boat to Stockton. Then, in the company of two brothers by the name of Bradford, I bought a lot of groceries and hired an ox team and started for the so-called Camp Sonora, sixty miles distant. I stayed there until July fourth, then started for San Francisco in a French sloop. Landed at Alviso, walked to Santa Clara and then to Pueblo San Jose where I worked at my trade through the winter.

"San Jose was a very small town. I built a small brick school house in Santa Clara, it may still be standing. I got timber in what was called Jones' Redwood, and built me a small house in San Jose. The winters of '50 and '51 were very dry. In January of 1851 I was attracted to old Gilroy by the great numbers of wild geese which I was fond of hunting. There were very few Americans here, all were Spanish and Indians. No business was done except in the raising of stock and trading with the Spaniards."

The 1880 census of Gilroy Township lists Dorson Wilson, a farmer, age 55 years, born in New Hampshire, with his wife Mary, age 45 years, born in Kentucky. Living with them was his mother, Lavina Wilson, age 83 years, also their children: Oscar, age 20 years; William, age 16 years; Ellen M., age 12 years; Annie L., age 10 years; Mattie E., age 8 years; and Hattie B., who was 3 years old. All the children were born in California.

His obituary appeared in the Santa Clara Telegram, of 27 January 1902. It relates that after their marriage in 1855 Dorson and Mary prospered, acquiring land and cattle and successfully trading with the Spaniards. During the dry year of 1864, when they were forced to slaughter their cattle, Dorson gave up the cattle business and ever since worked at his trade of brick mason. They had two sons, Oscar and William, and six daughters, Mrs. Fidelia White, Mrs. Mary Dexter, Mrs. Mattie Fife and Mrs. Hattie Peck, all of San Ysidro, Mrs. Ella Brown of Rucker and Mrs. Annie Sawyer of Soquel. All married and had families except William. Dorson survived his wife by six years. He had two brothers and two sisters surviving him: Dan of San Juan, Albert of San Feliipe, Mrs. Eamess of Chico, and Mrs. Carlon Aldrich of Illinois. He was 77 years and 6 months old and was buried in the Masonic and Odd Fellows Cemetery.

P08-049 DANIEL WILSON (Charles, Ephraim, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) usually known as DAN WILSON, he was born at Swanzey, New Hampshire (VR), on 22 January 1827, fourth of the seven children of Charles and Lavina (Collins) Wilson. He died on 17 April 1906, at San Juan Bautista, San Benito County, California.

He married first, at San Juan Bautista, on 24 March 1854, VINCENTA SANCHEZ, the fifteen year old daughter of Don Jose and Maria (Ortega) Sanchez. In July of 1866, after twelve years of marriage, they divorced.

For his second wife Dan married, at Santa Cruz, Santa Cruz County, California, on 13 July 1868, MALVINA WESTON SMITH.

Dan and his brother Dorson Wilson arrived in San Francisco, from Boston, on 12 September 1849, after a trip of 164 days aboard the bark EMMA ISADORA. It is related that one evening in 1852 Dan stopped to make camp on the banks of the Pajaro River, just south of the Sanchez hacienda. Don Sanchez rode out and insisted that no one stopped on his ranch but guests, and invited young Wilson to the hacienda. This was the beginning of his relationship with the Sanchez family. During the rest of that year and all of the next Dan was employed on the estate at the Llamo de Tesquesquita, or Soap Ranch. After the death of Don Sanchez his widow instructed Wilson to carry on the soap making, trading with the Yankee Clipper at Monterey, and making an accounting when he had money matters with the estate. This he did very well.

All the children of Dan Wilson by his two wives were born at San Juan Bautista.

P08-050 ALBERT WILSON (Charles, Ephraim, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) was born 10 March 1829, at Swanzey, New Hampshire (VR), fifth of the seven children, and youngest son, of Charles and Lavina (Collins) Wilson. He died at Gilroy, Santa Clara County, California, on 15 September 1904.

He married at Shaw's Flat, Tuolumne County, California, on 12 March 1856, ELIZA JANE HILDEBRANDT. Eliza was born in Mount Auburn, Shelby County, Indiana, daughter of A. W. Hildebrandt, a native of Ohio, who migrated across the plains to California in 1853.

Albert finished his education at the academy in West Brattleboro, Vermont. He then spent three years with his brother Hiram, in Randolph, Massachusetts, where he learned the trade of brick mason. He is listed, living alone, in the 1850 census of Braintree, Massachusetts.

He sailed from New York on 9 January 1852, walking across the Isthmus of Panama and arriving in San Francisco 15 February 1852. For the next four years he prospected for gold in the vicinity of Shaw's Flat.

The day after their marriage Albert and his bride came to Santa Clara County, settling on a ranch on the Pacheco Pass Road, nine miles from Gilroy, in what is known as the San Felipe district. The following year he rented the adjoining ranch, which he eventually purchased, adding to it until at the time of his death he owned over six hundred acres. He made a specialty of dairying, keeping about one hundred head of cattle, and having a factory in which he manufactured cream cheese. He had another 160 acres of land in Fresno County, near Del Ray, on which he raised alfalfa, fruit and grapes.

He is listed in the 1880 census of Gilroy Township, A. Wilson, a farmer, age 52 years, born in New Hampshire, with his wife, E. J. Wilson, age 42 years, born in Indiana, and their three sons, Carlon R., age 22 years, Fred W., age 19 years, and Charlie S., age 12 years, all born in California. We can be assured that this family was carefully listed, the census marshall for the area was Carlon R. Wilson.

Albert and Eliza are also listed in the 1900 census of San Felipe Precinct, Gilroy Township. They had been married for 45 years, their youngest son was living with them. Albert's occupation is given as "landlord."

George lived his entire life in Malone, working first as superintendent of McMillan Woolen Mills, later, from 1910 to 1923, he served as superintendent of the Malone Water Works. (Harry F. Landon, History of the North Country, [1932] page 1246)

His wife KATE E. -----, was born in January of 1850, a native of Pennsylvania.

The 1900 census of Boone City, Des Moines Township, Boone County, Iowa lists W. T. Wilson, a dry goods merchant, born in May 1848, a native of Maine, heading a household with his wife Kate E., born in January 1850, a native of Pennsylvania. They had been married for 21 years. She was the mother of two children, only one was then living.

Children of William T. and Kate E. (-----) Wilson:

9-65 i. Child, born circa 1880.
9-66 ii. Child, born circa 1883.

P08-059 Hon. EDWARD TALPEY WILSON (Theodore, Theodore, Jonathan, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born (GS), 5 September 1853, at York, Maine, fourth of the seven children of Maj. Theodore and Elizabeth S. (Talpey) Wilson. He died (GS), 7 January 1947, buried with his two wives in Pine Grove Cemetery, Farmington, New Hampshire.

He married at Farmington (VR), 5 September 1883, MARY EMMA HAYES, who was born there, 2 May 1864, daughter of Ezekiel C. and Lydia H. (Tarleton) Hayes. (Katharine F. Richmond, John Hayes of Dover, New Hampshire, [1936] page 655) Mary E. (Hayes) Wilson died in the hospital at Exeter, New Hampshire (VR), 23 March 1904, buried with her husband. Her parents are buried in an adjoining plot.

Edward married, for his second wife, about 1907, his sister-in-law, JESSIE (HAVENS) WILSON, widow of his brother Theodore (P08-062). Jessie (Havens) (Wilson) Wilson died 5 August 1957, she is buried with her second husband in Pine Grove Cemetery.

Edward T. Wilson in 1887 served in the New Hampshire senate from Farmington where he operated a grocery business. The 1910 census of Farmington lists him, age 56 years, born in Maine, a retail grocery merchant, heading a household comprised of his wife, Jessie H. Wilson, age 45 years, born in Iowa, and his step-son, Edward T. Wilson, Jr., age 15 years, born in Iowa, father born in Maine and mother born in Iowa. They had been married three years, Jessie was the mother of two children, one of whom was then living.

P08-062 THEODORE WILSON (Theodore, Theodore, Jonathan, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born at York, Maine, about 1860, youngest of the seven children of Maj. Theodore and Elizabeth S. (Talpey) Wilson. He died at Boone City, Des Moines Township, Boone County, Iowa, before the census was taken in June of 1900.

He married JESSIE HAVENS, who was born (GS), 11 October 1864, in Iowa. The 1900 census of Des Moines Township lists Jessie Wilson, a widow, born in Iowa, in October of 1864, mother of two children, both were living with her.

About 1907 Jessie married, as his second wife, her brother-in-law, Hon. EDWARD TALPEY (P08-059) WILSON. The 1907-8 Town Register of Farmington, New Hampshire, lists Jessie H. (Havens-Nelson) Wilson, thus suggesting that Jessie may have married ----- NELSON as her second husband.

This surmise tends to be discredited by a printed account; "Jessie had a son by her first husband who was named after her brother-in-law, who later became her second husband." (Katherine F. Richmond, John Hayes of Dover, New Hampshire, [1936] page 655).

On 7 February 1911 Jessie H. Wilson, of Farmington, who had been appointed guardian of her son Edward T. Wilson, by order of the court in Boone County, Iowa, petitioned for license to sell his 1/28th part of two parcels of real estate in Farmington. (Strafford County Probate Court Records, file 135:11)

Jessie H. Wilson of Farmington signed her will 6 October 1948, it was proven 5 June 1962. She requested that she be buried next to her son in the Edward T. Wilson lot in Pine Grove Cemetery and bequeathed a few items of jewelry to her daughter-in-law, Ruth R. Wilson of New York City. The remainder of her estate was to go to her grand-daughter, Mary Ann Wilson of New York City, who was named to be executrix. (Strafford County Probate Court Records, file A8518)

Children of Theodore and Jessie (Havens) Wilson:

P08-063 GEORGE STEVENS WILSON (David, Nathaniel, David, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born Castine, Maine (GS) in November of 1836, (calculated) oldest child of David S. O. and Mary E. (Stevens) Wilson. George S. Wilson, a master mariner, born at Castine, son of David S. O. and Mary E. (Stevens) Wilson, died at Portland (VR), 23 July 1902, age 65 years and 8 months. P08-066 LOUIS A. WILSON (Benjamin, Nathaniel, David, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born Castine, Maine about 1847, second child and eldest son of Benjamin James and Mary W. (Webster) Wilson.

Records of this man are elusive, the 1850 census shows him living with his parents. We know he survived the Civil War, in 1865 when his father was appointed guardian for his children, the list included the son Louis A. Wilson. He was deceased by 1899 when the probate of his sister Althea listed her nephews, William Wilson and J. G. Wilson, both of Castine, rather than her brother Louis, as being next-of-kin. (Hancock County Probate Court Records, file 2909)

Children of Louis A. Wilson, mother unknown:

9-72 i. WILLIAM, born circa 1877.
9-73 ii. J----- G., born circa 1880.

P08-068 EDWARD EVERETT WILSON (Benjamin, Nathaniel, David, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born 24 May 1861, at Castine, Maine, fourth child of Benjamin James Wilson, the first by his second wife, Abby W. (Hatch). He died (GS), in 1945, buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Saco, Maine.

He married at Amesbury, Massachusetts, on 16 September 1891, LUNETTE FRANCES LIBBY, who was born at Saco, 2 May 1866, daughter of Francis Edwin and Julia A. W. (Bryant) Libby. (Charles T. Libby, The Libby Family in America, [1882] page 386) Lunette died (GS) in 1936, she is buried with her husband. Her probate shows a net estate of over $35,000.00 in securities which were equally distributed to her husband and her two sons. (York County Probate Court Records, file 64631)

Edward E. Wilson settled in Saco in May of 1895. He was said to be "among the most prominent and influential citizens of a community with the affairs of which he came to be intimately identified. He has been closely associated with its life, taking a prominent part in many departments of its affairs. A public-spirited man, his activities have always been directed to the welfare and advantage of the community where he has elected to live, and of which he is now a valued member." Despite this effusive account, found on page 12 of Maine History, Biographical, [1919], we find no specifics as to his business interests, his political offices or, perhaps more important, how he supported his family.

The mother, Lunette F. Wilson, in 1900, was appointed guardian for Paul L. Wilson, born 14 June 1896, and Everett B. Wilson, born 8 Sept. 1894, who each received the sum of $5,000.00 from their maternal grandmother, Julia A. W. Libby, which was placed in trust to pay for their education. (York County Probate Court Records, file 50047)

The 1910 census of Saco listed Edward E. Wilson, age 48 years, who, when asked his occupation, stated he had his own income. His wife, Lunette F. Wilson, age 43 years, born in Maine, had borne him two children, both of them were then living. With them were listed their children; Everett B. Wilson, age 15 years, born in Massachusetts; and Paul L. Wilson, age 13 years, born in Maine.

On 23 January 1946 Paul L. Wilson of Saco was granted administration on the estate of Edward E. Wilson, late of Saco, deceased, intestate. (York County Probate Court Records, file 71368)

Wilson, late of Saco, deceased, intestate, was given to his brother, Paul L. Wilson, of Saco, who posted surety by Florence B. Wilson of Saco and Amelia J. Barker of Biddeford. He left no widow or child. (York County Probate Court Records, file 72070)

9-75+ ii. PAUL LIBBY, born 14 June 1896, at Saco, died there, 30 Sept. 1959.

He married, about 1878, BERTHA E. TURNER, who was born in Maine about 1861.

The 1910 census of Penobscot lists Josiah Wilson, a farmer, age 65 years, born in Maine. His wife of thirty-one years, Bertha E. Wilson, had born him three children, all of whom were then living. Also living with them was their son, Hale Wilson, age 23 years, a farm laborer.

P08-085 CHARLES WILSON (Joseph, John, John, Michael, Noah, Michael, Henry) born 22 August 1848 (GS), at Castine, Maine, third child of Joseph Wilson, the second by his second wife, Mary (Jones). This date may be incorrect, the 1850 census gives Charles' age as only 9/12 years. He died (GS), 3 January 1929, buried in Castine with his parents and his wife.

He married at Steuben, Maine (VR), 11 September 1872, HANNAH FRANCES McDEVITT. She was born 14 February 1854 (GS), and died 4 January 1929.

The 1910 census of Castine lists Charles Wilson, age 60 years, a farmer. He had been married for thirty-eight years to Hannah F. Wilson, age 57 years, of Irish parents. Hannah had born him three children, all were then living.

P08-222 LEWIS B. WILSON (Asa, Asa, Samuel, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born 9 May 1839, at Waltham, Massachusetts (VR), son of Asa and Amanda (Hatten) Wilson. He died at Warwick, Rhode Island (VR), on 5 May 1864, age 25 years. Lewis was previously incorrectly listed, in volume "L," as L05-779.

He married at Warwick, on 25 January 1860, JANETTE A. PLATT. The death of Janet A. Wilson, daughter of Jonathan and Mary Platt, on 18 March 1890, age 49 years, is also recorded at Warwick.

Jane Wilson, age 25 years, born in Massachusetts, is listed in the 1865 census of Warwick. Living with her were her two daughters, Clara B., age 5 years, and Maria, age 3 years, both natives of that place.

Children of Lewis B. and Janette A. (Platt) Wilson:

9-122 i. CLARA B., born at Warwick late in 1860.
9-123 ii. MARIA, born about 1862, at Warwick.

P08-245 CHARLES C. WILSON (Charles, Enoch, Jared, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) born in May of 1859, at Kewanee, Henry County, Illinois, third of the seven children of Hon. Charles Calvin and Maria Nancy (Benham) Wilson.

He married, about 1887, a widow, ALICE N. (-----) CASSIDY. According to the 1900 census, Alice was born in Illinois during October of 1868.

The 1900 census of Kewanee, shows Charles C. Wilson, a moulder, age 41 years, born in Illinois in May of 1859, his father a native of Massachusetts and his mother born in Vermont. His wife, Alice N., age 31 years, was born in Illinois, in October of 1868, both of her parents being natives of Pennsylvania. They had been married 12 years, Alice was the mother of two children, both then living. Both of these children were listed in the household, Charles' step-son, Stephen Cassidy, age 13 years, born in Illinois in September of 1886, both parents natives of Illinois, and Charles' son, Louis G. Wilson, age 12 years, born in January of 1888, both parents natives of Illinois.

The listing of this family in the 1910 census shows but little change, Charles' age is 52, Alice is 41 years old. Apparently Stephen Cassidy had been adopted by his step-father, he is now called Stephen Wilson.

Child of Charles C. and Alice N. (-----) Wilson:

9-124 i. LOUIS G., born probably at Kewanee, in January of 1888.

P08-249 EDWARD H. WILSON (Charles, Enoch, Jared, Seth, Samuel, Ephraim, Henry) Eddie, as he was usually called, was born 17 February 1867, at Kewanee, Henry County, Illinois, youngest of the seven children of Hon. Charles Calvin and Maria Nancy (Benham) Wilson.

He married, about 1898, MARY -----, who was born in Illinois during September of 1874.

The 1900 census of Kewanee, lists Edward Wilson, a moulder, age 33 years, born in Illinois during February of 1867, his father a native of Massachusetts and his mother born in Vermont. His wife Mary, age 26 years, was born in Illinois during September 1874, her parents were natives of Pennsylvania. They had been married 2 years and were the parents of one child, Charles C. Wilson, born in Illinois during April of 1899.

The name of Edward Wilson in the 1910 census of Kewanee directly follows that of his brother Charles. Both were working in the boiler ship, both said their parents were natives of Connecticut (sic!). Edward's son had apparently died, he is not listed and Mary is said to have had no children.

Child of Edward H. and Mary (-----) Wilson:

9-125 i. CHARLES C., born at Kewanee during April of 1899.

End of eighth generation.

NINTH GENERATION

P09-010 THOMAS McDONOUGH WILSON (John, Abijah, Abijah, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) frequently called McDONOUGH WILSON, he was born in July of 1867, probably at St. Armand, Essex County, New York, second of the five known children of John Madison and Elizabeth (Watson) Wilson. He died (GS) in 1933.

His wife, MAUDE JOHNSON, was born in New York during April of 1873.

Their gravestone in Brookside Cemetery, St. Armand, reveals an interesting story. It reads; "WILSON - T. M. 1867-1933," below this is a line "Maude Johnson, his wife, 1873- ," followed by a line "Myrtle O., 1892-1917," the bottom line reads "Baby Clyde, 1917- ." The year of Tom's death was obviously added after the stone had been erected. From this we deduce that the stone was purchased in 1917 when the daughter died, probably as a result of complications in the birth of Baby Clyde. Maude survived her husband and had the date of his death inscribed, but there was no one in St. Armand with both the interest and the funds to have the date added when the widow died. The name of the father of Baby Clyde and the infant's fate is not apparent.

The 1900 census of St. Armand lists McDonough Wilson, a farmer, born in July of 1867, with his wife Maude, born in April of 1873, and their three children; Martha O. (sic!), born October 1892, Alma C. born January 1894, and Bentley M. P., born in January of 1881. Also living with him was his father, John Wilson, born in August 1839, and his sister Jessie, born in November 1881. Thomas' brother Charles and his new bride were living in the adjacent household.

Children of Thomas McD. and Maude (Johnson) Wilson; all born at St. Armand:

10-1 i. MYRTLE O., born during October 1892, died 1917.
10-2 ii. ALMA E., born during January of 1894.
10-3 iii. BENTLEY M. P., born during January 1899.

P09-011 HUBERT AVERY WILSON (John, Abijah, Abijah, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) born at St. Armand, Essex County, New York, about 1872, son of John Madison and Elizabeth (Watson) Wilson. He died at Keene, New Hampshire, on 23 June 1952.

He married CATHERINE WATSON, who was born at St. Albans, Vermont, 22 Mar. 1870, daughter of Edward W. and Lucy (O'Donald) Watson. Catherine died 25 Mar. 1959. (Martha McD. Frizzell, History of Walpole, New Hampshire, [1963] 2:309)

Hubert was a brick mason, who in 1920 purchased a parcel of land in Walpole which he lost when, following the financial crash of 1929, his mortgage was foreclosed. (Frizzell, op. cit., 1:245)

Children of Hubert A. and Catherine (Watson) Wilson:

10-4 i. BERTHA G., born in July of 1895 (calculated), died at Keene, NH (VR), 22 Mar. 1908, age 12 years, 8 months and 10 days. Her name, without dates, is listed by Frizzell, op. cit.

10-5 ii. BLANCHE G., born 29 July 1895, died 22 Mar. 1908. We question this listing which also comes from Frizzell. Although these two girls could have been twins it is most unlikely that they would have both died on the same day. If this was the case, and they died together, why does only one death appear in the Keene records?

10-6 iii. HELEN KATHERINE, born 25 May 1900. She married 27 Nov. 1918 THOMAS GRAVES, who was born 15 June 1893, son of William C. and Hattie E. (Curtis) Graves. Children: as given by Frizzell, (op. cit., 2:118)

P09-018 ALBERT JOSEPH WILSON (Joseph, Joseph, Abijah, Joseph, Uriah, Michael, Michael, Henry) born 27 August 1871, at Chester, Vermont, fifth of the six children of Joseph Avery and Susan A. (Field) Wilson. Albert J. Wilson died at Chester, probably early in 1922; he is buried in North Chester Cemetery.

He married VIOLA M. PRESCOTT. According to the birth records of her two youngest children, Viola was born about 1878 in China, Maine. She survived her husband.

Albert was residing in West Haven, Connecticut in 1913 when his father died. It is likely that he married there, his three older children were born there.

Shortly after his father's death Albert returned to the homestead in Chester where the 1920 census lists him, age 48 years, born in Vermont, a laborer in a machine shop. His wife Viola M, age 35 years (sic!), was born in Maine. Their five children were; Joseph R., age 12 years, Lewis E., age 7 years, Alice M., age 5 years, Bertha V., age 3-4/12 years, and Frances E., age 1-11/12 years. The first three were born in Connecticut, the last two in Vermont.

On 11 April 1922 administration on the estate of Albert J. Wilson, late of Chester, deceased, intestate, was given to L. S. Richardson of Chester, who posted surety by Edwin J. Davis. (Windsor District Probate Court Records) Unfortunately this file is notably sterile regarding information about his family.

He married in Tremont Temple, Boston, Massachusetts, in 1906, MARY CRAIG McNAUGHT. In 1973 Mary was living in Everett, Massachusetts, having been a member of the Everett Congregational Church for 81 years.

Our information regarding this family comes from correspondence with their son who said the couple had six children, all of them living in 1973, most had grandchildren. Unfortunately George died before he could send the promised complete record of his ancestry.

Only known child of George S. Mary C. (McNaught) Wilson:

10-18 i. GEORGE W. born circa 1910. He served in the U. S. Army during World War II, retired to Florida with the rank of Lt. Colonel. He once mentioned that he had a son, George W., Jr. and a grandson, Michael George.

children of Horace and Eunice E. (Chickering) Wilson. A widower for 35 years, he died there in 1937.

He married at Gilroy, on 1 July 1874, DOLLY S. REITHER. She was born there on 24 February 1857, daughter of Jacob Reither, a native of Germany. Dolly died at Gilroy, on 29 March 1902, aged 45 years, 1 month and 5 days. Her funeral is said to have been one of the largest ever seen in Gilroy, the procession being over a mile long.

"Reared in his native locality, Edwin attended the common schools of Gilroy, and took a finishing course in the Gilroy high school. At eighteen he left home and devoted his time to stock-raising, which has occupied his attention ever since. He established the ranch known as the Hot Springs Range, and here he has two thousand acres, fenced with wire fencing, devoted to raising stock and hay. His home place on the old Gilroy road, about 2 miles from town, contains 33 acres, planted in orchard and hay."

The 1900 census of San Ysidro Precinct, Gilroy Township, lists Edwin Wilson, born in California during July 1855. He had been married for 26 years to Dollie S., who was born in California during February of 1857, her father a native of Germany, her mother born in Illinois. For his second wife Lyman married about 1893, NETTIE CAVANAUGH, who was born at Gilroy in February of 1872.

Lyman appears to have been somewhat of a rolling stone. Completing his schooling at McClure's Academy in Oakland, California, he returned to Gilroy to work on his father's ranch. He spent two years as a cowboy on a cattle ranch near Klamath Falls, Oregon. He returned to Gilroy in 1881, five years later he was in New Hampshire for his marriage. From 1890 to 1898 he was engaged in the transfer business in Salinas, California and in 1902 and 1903 he worked for the State Dairy Bureau as inspector of Santa Clara, San Benito, Monterey, Merced and Stanislaus counties.

THE WRENTHAM VITAL RECORDS

While researching material for this book, we found in the published version of the Wrentham Vital Records several entries of births which did not mesh with known facts.

Cognizant that errors may have occurred in transcribing material from the original records to the printed version we inspected the original manuscript at the office of the Wrentham Town Clerk. These volumes have the births listed in strict chronological sequence. In other towns where this format was used entries tend to be made with assorted shades of ink and in differing styles of handwriting, further delayed entries are frequently found inserted between the lines. These conditions do not prevail in Wrentham, the entries, in old time penmanship, are uniform in appearance, there are no between-the-lines insertions. Based upon these facts we concluded that at some long past time the original records had been transcribed into new books. There is no way we can now determine whether or not errors were made at that time.

With one exception, the questionable entries in the printed version are exact copies of the same entries in the manuscript records. The exception involves the printed items, [M]ary Willson, 18 Feb. 1675, and ----- Willson, 16 Feb. 1677. In the manuscript these entries follow in sequence, located in an area where a small part of the margin has been torn from the page. Careful inspection shows that the remaining inscriptions read ary Wilson, 18 Feb. 1675, and ry Willson, 16 Feb. 1677. We consider this to be ample evidence to validate the listings found in The Dedham Historical Register, which apparently was compiled before the page was torn, and shows Sary Willson, 18 Feb. 1675, and Mary Willson, 16 Feb. 1677. See P03-001 and P03-002.

The other questionable entries are:

(1) Jedidah, born 21 July 1743, daughter of Henry and Abigail. We believe this should be Jedediah, son of Henry and Abigail, the Wrentham deeds refer only to a son with this name. See P04-019.

(2) Bebe, born 23 Aug. 1765, daughter of Michael and Mary. We suspect this should be Phebe. There is no other reference to a Bebe and we can find no origin for Phebe (P-032). Both girls were of approximately the same age. See P05-041.

(3) Enoch, born 16 July 1810, is listed as son of John and Julia. Nowhere else do we find mention of a couple with these names. There was no John Wilson having children in Wrentham at that time. Julia (Knowlton), wife of Enoch (P06-119), is the only Julia Wilson known to have resided in Wrentham at that time. We believe that Enoch and Julia were the parents of Enoch. See P07-242.

NOAH'S PENSION APPLICATION

State of Pennsylvania
Bradford County

On this (blank) day of September, A. D. 1832, personally appeared in open court, before the Court of Common Pleas, of Bradford County, now sitting, Noah Willson a resident of the town of Canton in the County aforesaid, aged seventy-(blank) years, who first being duly sworn according to Law doth on his oath (blank) the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

First he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served (blank) herein stated.

He first volunteered at the town of Rowe, Massachusetts, under Captain Seth Howard, with eight or ten others among the others the Rev. (illegible) Jones, the minister of Rowe, about the 14th of August 1777 and marched to Bennington in Vermont where he arrived with his party, in the afternoon of the 16th and before the battle was concluded, was present during part of the engagement. After the battle returned home and immediately marched thence to Stillwater, thence to Saratoga, and then to Ft. Edward and back to Saratoga where he arrived on the morning of the capitulation of Burgoyne. After the expedition returned home, three or four days after. Thinks Co. Wells was the principal officer, Slade Lieutenant part of the time. But were not very well organized, Captain Howard's party consisting of only thirty or forty men. Does not remember their names. At Saratoga Barracks a Colonel Cochrane took the command. Was engaged in several skirmishes. At Saratoga Barracks were attacked by the British Light Horse and retreated to the east side of the river, from whence they went to Ft. Edward. Had several skirmishes on the way. Was out on a scout with three hundred men while (blank) Fort Edward, in two divisions, one under Capt. Stebbins and Capt. M. (illegible). The two parties took during three days three hundred Indians a& two or three tories painted like Indians and brought them into the fort. Was out this time two months & over.

In the year 1780 went out as a six months militia man from Rowe, Massachusetts. Entered in the early part of May. Had no regular officers until they joined the army. Passed Muster at Hampton, Massachusetts, Joined the army at Westpoint being marched (illegible) by a Lieutenant, name forgotten. Joined Captain Hastings company of infantry, Lieutenants name forgotten. Commanded by Colonel Jackson of the Massachusetts line. There were three regiments in the brigade, one from Massachusetts, one from Connecticut and one from Rhode Island. The other Colonels were (illegible) from Connecticut and Oney from Rhode Island. Thinks the brigade was commanded by Gen. Hastings? possibly may have been Gen. Sterling. I lay at West Point four or five weeks, marched there and crossed at Kings ferry, to New Jersey. Was stationed chiefly at Orange town, Linerappy. Once was marched near New York City and lay near (in sight) of the city. For two or three months were marching back & forth on and near the Hudson. Was present at the execution of Major Andre. Finally were marched back to West Point and lay thee till the deponent was discharged. Employed sometimes in repairing fortifications, sometime on fatigue duty and sometimes out on guard. Discharged in the month of November. Militia he thinks were discharged by general order. Was out on this tour three weeks over the six months for which he enlisted.

In January 1781 turned out at Rowe, Massachusetts on the report that the Indians and tories were committing depredations on the frontier. Went to Danby Rutland Co. Vermont. Enlisted in a company of volunteers under the command of his brother, Captain Ebenezer Wilson called the Volunteer Rangers. Went to Fort Castleton. Was continually ranging upon the frontier protecting the inhabitants. Lay among others places at Skenesboro, now White Hall and Fort Ann. Then went (illegible) in the waters of Lake George and Lake Champlain. Took a few tories in their second excursion (illegible) employed in this manner until June 1780. During the time this party was posted at their home, but constantly ready to turn out on the least alarm. During this period he thinks he was in actual service over one year. Wilson's company acted under Col. Warner or Col. Herrick, or both. Removed to Granville, New York. At this place enlisted in July 1782 in a company of Volunteer Rangers under Captain Solomon Balice. Does not recollect the Colonel's name. Served in the same kind of service, viz. protecting the frontier, and on the same ground as during the late term. Took some tories. Recollects no very *(illegible)*table occurrences during the time he was out. Was discharged the last of April or 1st of May. Was during this term out on actual service nine months, but was constantly ready to turn out as before on the slightest alarm.

In the last of May or 1st of June 1783 he entered at Providence Rhode Island, on board the Ship MARCUS chartered as a Letter of Marque commanded by Capt. Oney. Cruised the Sound and on the main sea toward the West Indies about six weeks. Off the capes of Carolina or Virginia the ship was taken by a British Frigate and burnt. The deponent escaped in the boat to an island on the coast of Carolina.

He was out in all about two years and seven months as he sincerely believes.

Has no written or documentary proof, nor does he know of any person whose testimony can be written or orally had, or whether any persons are living or where, who can substantiate his claim, or who can testify to his service excepting Alexander Tachels whose deposition is hereunto attached.

He hereby relinquishes all claims to any pension or annuity whatsoever except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension (blank) of the agency of any state or territory.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

(signed) Noah Willson

P-034 SALTHERMIRA, born circa 1775, probably in Massachusetts. In 1850 Salthermia, wife of JOHN GIBSON, was listed an heir-at-law of Mary (P05-054) Wilson.

P-035 SARAH R., born circa 1826, probably in Massachusetts. She was living in Wrentham, MA in 1886 when her husband, Albert G. (P-005), died. According to his probate they had three sons and an adopted daughter.

P-036 SUSAN, born about 1830, in Massachusetts. She died at Rowe, MA, on 12 Sept. 1889, leaving her husband, Aaron (P-001), and daughters Ella M. (P-015), and Alice (P-006). (Franklin County Probate Court Records, case 10055)

P-037 VIORA MARIA, born circa 1902, in Vermont, daughter of Robert Brown. In 1906 she was adopted by Jane M. (P07-096) Wilson, of Pittsfield, VT.

P-038 W---- C., born about 1854, in Illinois. A laborer, he is listed in the 1880 census of Creston, Union Co., IA, with his wife Mary (P-029), and their daughters Mary (P-030), and Eva (P-017), all born in Iowa. Living nearby was Dr. James B. (P07-253) Wilson. W. C's listing says both his parents were natives of New York, if this is correct he can not be a son of Dr. James who was born in Massachusetts.

P-039 WILLIAM, born about 1838, in New York. The 1850 census of Milton, Saratoga Co., NY, shows William, age 12 years, born in New York, with his parents, Henry (P-019) and Calista. See P07-033.

P-040 WILLIAM, born during April 1877, in California. The 1900 census of San Ysidro Precinct, Gilroy, Santa Clara Co., CA, lists him, age 23 years, a farm laborer, whose father was born in New Hampshire and whose mother was born in Kentucky. These parameters fit Dorson (P08-048) and his wife Mary (Mathew) Wilson, but this can not be their William who was born in February of 1864 and was living in 1900.

P-041 WILLIAM M., born circa 1850, in Massachusetts. He and James (P07-244), "grandchildren by a deceased son," are mentioned in the 1857 probate of Enoch (P06-119) Wilson. William was living in Illinois, probably with his uncle, Hon. Charles C. (P07-249) Wilson.

P-042 WILLIE, born in Maine. His name is inscribed on a small stone, without dates, in the cemetery plot of Nathaniel (P06-029) Wilson, in Castine, ME. There is no clue as to whether Willie was a son or grandson.
